Kennedy Picks Ribicoff, Williams

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy today announced his first cabinet selection — Democratic Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut as secretary of health, education and welfare.

In the same place a few hours earlier, Kennedy announced his selection of retiring Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan to be assistant secretary of state for African affairs.

Shortly after that he broadly indicated he had tried and failed to get Republican Robert A. Lovett, former secretary of defense and under secretary of state, into his administration.

The Kennedy disclosure that Ribicoff had agreed to head the Department of Health, Education and Welfare came late in the afternoon after the president-elect and the Connecticut governor had conferred at Kennedy's home for about 20 minutes.

Ribicoff's term as governor has two years to run. He was one of the earliest Kennedy-for-president backers.

The selection of Williams was the first announced choice of anyone for either a cabinet or sub-cabinet post. He was tabbed for assistant for African affairs, a post which Kennedy called a position of responsibility second to none.

Williams, who leaves the governor's office Jan. 1, was a breakfast guest. Lovett came in for lunch.

After the conference with Lovett, Kennedy told an impromptu news conference that his guest "has retired from active service in government."

Cuba Charges Missile Blast 'Provocation'

Rocket Destroyed, Fragments May Have Hit Island

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Cuba charged today that the United States deliberately exploded a rocket from Cape Canaveral over Cuba territory as a "provocation."

The Havana government organ Revolucion said 40-pound fragments plunged onto eastern Cuba yesterday after a malfunctioning satellite carrier was destroyed in mid-flight. The U.S. Defense Department said it could not "exclude the possibility."

Revolucion's bitter attack bore the implied threat that Cuban and Communist propaganda might be unleashed in a campaign to halt or hobble U.S. flights down the Caribbean-Atlantic missile range, the main street of American space research.

". . . the Cuban people and other peoples of America have been and are now being submitted to a grave danger from United States war experiments," Revolucion charged.

Drenching Gale Sweeps Marin; Ark Set Afloat

THE LOOK OF THE MORNING — This was the view through windshields as rain poured on Marin this morning. The particular windshield in the photo is that of Independent-Journal cameraman Dick Steinheimer as he drove east on First Street in San Rafael.

Less Rain, More Cold Forecast

A drenching gale swept Marin County at what should have been sun-up this morning, flooding streets and breaking trees and setting an ark afloat in Corte Madera Creek at Greenbrae.

Weather forecasts were for diminishing showers and winds with slightly colder temperatures tonight, and 30 per cent chance of more rain tomorrow.

TRAFFIC JAMS

San Rafael and other points experienced traffic jams due to street flooding while falling tree limbs not only interfered with traffic but caused a three-hour break in electricity supply in Bolinas.

A concrete ark broke loose from its mooring at 111 Greenbrae Boardwalk as the tide neared its height shortly after 10 a.m. and was floating out toward the bay until two Greenbrae Boardwalk residents, Charles Flynn and Howard Gold, boarded it and threw an anchor over the side to hold it in the channel. It then headed diagonally across the channel to ground on the other side.

2.21 INCHES FELL

The ark belongs to Frank Winters of San Francisco. Neighbors said Winters moored it by the boardwalk sometime ago but had not yet anchored it on piles.

With a total rainfall of 2.21 inches for the 24 hours ended at noon today, San Rafael had a total for the season of 7.39 inches—well over the average of 5.87 inches to this date and far ahead of 4.55 inches last Dec. 1.

Soviets Orbit 'Ark' Of Animals, Plants

MOSCOW (UPI) — Russia launched a five-ton "arknik" spaceship loaded with two dogs and other living creatures into orbit today as a prelude to manned space flight, but there was fear the rocket would burn and kill its occupants.

A Russian scientist dampened jubilation over the heaviest-yet space shot by warning that unless it was brought down from its cigar-shaped orbit "very soon," it might hit the earth's atmosphere and burn into a cinder like a shooting star.

The dogs Pchelka (little bee) and Mushka (little fly) were reported in "satisfactory condition" as the huge rocket soared in an orbit that carried it around earth once every 88.49 minutes on a medical-biological research probe for space flight.

Its closest point to earth (perigee) was estimated at 111.94 miles by Russian scientists. Its farthest point (apogee) was 154.72 miles.

Vehicle Noses Down Cliff, Crashes Home

A driverless station wagon plummeted down a 70 foot cliff and crashed into a house at 23 Eucalyptus Court, San Rafael today, spewing glass over a table at which a family of five had just been seated.

Andrew Coomans, resident of the house in the Dominican area, said one of his sons had just called him from the living room to look at rainwater rushing down the street at 8:30 a.m.

HEARD NOISE

"I heard a rumbling noise in the rear yard, turned around and saw this car come smashin through the glass window," he said.

Chester Sipkin, owner of the car, told Police Officer Raymond Bleasdale he had parked the 1960 station wagon in his rear yard at 27 Eucalyptus Court while he inspected a drainage culvert.

"All of a sudden I heard the brake pop and saw the wagon roll over the hill," Sipkin said.

It skidded down the steep slope, ripped through the Coomans' patio, overturning tables and chairs, and rammed through their dining room window. The wagon halted with its bumper about a foot inside the house.

SECOND RUNAWAY CAR

It was the second runaway car in San Rafael in 24 hours.

At 2:45 p.m. yesterday, Mrs. Nancy Lee Gray tried to start her car in front of her home at 346 Santa Margarita Drive. It wouldn't start. She went into the house to call a garage.

She returned to find the car had started—it had rolled 42 feet down the hill, careened across the street and flipped over on its side in front of 350 Santa Margarita.

BAY AREA'S FUTURE

Much Urban Land Due Development

(This is the fourth of five stories digesting the voluminous report of the Army Corps of Engineers on the Bay Area's future, as it affects Marin.)

By RANDALL GOULD

By the year 2020 it is forecast that 65 per cent of potential urban land in the Bay Area will be in urban use.

At present, according to current surveys, "Marin County is the most extensively developed of the North Bay counties with more than 13 per cent of its urban potential land developed." Forecast is a figure of 62.9 per cent by 2020.

The quotation is from a new U.S. Department of Commerce book called "Future Development of the San Francisco Bay Area," based on Army Engineers' studies, which makes clear the opinion of its compilers that Marin, and especially South Marin, is due for steady population influx from San Francisco and elsewhere—a population looking for living space in an urban pattern.

For Marin, the word "urban" is shown to have specialized meaning which will be mainly residential-recreational rather than such uses as industrial and commercial to any large degree.

In contrast with Marin's present 13 per cent development of its urban potential, Napa, Solano and Sonoma have used less than 6 per cent — under four acres of every potential 100 urban acres having been developed so far in Sonoma.

Figures for 1958 population show that Marin with a then population of 136,800, only 3.9 per cent of the total Bay Area population, had 278 square miles of potential urban land which represented 7.7 per cent of the over-all potential. What this indicates is room to grow. A series of charts by 10-year periods conveys how the experts feel this extent of "residential and commercial land" — including relatively minor industrial-land areas — is likely to spread.

Marin residents pretty well realize the location of their present urban areas as shown on these charts. Geography limits what the future can hold, and future growth is anticipated to be a general process of swelling the present areas.

Progress will be rapid, the

DRUGS CHANGE SKIN COLOR, DOCTOR SAYS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Washington skin specialist produced evidence at the American Medical Assn. meeting today that drugs in some cases can make black people white or white people black.

The specialist, Dr. Robert Stolar, was accompanied by a white-skinned Negro woman, who did not identify herself but who said that under his treatment she has been white for 15 years.

Stolar said he has accomplished the same result in 16 cases.

Stolar stressed that he administers the treatment only to patients who have blotched skin such as cafe-au-lait spots or other "disturbances of pigmentation."

He said it has not so far proved possible to provide white skin for Negroes with no pigmentation disturbances.

The technical name of the drug used in the treatment is "monobenzyl ether of hydroquinone." It is used in an ointment which is applied externally.

To make light skin uniformly dark, Stolar said he uses a drug called "8 methoxypsoralen," which is taken by mouth and is followed by ultraviolet ray treatments to trigger its action.

Wives' Fury Explodes In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—White housewives became so furious today when six white children were slipped past their blockade into an integrated school that they began chasing bystanders.

They cursed, shoved, pummeled and kicked nearly a dozen assorted bystanders, including newsmen and elderly women, after white parents outmaneuvered them and boosted the attendance at William Frantz school to seven—six white students and a Negro girl.

It was the highest attendance at Frantz in the last six days of integration. But at McDonogh 19, three Negro girls were still alone in the building—the 467 white students at the school boycotted it for the fifth day.

The "cheerleaders," as police call the core of about 40 of the housewife heckling team that appears daily at Frantz school, braved bitter cold temperatures today but were frustrated from their prime objective.

Rev. Andrew Foreman and Mrs. Daisy Gabrielle, arriving about half an hour apart, got their daughters into the school by a side door opposite to the side where the "cheerleaders"

NEGRO CONGRESSMAN VISITS KENNEDY

U.N. To Adjourn, Await Kennedy

By TOM HOGE

The assembly, still in sort of a state of shock since Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's table-thumping antics at the start of this session, has not taken action on a single major issue in the past two months. It has given up hope of ending its business on the target date of Dec. 17.

Most delegates feel that the United States cannot make any hard decisions until Sen. John F. Kennedy takes over the presidency. They do not want the 99-nation assembly to reconvene before the middle of February.

Many hope that with a new U.S. president not bound by the commitments of the Eisenhower administration, the Soviet Union may take a more conciliatory position on its major conflicts with the United States.

So far the major accomplishments of the assembly have been the perennial decision to shelve Communist China's bid for membership and seat the Congo delegation backing President Joseph Kasavubu.

But other debates have so bogged down the schedule that night and Saturday meetings are set in the trusteeship committee and the assembly itself in a drive to clean up a bulging agenda of colonial issues before the recess in mid-December.

The assembly itself is confronted with a staggering list of 64 speakers who want a say on the Soviet proposal to abolish all colonies at once. This idea was proposed by Khrushchev during his four-week visit here.

Another of Khrushchev's ideas, a three-man board to replace Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, has not been made into a formal proposal by the Soviets. But Communist spokesmen have taken a lot of time talking about Hammarskjold and his secretariat in various assembly committees.

Still coming up for discussion are acrimonious debates on Hungary and Tibet, and resolutions by the Soviet Union and Cuba accusing the United States of aggression.

Next week the Political Committee takes up the question of the Algerian rebels' six-year war for independence from France. It is likely to produce plenty of verbal fireworks, with the Soviets joining in hot and heavy against the French. The Political Committee has indicated it also plans to go on a double schedule then.

Right now the Political Committee is discussing disarmament, a question on which its members would like to hear the views of the Kennedy administration. Most delegates want to avoid voting on rival proposals at this stage.

Winnie Takes Birthday Fete In His Stride

His physicians heaved a sigh of relief as Churchill, with the milestone behind him and his home decked with presents and greetings from all over the world, settled down to the task of recovering from a bone fracture.

The venerable statesman, who led Britain to victory during World War II, broke a small bone in his back in a fall 17 days ago.

Churchill got out of his special bed yesterday for the first time and sat up in a wheelchair.

Lord Moran, who has doctored the former prime minister through a dozen major illnesses, said yesterday his patient was "looking fine."

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Ship Still Aground

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. (AP) — Water rose higher in the holds of a grounded Liberian freighter today, and her captain indicated concern over the plight of his ship and the 14 persons aboard.

Twelve crewmen, Capt. Eduardo Trivizas and his wife, an expectant mother, have spent two nights aboard the Francisco Morazan in gale-lashed Lake Michigan. She piled onto the rocks off South Manitou Island about 32 air miles northwest of this Michigan city Tuesday night. The Coast Guard hoped the weather would improve enough today to allow rescue and salvage operations.

Archbishop In Rome

ROME (UPI) — The Anglican Archbishop of Canterbury arrived today on an historic visit during which he will meet in an audience of "friendship and courtesy" with Pope John XXIII.

Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, dressed in his flowing purple robes as primate of the Church of England, flew in from Istanbul and a tour of the Holy Land for his visit tomorrow with the pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church. It will be the first meeting between the spiritual leaders of the two religions since the Protestant Reformation 400 years ago.

Typhoon Rakes Atoll

TOKYO (UPI) — A late-season typhoon, packing winds of up to 160 miles per hour, roared across tiny Ulithi atoll in the Western Pacific late yesterday and flattened everything but a concrete U.S. Coast Guard Station, according to reports received here today.

There were no immediate reports of casualties. The Coast Guard Loran Navigational Aid Station has a normal complement of one officer and 15 men. Reports said there were about 450 natives living near the facility. The reports reaching here said Typhoon Ophelia wrecked every building on the atoll except for the Coast Guard installation.

More Ransom Found

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Federal Bureau of Investigation agents have found another $100,000 of the ransom paid kidnapers of sportsman Anthony Alessio. To date $182,515 of the $200,000 paid has been recovered.

Agents discovered the money yesterday in a Los Angeles apartment occupied briefly by Frank Marrone, 31, one of five arrested suspects. The money was in a panel on the inside of a refrigerator door. Alessio, kidnaped in San Diego Nov. 21, was freed unharmed after payment of the ransom.

Orders U.A.R. Out

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP) — President Joseph Kasavubu today broke off diplomatic relations with the United Arab Republic and ordered Ambassador Murard Ghaleb and all his staff to leave the Congo immediately.

In a letter to U.A.R. President Abdel Gamal Nasser, Kasavubu said Ghaleb had plotted to overthrow the "established authority" in the Congo and sought to encourage "rebel elements" — meaning ex-Premier Patrice Lumumba.

Prison For Ape Thief

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Robert Tomarchin was found guilty of burglary and stealing and sentenced to four years in prison by a jury last night for the theft of Mr. Moke, the St. Louis Zoo's talking chimpanzee.

Tomarchin, 28, admitted taking the animal, which can utter the words "no" and "mama," from a cage in the zoo last Dec. 21 and removing him to Miami, Fla. He sought to prove that he had a change of heart after selling Mr. Moke to the zoo for $1,575. He claimed the zoo had failed to live up to an oral agreement to give the animal special treatment and care.

Reason For Tardiness

Flavorings Banned

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government today prohibited the use of safrol and oil of sassafras as flavorings in foods and beverages—including root beer and sarsaparilla.

The bottling industry, acting voluntarily, already has generally quit using them.

The Food and Drug Administration announced it was taking the formal action based on findings by a special scientific committee that the flavorings cause cancer of the liver in male rats. Under a new law, substances which cause cancer in test animals are banned for human use.

Trout In Gas Tank

WATERBURY, Conn. (AP) — Dorothea Loughran's car had been stalling off and on for the past month. Finally, after having checked everything else, garagemen removed the gasoline tank and inspected it. Inside they found a 7-inch trout. No one knew how it got there.

Nixon To Head GOP

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower has given Vice President Richard M. Nixon his personal endorsement as the leader of the Republican Party for the next four years, the White House said today.

Eisenhower tapped the defeated GOP presidential nominee as titular head of the party last night. He made his statement in a toast at a White House dinner.

He said Nixon would be recognized as head of the party for the next four years and would have his support.

Chilly Weather

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was bitter cold in northern Midwest areas and freezing in Dixie.

Skies cleared and winds diminished in the icy air across most sections from the Rockies to the Midwest. But more snow and strong winds hit areas in the Great Lakes, the upper Ohio Valley, western New York and northeastward into Vermont.

Shoot-To-Kill Orders Given In Havana

HAVANA (UPI)—Hundreds of militiamen with orders to shoot to kill suspicious persons prowled the streets here last night and early today, determined to prevent any repetition of the terror bombing which blacked out a fifth of Havana for 17 hours.

There was no immediate report of new activity by the foes of Premier Fidel Castro who killed his physician, militia Maj. Manuel Fajardo, in the Escambray Mountains Tuesday and bombed out the Havana electrical system yesterday.

The anti-Castro "30th of November" underground organization exploded 20 bombs in various parts of Havana during the pre-dawn hours yesterday, including one that wrecked an electric transformer, interrupting power service at 7 a.m.

Fajardo was killed and three other militiamen were wounded late Tuesday night in a clash with anti-government guerrillas in the Escambray range.

Church Fears Castro Will Close Schools

HAVANA (AP)—Roman Catholic Church authorities fear that Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government soon will squeeze their schools out of operation.

A top-ranking church spokesman, who declined the use of his name, said in an interview the "possibility that the University of Villanueva will be functioning six months from now" appears doubtful.

The informant suggested that the government may demand "indoctrination" courses in Cuba's private schools which Catholic institutions will not accept.

There are about 2,000 private schools in Cuba, 275 of them Catholic.

Castro recently attacked Villanueva as a "pro-Yankee" college. Opened 14 years ago as Cuba's first private Catholic university, it began the year with 750 students, a drop of 200 from last year.

It is financed mostly by donations and private grants, which have declined to almost nothing. Its unsalaried rector is Msgr. Eduardo Boza Masvidal, auxiliary bishop of Havana, and its administrative staff consists almost entirely of American and Spanish priests of the Order of Saint Augustine. There are 120 lay professors, mostly Cuban.

A university spokesman suggested that the Castro attack on the university fits into a pattern to undermine church influence.

He foresaw the definite possibility the government eventually will expel all foreign priests. Most of them are Spanish.

Palsy Organization Plans Yule Party

The seventh annual Christmas party for Marin's handicapped children will be held the afternoon of Dec. 18, at the Corte Madera Recreation Center, under sponsorship of United Cerebral Palsy of Marin.

A Christmas tree, Santa Claus, gifts, entertainment, and refreshments are on the program, according to Mrs. Robert Dinehart of Sausalito, chairman.

All cerebral palsy children in Marin and their families are invited to the party, Mrs. Dinehart said. Invitations also are sent to other handicapped through the Marin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Muscular Dystrophy Assn., Marin Assn. for Retarded Children, Indoor Sports and Marindale School.

Invitations also go to three sororities which aid victims of cerebral palsy: Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Gamma Delta and Kappa Delta.

'WOULD BREAK MY LEGS'

Mother Braves Mob Four Times A Day

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Mrs. Daisy Gabrielle says the mob of white women who abuse her daily "would break both my legs without thinking twice." But she walks through them four times a day so her child can attend school—a racially integrated school.

"People like these mobs will crucify and cut you to pieces," Mrs. Gabrielle said. "You have to have a tough hide to take it."

Mrs. Gabrielle has been struck twice walking her 6-year-old daughter Yolanda to and from the William Frantz Elementary School. The crowd of up to 50 women, called the "cheerleaders" by police, are trying to enforce a boycott of whites at the school, and Mrs. Gabrielle will not go along with it. So they line the walk, jeering and threatening her.

Sometimes Mrs. Gabrielle's husband, a 39-year-old meter reader for the city water department, gets off work early enough in the afternoon to see his wife and daughter home from school.

But even the presence of the police didn't stop one woman from shoving Mrs. Gabrielle and her daughter into a tree yesterday. No arrests were made.

"I don't think the women are going to hurt anyone's child," she said. "But I think they would break both of my legs without thinking twice."

Mrs. Gabrielle, 43, has received threats and been cursed by the women since Nov. 14, when Yolanda was left in the first grade at Frantz after a lone Negro girl began attending.

Only one other white child, the daughter of a Methodist minister, was in the school yesterday. More than 500 pupils quit attending Frantz in protest of desegration there.

"They (the "cheerleaders") want me to take Yolanda out of school so the school board will close it," Mrs. Gabrielle said. "But what these women don't realize is that it would be a catastrophe if all the schools are closed."

She said with better education, she and her family might be enjoying higher living standards. Mrs. Gabrielle answered questions while sitting on a battered, blanket-covered cough in the small living room of the family's low-rental housing project apartment.

Mrs. Gabrielle, who has six children, said she knows several other pupils at the school whose parents will take them to class if Frantz stays open.

"There is a danger of closing it now unless the enrollment increases," she said. "And the mob is out there to scare the other mothers into keeping their children away."

As for herself, Mrs. Gabrielle is "taking my stand on my rights as an American citizen."

Postal Confusion

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—If postmen puzzle over mail for Cross Roads, Ark., it's no wonder. The state has six towns by that name. There's a Cross-road, a Crossroads, and four Cross Roads.

Yule Pickpocket Warning Issued

He asked shoppers to lock their cars and stow packages in the truck while shopping.

Last Of Romanoffs Goes To Her Grave

It was a day of sadness for the remnants of Russia's emigres who attended the burial of Grand Duchess Olga, the last of the shattered house of Romanoff, who died in a friend's home last week at the age of 79.

Bluebloods and peasants fought tears as the coffin of the daughter of Czar Alexander III was lowered into its grave sprinkled with Russian soil.

A dozen former imperial guardsmen, once dashing cadets but now well past their 60s, braced their shrunken figures to attention while two union jacks dipped to the bugle strains of the last post.

The funeral was for Olga, but to the 500-odd white Russians who attended it, it also was the funeral of an era that had been their way of life.

Olga took with her to the grave the last link of the Romanoff Czars, a dynasty which was born out of chaos and which ended in chaos, but during its three centuries of rule carved out modern Russia.

There was little glitter at Olga's funeral, however. Funeral services were held at the Russian orthodox Christ the Savior Cathedral, a small brick church located in a shabby section of Toronto.

The only signs of regal splendor were some purple drapes with the two-headed eagle of imperial Russia and orange, black and white ribbons, the colors of the Romanoff czars.

Painting Bee

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — A fireman's bucket brigade came to the aid of Mrs. Ed Hoffman and painted her house in four hours. Her husband, a fireman, died of injuries suffered in a fire early in March, so his buddies came to the aid of his widow. Mrs. Hoffman served the workers a picnic dinner.

charts indicate. In another 10 years the development of available areas of South Marin should be fairly complete while by 1980 the pattern of urban growth will have brought the San Rafael-San Anselmo-Fairfax area together with northern extension through Ignacio and Novato, while the Tiburon Peninsula will similarly have filled out quite fully. There is expectation of another bridge to pass across Angel Island.

Meanwhile West Marin's report-growth will have been forging along and urban character will be established by 1990 to group together Marshall-Point Reyes Station, Inverness - Olema - Nicasio, and points toward Petaluma.

The situation as of 2020 will make Novato part of a big urban strip running north out of Marin so that Highway 101 will be all urban with all the spread on either side that nature readily permits.

As for West Marin, now very little urbanized, this extends up the Shoreline Highway by 2020 most of the way up Tomales Bay well past Marshall, to be interrupted briefly with another considerable urban area centering on Tomales.

Bolinas and Stinson Beach are shown as much more urbanized. A new freeway leading west from Novato is expected to include two sizeable urban patches, one about the intersection of the Petaluma Road and another between that and the urbanization about Point Reyes Station.

What has been considered is the suitability of existing land for such development. No urbanization is in evidence, however, anywhere around Point Reyes-Drakes Bay area and the development of a national seashore area seems to have been considered likely.

Vast green areas of "public or reserved land" stand reassuringly undisturbed on the dream map of the year 2020. The planners are confident that no subdivider is going to level Mount Tamalpais, while vast stretches of North Marin will remain at least technically agricultural.

The text says that "in the North Bay area, greatest urban growth will occur in Solano and Sonoma Counties." Elsewhere it is indicated that a reason for this will be the saturation of Marin.

Tables forecast that by 2020 Marin will have 175 square miles of developed urban land of its 278 square mile potential already mentioned which gives the figure of 62.9 development of potential by that time. With less advantage and slower start the corresponding figures for other counties include Napa, 34.0; Solano, 45.7 and Sonoma, 44.2.

LONDON (AP)—Moscow Radio disclosed offhandedly today that Marshal Andrei Grechko was acting as Soviet defense minister.

Grechko is Malinovsky's deputy.

The broadcast reported talks between Field Marshal Abdel Hakim Amer of the United Arab Republic and Soviet military leaders and said Grechko participated as "acting U.S.S.R. minister of defense."

Other Soviet military leaders present were listed as Marshals Vassily Chuikov and Andrei Yeremenko and Adm. Arseni Golovko.

Malinovsky, a bulky battle veteran, was a subject of Western speculation during the Paris summit conference in May.

He followed Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev around like a shadow, prompting the feeling that political forces in Moscow had ordered Malinovsky to keep an eye on the premier and make sure Khrushchev did nothing that had not been approved in advance at the Kremlin.

Malinovsky was last in the public eye Nov. 7, when he addressed a giant parade in Moscow's Red Square on the 43rd anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution.

He said the Soviet Union did not want to attack any other nation "but should our peaceful soil be violated by the imperialists they will receive a retaliatory blow from which they will never recover."

Demo Party Chief Quitting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) announced today he will resign as Democratic national chairman, effective Jan. 20—inauguration day—or the next day.

Jackson made the announcement after a 20 minute conference with President-elect John F. Kennedy n the Senate Office Building.

He recalled that in accepting the chairmanship at the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles, he said he planned to serve only until shortly after election.

Garb Annoys Judge

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — County Judge Warren L. Finch ordered six youths wearing blue jeans to leave his courtroom and return today properly dressed. One was told to have his sideburns cut and another to remove a peroxide streak in his hair. Finch commented: "People come to court these days as if they were going to a barn dance."

'MAN, IT WAS GOOD'

Teeners Tell How They Liked Holdup

Donald R. Temple, 19-year-old confessed robber, was to appear today in Marin Municipal Court with the public defender to plead to the robbery charge. He is being held in Marin County Jail in lieu of $2,625 bail.

Temple, armed with an automatic, led four younger teenagers in a $177 robbery of Lagunitas Grocery Store Tuesday night, according to sheriff's officers. An hour later, they were nabbed in Novato with the loot, and an arsenal of weapons.

As sheriff's inspectors quizzed the five youths, bizarre and sometimes comical details of the holdup came pouring out of the mouths of the boys, aged 15 to 19.

"Man, it was good! The guy just put the gun on the table and said 'this is a stick-up.' It sure went smooth—just like 'The Untouchables!'"

Before entering the grocery store in pouring rain, the boy with the beanie began putting shells into a .410 shotgun. Inspector Bowen Bridges said he learned from other members of the gang that ringleader Temple slapped the boy and told him not to load the gun. The ringleader is quoted as saying, "I don't want any loaded guns on this job."

They decided three would enter the store and two would remain in the car. They drew cards, with the highest three cards to pull the robbery. A 16-year-old San Francisco youth, who drew one of the high cards, began crying. So they had to draw again.

Just before the three went into the store, said Inspector Bridges, Temple told them, "Okay, this is a big job. You don't have to go if you don't want to. Remember, if we get caught, we'll get 25 years to life.

The boy with the beanie had been in the store earlier in the day to buy a candy bar and "case" the store, operated by 72-year-old Edward J. Lacy.

The boys said they decided to hit this store because the owner was known to be trusting and could not get around the store very well.

Tomorrow Last Day For Exhibit Of Books

Tomorrow is the last day to view the exhibit of 600 new children's books on display at the county superintendent of schools office, 317 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

The exhibit is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Although books cannot be bought at the exhibit, Edith Potter, library assistant, will be available to answer questions and aid visitors.

Much-Arrested Man Faces Jail Sentence

Bernard Duane Montbriand, 23-year-old San Rafael laborer, who has been arrested about 20 times in five years, faced a jail sentence today for his second drunken driving offense.

He was convicted yesterday of driving while intoxicated when he led police on a 90-mile-per-hour chase from Corte Madera to San Rafael on Nov. 20.

Montbriand admitted he was driving with a suspended license and had driven off after his pickup truck struck a car near Greenbrae. However, he denied reckless driving, speeding, and drunken driving.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson found Montbriand guilty of every charge. Montbriand also has convictions for resisting arrest still hanging over his head. He was to be sentenced this afternoon on all of these convictions.

Montbriand, who lives at 228 Humboldt Street, San Rafael, had a prior drunken driving conviction last September. Since this is a second such offense, he faces a minimum of five days in jail on this charge alone.

During his trial yesterday, Montbriand took the stand and said he had had "considerable" to drink that night. He admitted he was "going fast" but claimed he was not driving recklessly.

He took issue with the police clocking of 90 miles per hour. "When an officer is chasing someone, how can they say you're going 90? To catch up, he may have to go 90, but maybe I'm going only 70."

Montbriand said he knew someone was chasing him, but he tried elusive tactics because he did not realize his pursuer was a police officer.

Slayer Rejected In Parole Plea

Duane Hall, 48, serving a life term in San Quentin Prison for the 1953 Mount Tamalpais slaying of Roy Kapphahn, 32, must wait at least another three years before he can try again for parole.

His plea for parole was turned down yesterday by the California Adult Authority.

Hall has already served seven years in prison since his conviction in Marin Superior Court. He made headlines on Nov. 15 when a fellow inmate stabbed him at the prison library.

Salt water conversion helps make electricity at Morro Bay. Ingenious PG&E engineers have turned ocean water into pure water for power plant boilers. Pioneered there in 1955, the remarkable ocean water converters are now being expanded as part of an $80,000,000 project to triple the electric generating capacity of Morro Bay Power Plant. It will be one of the biggest power plants in the West, turning out five billion kilowatt hours a year—more electricity than is used in Denmark, Ireland, Greece or Portugal!

Art-Garden Yule Sales Planned On Same Day

Three separate Christmas sales held annually at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross will take place on the same dates this year for the first time, it was announced today by Mrs. Norman B. Livermore, center president.

The Christmas Greens Sale sponsored by the Decorations Guild, the Christmas Sale staged by the Marin Society of Artists and the Christmas Cupboard, a project of Pixie Parents, all will be held on the center grounds during the weekend of Dec. 16, 17 and 18.

Also to be open during the same weekend is the Northgate Group's Antique Shop, usually open only on Tuesdays and Fridays.

Locations and hours of the various sales, all to benefit the center, and the items to be offered are as follows:

CHRISTMAS GREENS SALE: Decorations Guild Building. Preview party, with free refreshments 6 to 10 p.m. Dec. 16. Open Dec. 17 and 18 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wreaths, door swags, mistletoe balls and other articles of fresh greens; also Christmas decorative items of dried materials.

MARIN SOCIETY OF ARTISTS' CHRISTMAS SALE: Frances Young Gallery. Opening day, Dec. 16 from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Open Dec. 17 and 18 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sale preview, Dec. 12 through 15 from 2 to 4 p.m. daily. Original paintings, sculpture and other art work; craft products such as ceramics, jewelry and weaving.

PIXIE PARENTS' CHRISTMAS CUPBOARD: Decorations Guild Building. Home-made holiday foods. Open Dec. 17 and 18 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. during Christmas Greens Sale.

Heading committees planning the three sales are Mrs. Marion F. Ludlow of San Rafael, Decorations Guild; Mrs. A. W. Ralston of Fairfax, Marin Society of Artists, and Mrs. Charles Phalen of Ross, Pixie Parents.

Wife Signs Charge Against Husband

Clarence Edward Malone, 41, of 1409 Clinton Street, San Rafael, was arrested by his wife last night on charges of assault, battery and drunkenness.

His wife, Doris, told Police Lt. Jay Fletcher that her husband had drunk a bottle of whisky and then repeatedly slapped her in the face about 7:53 p.m.

The woman was bleeding from the mouth and from the cheek where a tooth had pierced the skin, Fletcher said.

After she signed a citizen arrest form, her husband was booked at the county jail. He was released on $630 bail to be arraigned in Marin County Municipal Court at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Because of its huge population growth, Red China reportedly is resettling great masses of people in underdeveloped areas of Sinkiang and Inner Mongolia.

Benefits Reaped When Subdividers, Cities Cooperate, Mayors Told

Cooperation between cities and subdividers means benefits for everyone, Niels J. Schultz Jr., Greenbrae developer, told the Marin Council of Mayors last night at the Peacock Gap Golf Clubhouse.

It means profit to the subdivider and benefit to the city, he said.

A city with a cooperative attitude will attract better financed and more willing developers, Schultz explained.

"The tax base in a residential community like Marin County can only be increased by bringing business in with residences as in the subdivision," he asserted.

To the developer, Schultz said, cooperation means a smoother operation. He can avoid costly start-stop procedures. "If both parties work together, economy is the result," Schultz added.

Schultz, a member of the Marin County Planning Commission since 1956, told some 45 representatives from the 10 cities in the county that the cities should try to make the best out of the future.

"Growth frequently means change," he said. "But the subdivider doesn't bring growth, he only serves it.

"The people have the desire, the developer is serving them," Schultz declared.

Schultz said some of the issues on which cooperation was needed between cities and subdividers are zoning (for example including a small commercial area in large residential development for profit to the developer), improvement restrictions (as requiring 43 to 40 foot wide streets in Marin County) and financing, which he agreed was primarily the responsibility of the subdivider.

Before closing the meeting, Mayor John F. McInnis of San Rafael, the host city, urged the various cities to enter into the joint powers agreement and join the Assn. of Bay Area Governments, of which he has been an avid backer. He said the association now has four counties and 49 cities and only one more county to become operative.

Incorporation Issue Raised

The Tiburon Property Owners Assn. board of directors last night revived the issue of incorporation of Tiburon with a resolution suggesting that the Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council consider undertaking a new survey.

Although several suggestions were made for means of raising money to finance the survey, no action was taken on a method, association chairman William H. Von Lackum said.

The last time the incorporation issue was raised on the peninsula was in August, 1958. Proponents finally dropped the project when the issue of money came up.

Personal debt is one of the fastest growing parts of the nation's debt structure. Family mortgage debt and consumer credit combined added to more than 176 billion dollars at the end of 1959; two-fifths greater than in 1955 and two and three-quarters times the figure for 1950.

PAULA DALY

Redwood Senior Gets DAR Citizen Award

Paula Daly, 17, a Redwood High School senior, has been named the school's Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen award winner.

The DAR winner is selected by the faculty on the basis of her dependability, service, leadership and patriotism.

Paula will receive a certificate of award from the national society and a Good Citizen pin from the local sponsoring chapter. She will take a history examination in competition for the district award, a $25 U.S. savings bond. The district winner may compete for the State award by writing a theme on good citizenship. State winners receive $100 savings bonds and their essays are sent to Washington, D.C., to compete for a national award.

Paula is Redwood student body secretary. She was the school's representative to Girls' State; was elected the female "all-around Redwoodite" by the senior class; was sophomore class vice president, and is active in the school honor society, program committee and self-government.

Modern Attraction

BALTIMORE (AP)—You know how it is on Sundays, when the kiddies go out to the airport to watch the big jets come in? Well, don't kid yourself. At Friendship International Airport one sunny Sunday, for instance, the eyes of young America weren't on the airliners. The spectacle they climbed on, touched, stared at and exclaimed over was a miniature, imitation 19th Century railroad locomotive in the lobby which costs 10 cents to ride.

Sen. Morton Sees Slim Possibility

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republican National Chairman Thruston B. Morton said today there was a possibility that exposure of "shocking irregularities and fraud" in the presidential balloting still could put Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the White House. But he admitted there was not "too much chance" that this would happen.

Morton told a news conference it was his duty as GOP national chairman to expose irregularities.

Morton made these statements at a news conference called to announce formation of a "national recount and fair elections committee" which he will head.

He said the committee was created to demand "an honest count of this election in every suspicious state."

NOVATO PLANS CITY'S FIRST BIRTHDAY FETE

Novato residents are planning a birthday party for themselves on Jan. 20. It will be the first anniversary of incorporation of the city.

A birthday cake and coffee will be served in the Novato High School cafeteria. A dance band will play in the gym from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. The party is sponsored by the Novato Chamber of Commerce, and underwritten by Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions clubs of the city, if admission charges do not cover costs.

Robert Merritt, manager of the chamber, has suggested that the five city councilmen sing "Happy Birthday to us" on the program.

"There has been a singular lack of enthusiasm on the part of the council members," he admitted.

D.A. To Ask Indictment Of Terrorizer

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety will seek grand jury indictments tonight against a convict who terrorized a woman and her granddaughter at San Quentin Village in 1958, and a Contra Costa robber suspected of stabbing San Quentin life-termer Duane R. Hall on Nov. 15.

The grand jury will meet at 7:30 in the courthouse to consider the cases of escapee Henderson McCoy, 32, who was caught in Chicago last September, and of Michael Eksala, 20, a Contra Costa robber who allegedly stabbed Hall in the prison library.

McCoy threatened Mrs. Bal B. Suttle, wife of the then supervisor of the prison furniture factory, and her granddaughter, 8-year-old Katie Hancock on July 23, 1958. The Suttles' home was at the prison, outside the wall. McCoy stole Suttler's car and vanished. Mrs. Suttle will come from Saratoga to testify.

After an unsuccessful attempt to give himself up, McCoy was finally rounded up among vagrants in Chicago, recognized, and flown back to Marin.

Eksala is suspected of knifing Hall, 48, who was convicted in Marin for the 1953 killing of Roy Kapphahn on the slopes of Mount Tamalpais.

Other new officers to serve with Garety are S. J. Hugh Allen, vice president; D. Kenneth MacDonald Jr., secretary, and Robert Corlett, treasurer.

Mystery Anchor

Warrant Issued In Dog Shooting

Joe Nerviani, who operates Joe's Boat Launching in Santa Venetia, is wanted on suspicion of "wilfully and maliciously" shooting a dog to death near North San Pedro Road last Sunday.

At the request of the district attorney, Judge Joseph G. Wilson yesterday issued a warrant of arrest for Nerviani, with bail set at $263.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Harold F. Wolters said residents of Santa Venetia complained to him that they saw Nerviani blast a dog to death with one shot from a double barreled shotgun "for no apparent reason."

For centuries men assumed the stars were ageless. But now astronomers believe some are old while others are young—that is, less than a million years old.

New Administrator Hired For Hospital

William W. Turner, a 42-year-old Georgia native who has been assistant administrator of a Long Beach hospital, will become the fourth administrator of Marin General Hospital next Feb. 1.

Selection of Turner was announced last night by Dr. Wilson P. Goddard, president of the board of directors of Marin County Hospital District, which operates the 104-bed hospital in Greenbrae.

PENCE LEAVING

S. Ames Pence, who resigned as administrator on Oct. 1, has agreed to remain until Feb. 15 if necessary to assist Turner in taking over the administration, Dr. Goddard said.

The board president said Turner was selected "as the top man from 300 applicants by not only the board of directors but by the three-man screening committee." The latter committee was composed of Alfred E. Maffley, administrator of Herrick Memorial Hospital in Berkeley; Harold H. Hixson, administrator of University of California Hospital, and Mel J. London of Ross, vice president of Calaveras Cement Co.

ON STAFF FIVE YEARS

Turner is now assistant administrator of the newly completed Memorial Hospital of Long Beach. He has been on the staff of that hospital and its predecessor, Seaside Memorial Hospital, for five years. Prior to that he was administrator of the Logansport, Ind., Memorial Hospital.

He was born in Atlanta, Ga., attended high school in Tampa, Fla., and holds a certificate in accounting from International Business College, a bachelor of science degree in commerce from University of Chicago.

He earned his way through college and served five years in the Army during World War II, entering as a private in 1941 and emerging in 1946 as a captain in the Quartermaster Corps.

Long Beach Memorial Hospital is a 400-bed, 65-bassinet community general hospital. Turner has been involved with the construction of the new institution, which particularly impressed the Marin board of trustees because of plans for building a 116-bed addition to Marin General Hospital next year, said Dr. Goddard.

Marin General Hospital opened in the spring of 1952 with Henry X. Jackson as administrator. He left in September of that year, being succeeded by William S. Weeks, who in turn succeeded by Pence in 1956.

Better Ranch Access Urged By Supervisors

Improved access to Highway 101 for the 380-acre Silveira Ranch north of San Rafael was recommended in a resolution adopted by the Marin County Board of Supervisors at a special meeting yesterday afternoon.

R. A. Hayler, district engineer for the California Division of Highways, promised to put the case before the State Highway Commission, but indicated that it would have to buck policy generally opposed to numerous freeway access points.

Hayler asked for supporting data as to what county road might be provided for such access, as nothing could be done for a private road.

"With the tax rate what it is, how long can they milk cows on that property?" asked attorney Raymond H. Shone on behalf of the Silveiras. "Development will come fast but we can't foresee just what it will be—but we know there must be access."

Shone explained that before the freeway, there were three access points to the main road. The state proposes to limit access to the portion, some 20 acres, north of Miller Creek.

"Certainly there will be additional study but there are points against it in our minds," said Hayler, whose view was supported by John S. Daniels, metropolitan district right of way agent. "We'll have a hard time selling the idea without knowledge of what road and where it will go."

With Supervisor Vera Schultz absent due to illness, all the other four board members took turns in arguing the unique merits of the Silveira wish for at least one access from the southern or major part of the property.

This is entirely different from other cases," said Chairman Walter R. Castro, who finally moved the resolution of support. "This is probably the most valuable property in Marin County, and what is asked is something that should be considered."

Tree Lighting Warning Given

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A warning on the hazards of decorating aluminum Christmas trees with electric lights was issued today by John F. Henning, director of the State Department of Industrial Relations.

Henning noted that aluminum is almost as good a conductor of electricity as copper, and said that if there is any defective or faulty wiring the entire tree could become an exposed "hot wire."

"The insulation on most Christmas tree light cords is not designed to be attached to metal of any kind," Henning said.

Stinson Firemen Elect Officers

Other officers elected were James Gibson, first assistant chief; Gail Bennett, second assistant chief and Richard Reasoner, secretary - treasurer. Terms are for one year and effective starting today, according to OB Cavanaugh, secretary of the Stinson Beach Fire District.

Anti-Smog Device Called Expensive

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Paul Magill, industrial research scientists, warned yesterday that anti-smog devices for automobiles would cost California car owners approximately $950 million during the first three years of state control on exhaust gases.

Magill's warning was made in a report to the Bay Area Pollution control district advisory council.

Magill's report said the estimate did not include installation costs, nor did it include costs of a complex inspection system by the state which presumably would be borne by the general taxpayers.

The chameleon was supposed to be able to perform such prodigies of endurance that the Greeks were moved to honor him by calling him "chamaileon"—little lion.

Investigation Pushed On Prices Of Drugs

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Government anti-trust division attorneys today pushed their investigation of California prescription drug prices before a special session of the federal grand jury.

Don Bank and Gil Pavlovsky, the attorneys, said two major witnesses in the price inquiry had been subpoenaed for the grand jury's special session.

Marsh Pine, mayor of Chico and former president of the Northern California Pharmaceutical Assn., was one of three witnesses testifying yesterday at the grand jury's regular weekly meeting.

Banks and Pavlovsky said evidence already submitted to the jury indicates prescription drug prices in Northern California are among the highest in the nation. The grand jury is being asked to determine whether there is illegal agreement on druggists to keep prices uniformly high.

Pine, a part owner of the Lee Pharmacy in Chico, told reporters before his jury appearance, that prescription prices vary somewhat from store to store in Northern California.

"If prices are high in Northern California, it's because our overhead costs are higher than in other areas," Pine said. "Each store has its own peculiarities in setting its prescription prices."

Pine said his own store used the so-called Hedgpeth list—a scale of suggested prices prepared by Donald K. Hedgpeth, a San Francisco pharmacist.

Innocent Plea Entered By Van Doren

NEW YORK (UPI)—Quiz winner Charles Van Doren today pleaded innocent to a second-degree perjury charge that he lied in saying he never got help from the quiz show's producers.

Van Doren made the innocent plea despite the fact he has admitted before a Congressional inquiry that he lied when he told a New York County grand jury his appearances on the defunct show "Twenty-One" were not "fixed."

The former Columbia University professor's attorney, Carl J. Rubino, told chief Magistrate John M. Murtagh his client was "forced" to plead innocent pending the outcome of efforts by other winners on fixed shows to have the perjury charges against them invalidated.

Van Doren and 12 other winners on "Twenty-One" and "Tic Tac Dough" were called to court today to plead. Murtagh set Jan. 18 as Van Doren's trial date.

Nine other quiz winners on whose behalf motions testing the perjury information are pending in general sessions court requested and received adjournaments until Jan. 13.

They were Elfrida Von Nardroff, Hank Bloomgarden, Ruth Miller, Michael Truppin, Paul Bain, Vivienne Nearing, Timothy Horan, Joseph Rosner and Richard Klein.

WARWICK, R.I. (UPI) — The Ladies' Mission of St. Peter's Church held a meeting one night which was unexpectedly attended by a skunk. The skunk didn't stay long, but long enough to do what skunks usually do when they shouldn't. The ladies didn't stay long either.

STOCKS TODAY

COMBINED AP & UPI

NEW YORK—Stocks rallied in the final half hour today to cut down their earlier losses by a considerable margin.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3.2 million shares compared with 3.08 million yesterday. Tape watchers noted that activity moderated as prices started to skid again.

Declines were mostly fractional, although they stretched to two or more points in some cases.

Students, Troops Still Shooting In Venezuela

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Hard core leftists students, trading gunfire with troops, still held out in their self-styled "Stalingrad" dormitory at Caracas University today. Disorders spread to half a dozen other cities.

President Romulo Betancourt's moderate Socialist government cracked down hard on his leftist enemies in an effort to crush the week-long insurrection of Communist-backed pro-Castro rioting and student strife which has resulted in eight deaths.

His police grabbed about 250 persons in raids on white collar and other labor movements to prevent a bank strike and other threatened work stoppages. Communist headquarters were also raided.

The government said disorders, mainly rioting by high school students, had spread to Maracaibo, the oil center, Barquisimeto, Venezuela's third largest city, Maturin, Portuguesa, Puerto la Cruz, and San de los Morros, a health resort 50 miles southwest of the capital.

The eggs of the tinamou, a South American bird, are so shiny that the Indians often use them as mirrors.

CARNATION FOR THE MAYOR — Carnations are being presented to women who call at the newly remodeled fashion department of Macy's San Rafael today. But there was one for the mayor, too, as Mayor John F. McInnis made a "preview" visit yesterday. Mrs. Arvil R. Reagan places the boutonniere as store manager William R. Costello watches approvingly.

NEW LOOK—This is one portion of the remodeled Macy's San Rafael store which staged a grand opening today. Much of a half-million-dollar face-lifting has been completed. The rest will wait until after the Christmas season. (Independent-Journal photos)

San Anselmo Chamber Voting For Directors

Ballots were mailed to 65 members of the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce this week for the election of seven members of the board of directors.

The votes will be counted after 5 p.m., Dec. 7. The seven new directors will be elected to the 15-man board for two-year terms.

Nominated for re-election were Charles R. Banfield of Chapel of the Hills; Mozart Kaufman of Kaufman's Department Store; Sidney Braverman of Braverman's Furniture Store; Lee Busolo of Lee's Tune-up Service; Marvin Christensen of H. N. Christensen Insurance Co.; Richard Kientz of Kientz Bakery, and Samuel Miller of Safeway Stores.

Seeking a first term on the board are Paul LaPointe, Sprouse-Reitz Co.; Edward Nordmann, San Anselmo Paint Center; Robert Seeba, Wells Fargo Bank American Trust Co., and Paul De Martini, De Martini Owl Drugs.

Operatic History

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The Tivoli Opera House scheduled operatic performances 12 months of the year from 1879 to 1904, setting a record in the history of American theater.

He Misses Skunk Lands In Hospital

William Bonini, 23, of Tomales, successfully avoided a skunk in driving along Shoreline Highway a mile north of Tomales at 4 a.m. yesterday.

'Fashion Week' Opens At Renovated Macy's

With music, fresh flowers, and models parading the newest fashions, Macy's San Rafael today opened a holiday fashion week to introduce its newly remodeled fashion floors.

A trio from the Marin Symphony Guild was presented in a two-hour concert on the store's second floor beginning at 2 p.m., to be repeated from 7 to 9 p.m., tomorrow, and on Saturday from 2 to 4.

Informal modeling, on both the street and second floors, of the season's latest fashions will be presented through Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m., with additional evening showings tonight and Friday from 7:30 to 8:30.

Gay LaJoie, Macy's fashion coordinator, was in the gown salon today and will return tomorrow from 2 to 4 p.m.

In a renovation program for Macy's San Rafael, with total cost reported near one-half million-dollars, the street and second floors have been completed After the holiday season, the lower level will also receive the glamor treatment, to bring the modernization of all departments up to the "new look" of the upper floors.

With a new emphasis on fashions, Macy's San Rafael will carry greatly supplemented stock throughout all its fashion categories, including accessories, said William R. Costello, store manager.

The physical changes in the store also permit more convenient shopping, and all departments are positioned for easier selection, Costello said. For instance, all men's wear is now grouped in a street floor department with its own entrance. All sportswear for women and girls is on the street floor, with most of the necessary departments in close proximity.

The second floor ready-to-wear departments now include the separate gown salon, an expanded millinery department, a large lingerie and foundation department, and a new women's and children's shoe department.

Even apparel for infants, girls and sub-teens has been augmented in the new, roomy second-floor quarters, said Costello.

Oral Polio Vaccine Not Ready Yet

WASHINGTON (AP)—Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney said yesterday the Public Health Service feels that "we cannot expect to have an oral virus vaccine for use by next summer."

Burney said that in developing the recently approved vaccine made of live polio virus as distinguished from the Salk vaccine, already in use, there are still many problems to be worked out.

"These problems have been by no means resolved," Burney said in an address to the American Medical Assn's. annual clinical meeting.

Marinship Master Plan Wins Sausalito Planner Approval

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Under fire from property owners last night, the Marinship master plan nevertheless won unanimous acceptance of the Sausalito Planning Commission at a public hearing last night.

Commissioners spoke highly of the plan, commissioner Paul Micou saying it fulfilled the commission's demands for suggestions on Marinship uses, circulation pattern and development of the waterfront.

"The next step," Micou said, "is to develop the tools that are necessary to work out the opportunity that lies ahead for Sausalito in Marinship.

Murphy said three use permits, held up pending the plan, would be considered by the commission Dec. 14. They are the permits to build the Heath-Allied Grocers Shopping Center, the 75-unit Johnsen-Rischmuller Garden Apartments, and a brass and aluminum foundry by Sol Tyroler of San Rafael.

The Marinship Property Owners Assn., in a letter, asked for three changes to the plan. The association took exception to Allen's statement that the life of the Northwestern-Pacific railroad in Marinship should be measured in monhs rather than years. T.E. Schoonmaker of A. G. Schoonmaker Co. said he would continue to fight against abandonment of the railroad and, even if he failed it would be at least two years before service could be abolished.

The property owners proposed that the north and south artery along the railroad spur, when constructed, terminate at the foot of Spring Street. They also asked that buildings not be limited to a minimum of 32 feet.

Most vociferous of the five objectors was Adolph A. Tiscornia, who owns the property occupied by Federal Ornamental Iron and Bronze Co. and a vacant parcel of Marinship land.

Tiscornia, a San Francisco attorney and Larkspur resident, said he feared that if residential buildings were allowed, apartment dwellers might object to the foundry's noise and "we may be forced to get out of Marinship." He said Allen's proposal for a parking lot and depot for the rapid transit district constituted "a threat over my property."

Murphy told Tiscornia that the rapid transit district had indicated its desire to use the property, and the Sausalito City Council had approved this.

E. N. Kettenhofen, manager of the industrial center building, protested that roads proposed in Allen's plan would take a great portion of his land, much of which is needed parking space.

He said the plan was instigated by the three groups (Morgan-Pedersen, Heath-Allied Grocers and Johnsen-Rischmuller) in their desire to develop their own property. Therefore, they should pay the costs involved in such development, he declared.

Cecil Muller of Hercules Glue Co. said the proposed north-south artery belongs to the Northwestern Pacific Railroad. "The minute it is abandoned, the property belongs to the property owners. They're not going to give this property to the city of Sausalito," he said.

More Liberal Abortion Law Recommended

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The State Judiciary Committee has been told California's laws on abortion should be liberalized.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Zad Leavy told the committee yesterday that girls and women determined to end a pregnancy at present "are forced into the clutches of abortionists, many of them incompetent but able to become rich."

He said from 30 to 50 women each day to Los Angeles General Hospital are found to have aborted.

He contended that a change of law to legalize abortions for reasons other than saving the patient's life would not change the morals of the country.

Prison Escapee's Wife Arrested For Brawling

Martha Ophelia Giguiere, wife of a San Quentin Prison inmate who was captured after a bullet-punctuated chase through downtown San Rafael Oct. 30, was arrested for brawling last night in the Mission Inn Bar in San Rafael.

Police Officer John Kingston said he found the 28-year-old brunette sitting on top of J. B. Speegle, 30, of 14 Sentinel Court, San Rafael about 10:20 p.m.

Both combatants were jailed on charges of disturbing the peace and drunkenness, Speegle was also booked for two parking warrants. He was held in lieu of $135 bail to be arraigned at 1:30 p.m. today in Marin County Municipal Court.

Mrs. Giguiere of 111 C Street, San Rafael, was released on $105 bail to appear at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Police said she is the wife of Carl E. Giguiere, 35-year-old forger who escaped from San Quentin on Oct. 29, but was captured less than 24 hours later by two Hamilton Air Force airmen. He had threatened to kill his wife and seven children if anything went wrong with his escape plot, police said.

DEDICATING CITY HALL — There were not enough chairs for all the people taking part in the dedication of the Mill Valley City Hall in 1936 at which time the late Frank F. Bostwick (standing center) gave the address. Today, the final retired bond was paid off on the 25-year mortgage of $30,000. The building was built by Vincent Maggiora for $53,748 and ready for its first city council meeting in August, 1936.

BRITISH RAIL GUARDS PLAGUED BY SIX-SHOOTING MAIL BANDITS

LONDON (UPI)—British railway guards threatened to strike today because a band of train robbers has begun to operate using tactics normally associated with the "varments" in American western television programs.

About 150 guards met last night in the seaside resort town of Brighton and announced they would not work on fast trains carrying the mail to London unless they were given "adequate protection" against the bandits.

The guards said they were concerned with the ease in which the bandits have raided three trains in the past three months, getting away with valuable registered mail each time.

The robbers, armed with six shooters, have broken in mail vans, overpowered guards and jumped to safety when the trains stopped for a red light signal.

Marin Leads Bay Area In Crusade Fund Count

Marin's United Crusade campaign led all other Bay Area counties yesterday at the county's final Crusade report luncheon at Ondine Restaurant in Sausalito.

Marin's $140,876 represents 88.4 per cent of quota, announced E. W. Bullard Jr., campaign chairman, but $18,453 is still needed to reach the Marin goal. The Bay Area percentage stood at 84.3 per cent, with $9,480,010.

Two of the 10 campaign divisions were over their quotas: major firms (Byron Leydecker, chairman) with 113 per cent, and professional (Dr. Russell R. Klein and Hugh Allen, co-chairmen) with 107 per cent.

While no further report meetings will be held, Bullard said, solicitation will continue until completed. This week, he noted, has been declared "Hit the Top Week" throughout the Bay Area. Persons who have been missed in the solicitation are asked to mail their contributions to the Crusade at 801 B Street, or in care of the San Rafael postmaster, said Bullard.

Only seven years after the first prune-plum cuttings from France were planted in the state, California-grown and dried prunes were exhibited at the California State Fair in 1863.

City Hall Bonds Paid, It Belongs To Mill Valley

City Treasurer William G. Rutherford said the final bond was paid off today in the city's 25-year mortgage of $30,000 taken out in 1935.

At that time the city council passed a resolution for the 30 bonds of $1,000 each with an interest rate not to exceed 4 per cent. Matching funds came from the federal government's Public Works Administration.

Construction of the brick and tiled-roof two-story building began the same year, with the contract going to Vincent Maggiora of Sausalito on a low bid of $53,748.

To celebrate the end of the mortgage, T. Fred Bagshaw and Adolph Eberhart, who were members of the 1935 city council, both of Mill Valley, will be invited along with other citizens to a ceremony at the Dec. 7 city council meeting.

Rutherford said City Atty., Thomas C. Nelson has declared the mortgage cannot be burned in the city council chambers but that other suitable activities will be held.

Other members of the 1935 council were H. Walter Johnson, mayor; Ernest K. Little and Frederick Merriman. They have since died.

Dedication ceremonies were held Aug. 1, 1936. The late Frank F. Bostwick, president of the city's first town trustees, gave the dedication address.

Liz, Eddie File Suits For Libel

NEW YORK (AP)—Actress Elizabeth Taylor and her husband, Eddie Fisher, have filed 7.25-million-dollar libel actions against eight movie and TV magazines, charging them with character damage through "lurid" headlines.

The papers in the suit were submitted yesterday in State Supreme Court as the Fishers, in Paris, prepared to fly back to the United States today.

Louis Nizer, attorney for the couple, said they planned to appear in court in connection with the action. He set no date.

The suit accuses the magazines of acting maliciously and irresponsibly for the "crass commercial purpose" of stimulating circulation.

Named as defendants were Official Magazines Corp., publisher of Screen Stars; Interstate Publishing Corp., publishers of Movie World; Fawcett Publications, publisher of Motion Pictures; Dell Publishing Co., publisher of Modern Screen; Countrywide Publications, publisher of Movie TV Secrets; Sterling Group, Inc., publishers of Movie Mirror, and Ideal Publishing Corp., publishers of Movie Stars-TV Closeups and Movie Life.

Fatal Landing

BUENA VISTA, Colo. (AP)—State Patrolman Clem Wiechman stopped to investigate a stolen auto one night. He turned on the dome light of his car to make out a report. Suddenly there was a loud thump. Weichman found that a teal duck had landed on the hood of the patrol car. The patrolman theorized the duck mistook the reflected light for a pond and made a landing. The duck died.

Car Sitters

THEY KEPT THE CAKE IN THE VAULT—The San Rafael branch of Crocker-Anglo National Bank, celebrating the bank's 90th birthday yesterday, locked a cake in the vault until the proper moment for its cutting. Checking watches to see whether the time's arrived are, beyond the vault door, bank manager Byron W. Leydecker, president Fred F. Enemark of Marin Industrial Development Foundation, Mayor John F. McInnis and Supervisor Chairman Walter R. Castro. (Ken Molino photo)

Crocker-Anglo Celebrates 90th Birthday

Three of Marin County's civic leaders joined yesterday in helping Crocker-Anglo National Bank celebrate its 90th anniversary.

In connection with observances throughout the 93 branches in the system, ceremonies were held here at the San Rafael Office at 409 Third Street. Participating were Walter R. Castro, chairman of the county board of supervisors; Fred F. Enemark, president of Marin Industrial Development Foundation, and John F. McInnis, mayor of San Rafael.

Also marking the occasion were officers of the branch, including Byron W. Leydecker, assistant vice president and manager, and Theodore B. Craig, assistant manager.

A large candle-covered cake was cut and served to the dignitaries, bank personnel and customers.

Crocker-Anglo, which is California's oldest national bank, has its roots in the history of Northern and Central California. Its origin was in several private banking houses which flourished during Gold Rush days, but it was officially chartered in 1870 as the First National Gold Bank of San Francisco.

James P. Brown Rites Saturday

Private funeral services for James P. Brown, 82, who was who was found dead early yesterday at his Mill Valley home, will be held Saturday at Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley.

Brown retired 10 years ago from his own printing business, J. P. Brown and Sons, in San Francisco. He resided with his son, Horace, at 36 Portola Lane.

He is survived by two sons, Horace and Ernest P. Brown, and a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn E. Hughes, of Mill Valley, and five grandchildren.

Interment will be in Cypress Hill Cemetery, Petaluma.

Mrs. Etta Cleveland, 72, a San Rafael resident since 1944, died yesterday in a local hospital after long illness.

She and her husband, John C. Cleveland, resided at 344 DuBois Street. He is an employee of Earle C. Anthony Motors in San Francisco.

A native of Salt Lake City, Utah, she is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Roy E. Okerstrom of San Rafael; and two sons, Jack H. Calvert of Reno, Nev., and Barton R. Calvert of Coos Bay, Ore.

Mrs. Cleveland came to California in 1928. She formerly worked for Albert's Department Store in San Rafael.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 11 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, Fifth and B Streets in San Rafael. Interment will be private.

Nevada J. Barker Dies In Hospital

Nevada J. Barker, 77, former Ignacio resident, died yesterday in a Santa Rosa hospital after long illness.

Barker worked for California Packing Corp. until his retirement in 1948, on which he moved from Ignacio to make his home with a son, Ewing Barker, in Petaluma.

He was born in Georgia and in early adulthood was a farmer in Texas. He came to California in 1937.

Surviving him are two sons, Ewing, and Other Barker of Bellevue, Ida.; three daughters, Mrs. Edith Hollowell of Sweetwater, Tex.; Mrs. Odessa Andews of Lufkin, Tex., and Mrs. Salina Hunt of San Anselmo; three sisters, Mrs. Othella McCallister of Halsey, Ore.; Mrs. Jean Cooper of Atoka, Okla., and Mrs. Lela McIntru of Stuart, Okla.; two brothers, W. E. Barker of Benton, Ark., and V. Barker of Tulsa, Okla., and 16 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Louis Halvorsen Services Held

Halvorsen, who died Monday at his home, was the father of Mrs. Gertrude Ryan of San Rafael.

He had been a contractor in Sonoma County for 37 years. Among his buildings were Santa Rosa Junior College and the Eureka Inn. He was a native of Norway.

He leaves his wife, Gunhild, two other daughters and three sons, in addition to Mrs. Ryan; also a brother.

Doris Wallace, Larkspur, Dies

Mrs. Doris B. Wallace of Larkspur died Tuesday in a San Francisco hospital of a virus of the heart, after a short illness. She was 37.

Mrs. Wallace founded the Welcome Wagon service in Marin County and later operated the Marin Hostess Service.

A resident of Larkspur for two years, Mrs. Wallace lived at No. 1 boardwalk. She had lived in Corte Madera prior to that and in Marin County for 18 years. Her husband, Harvey G. Wallace, is a carpenter.

Mrs. Wallace was a native of Puffalo, Ohio.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, Wayne and David of Larkspur; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest E. Davis of Palo Alto; five sisters, Mrs. Maxine Nation of Santa Margarita, San Luis Obispo County; Mrs. Jean Barker of Palo Alto; Mrs. Charlene Martinez and Mrs. Judy Bea, of Burbank, and Mrs. Bonnie Davis of Atascadero.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow noon at Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley. Interment will be in Golden Gate Cemetery, San Bruno.

Harold McSorley, Inverness, Dies

Harold H. McSorley, a resident of Inverness since 1927, died yesterday in a local rest home after long illness.

McSorley, 71, a native of Seattle, Wash., came to California in 1918. Until his retirement a few years ago, he was a road maintenance man for Marin County. He formerly worked for the Jansen Iron Works in Emeryville.

He is survived by his widow, Florence M. McSorley; two daughters, Mrs. Florence C. Ludy and Mrs. Helen F. Giambastiani of Inverness and Mrs. Yvonne M. Wayne of San Rafael, a sister, Mrs. Helen Cutter of Seattle, and two brothers, Melvin J. and Granville, also of Seattle.

He is also survived by three grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Private funeral services were held today at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael.

Rail-Utilities Group Elects Ross Resident

Peter E. Mitchell of Ross, member and former president of the California Public Utilities Commission, yesterday was elected president of the National Assn. of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners at its annual conference in Las Vegas, Nev.

Mitchell becomes the second Marinite to head the national organization. Justus F. Craemer of Kent Woodlands, who was then also president of the California PUC, headed it in 1949.

The Ross resident succeeds George R. Perrine of Chicago in the presidency.

Mitchell, a former Sacramento city councilman, has been a member of the California PUC since 1951, and was its president from May, 1954, to June, 1958.

He was born and reared in Sacramento and was in business there for 21 years. He served 10 years as a city councilman.

In 1948, he was appointed by Gov. Earl Warren to the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board. In January, 1951, Warren named him to the PUC, to which he was appointed for a second six-year term in 1957.

Mitchell and his wife reside on Fernhill Avenue in Ross. A daughter, Mary Louise, is a teacher, and a son, Peter E. Jr., is a student at St. Mary's College, which his father also attended.

STORM

was plenty. Second Street was flooded from A Street to Francisco Boulevard. Three major intersections with Lincoln Avenue at Second, Third and Fourth Streets were all coverd with water.

Norris Rawles, San Rafael public works supervisor, said the city suffered no real damage but a lot of inconvenience.

Woodland Avenue was closed between 10 and 11 a.m. from Du Bois Street to Irwin Street in the Bret Harte area because high tide flooded the street to about 10 inches depth.

Rawles reported minor mud slides in the Dominican area on Highland and Deer Park Avenues, but the streets were not closed.

There were many reports of "bubbling up" of manhole covers of sewers.

Deepest water at main intersections, Rawles said, was at Second and Lindaro Streets and Third Street and Grand Avenue, both at seven inches.

Headlights were in use everywhere until after 9 a.m.

Novato registered 1.24 inches of rain between midnight and 9 a.m. today, making 1.78 inches since the previous midnight.

Five calls had been received by the Novato City Hall by 9:15 a.m. complaining of floods at 1032 and 1036 Sixth Street, 67 Western Drive, a plugged culvert on Alice Street and fill sliding into backyards of a new housing tract.

A tree limb blew across a power line at 6 a.m. in Bolinas at Terrace and Brighton Avenues, causing the community to be without electricity for more than three hours. Ralph Brisbin, assistant supervisor of Marin District for Pacific Gas and Electric Co., said repairs were complete and power on again at 9:15 a.m.

A madrone tree blew down across Hillcrest Avenue in Larkspur. In Mill Valley a tree had fallen at 1 p.m. yesterday near 289 Tamalpais Avenue, blocking the street for half an hour.

Tiburon firemen were called to the home of Mrs. A. Soriano at 750 Hilary Drive, Strawberry, at 6:30 a.m. because water overflowing from a culvert was running into her garage. Firemen assisted a county street crew in clearing the culvert.

A man at 235 Bridgeway, Sausalito, told Brown that due to new sewer construction his front yard had washed out.

"Water is finally starting to build up in our reservoirs," was the report from William Seeger, general manager for Marin Municipal Water District. He added that the new Nicasio reservoir is "starting to take water."

Other rainfall records included: Woodacre 1.76 inch, Point Reyes Station 1.60, Tamalpais Valley 1.65; Muir Woods 1.61; Chevy Chase in Larkspur 1.94.

Throughout northern California the storm took heavy toll. One death was caused near Half Moon Bay when an 80-mile gust took off a barn roof which struck and killed Roger Lohsen, 35, a ranch worker. As rescuers worked, a water tank on a hilltop collapsed and sent a torrent of water down on them.

"We sure did run them off," remarked one of the cheerleaders after they had attacked Goldfinch, the elderly women and the newsmen.

The Louisiana legislature, considering bills to set up funds for white children who want to go to private schools, met briefly today and then adjourned until tomorrow.

The legislature, disgruntled over a federal court ruling yesterday knocking away the foundations of its fight against integration, also was reportedly about to be asked by Gov. Jimmie Davis to go into another 30-day special session.

tempt to orbit two satellites in one launch.

Student Council Sets Work Party

The Bel Aire School student council, representing fourth through sixth grades, is enlisting the aid of fathers to assist landscaping and site improvements on the school grounds Saturday and Dec. 10.

Teams of students will weed ivy and plant bulbs while fathers plant shrubs and trees and construct benches, President Norman Hantzsche of the student association said.

"If it rains we will wait until the 10th to start," Norman said. Fathers in charge are Kenneth J. Wolfersperger and Clark Holmes.

Meeting Planned

The Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District board will hold its next meeting on Dec. 27, the regular date Monday Dec. 26, being a legal holiday, chairman Loren L. Jay said.

Inverness Man Wins Divorce

Wayne M. Peterson, operator of West Marin Pharmacy in Inverness, who complained that his wife, Naomi Ruth, left him for parts unknown last March 18, has won a divorce in Marin Superior Court.

A property settlement, approved by Judge Richard M. Sims, gives him the pharmacy business, property and household furnishings at Point Reyes, 1960 Mercedes Benz automobile, and property in Ben Lomond, Santa Cruz County.

She gets $9,800 cash as her share of community property and half the profit from the sale of the Ben Lomond property.

Ballot Check May Change Illinois Vote

CHICAGO (AP) — Will the recheck of ballots in Chicago have any effect on the presidential election?

That question loomed larger today in the wake of Gov. William G. Stratton's statement that the Illinois Electoral Board may not certify the state's 27 Democratic electors if "strong and tangible" evidence of vote frauds is presented.

Stratton, a Republican, is chairman of the GOP-dominated board.

The board's function is to canvass the vote reports from the state's 102 counties and make an official proclamation of the results.

Reports from the 102 counties show President-elect John F. Kennedy is entitled to the electoral votes on the basis of his defeat of Richard M. Nixon by 8,849 votes.

Across the nation, Kennedy has 300 electoral votes. If the 27 from Illinois were withheld, he still would have 273—four more than the 269 required, if there are no shifts elsewhere.

Stratton, who lost in his bid for re-election, made his statement yesterday at a news conference in Springfield. The board is expected to meet there next week. Unless there is a hitch, the electoral votes will be cast there Dec. 19.

The Chicago Board of Election Commissioners went into its third day of checking 486,000 paper ballots cast in 863 precincts in the Nov. 8 election.

Until 1955 Wales had no capital city. Then Home Secretary Gwilym Lloyd-George, son of former British Prime Minister David Lloyd-George, announced Cardiff as the Welsh capital.

WOMAN TALKS UP IN COURT, GETS PASS KEY INTO JAIL CELL

A San Anselmo woman talked herself into jail yesterday by making some unsolicited comments in court.

Robert Houghton Hallock, 38, of 51 Scenic Avenue, San Anselmo, was taken to court by Asst. Police Chief Sam Serio of San Anselmo on charges of writing $45 in worthless checks at Lucky Store in Fairfax and paying his rent with a bad check for $85. The checks were passed Nov. 12 to 14.

As Judge Joseph G. Wilson continued the case for a day and began setting bail at $3,150, a woman in the back of the coutroom jumped up and declared she had contacted an attorney to represent Hallock.

"Who are you?" asked Judge Wilson.

"I'm the one who passed the checks, which he gave me not knowing they were no good," she replied.

"You're arrested on a charge of conspiracy to pass bad checks," said Serio, as he booked Eleanor Church Knapp, 40, also of 51 Scenic Avenue, San Anselmo.

Both Hallock and Mrs. Knapp were scheduled to show up in court today.

Open House Slated At New Marin City Apartments

Three separate dwelling units will be open for inspection of the public at the newly completed five-story apartment buildings at Marin City from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Units available will include an occupied two-bedroom unit furnished by the tenant. There will be a three-bedroom unit furnished partially by the housing authority but mainly with furniture upholstered and refinished by tenants who have taken part in the weekly upholstery class sponsored by the Marin Council of Community Services. A third unit, a one-bedroom, will be unfurnished.

All units are in the so-called "high rise" buildings on Drake Avenue and, executive director Bert Klahn said, buildings will be clearly marked to direct people to those being shown at the open house.

The St. Lawrence Seaway accommodates ships up to 750 feet long with 75-foot beam and about a 25-foot draft.

Governor Asserts 'Force Of Law' Needed To Save Lives In Traffic

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Traffic safety slogans may be clever, but they don't necessarily save lives.

What's really needed to reduce the toll of highway deaths in California is "the force of the law," Gov. Edmund G. Brown told some 200 delegates at his annual traffic safety conference Wednesday.

And in response to his plea for help "in this essential program of legislation for life," state officials came forward with several suggestions.

Dr. Irma West of the Public Health Department, noting that auto accidents are by far the leading cause of death for Californians between the ages of 15 and 34, suggested special safety devices.

"Many Californians have been needlessly disabled or killed for lack of one safety belt costing $15," she said. "Others have permanently smashed faces which would not have occurred if the dashboard in the car in which they were riding was padded."

Health agencies, Dr. West added, could play a leading role in setting medical standards for driver licensing and in other accident prevention.

Commissioner Bradford Crittenden of the California Highway Patrol echoed Dr. West's comments on safety belts. He suggested requiring all cars sold in the state to come equipped with floor bolts for belt installation.

Crittenden said, too, that officers should be allowed to confiscate licenses in certain circumstances, that state use of radar be authorized, and that the state expand commercial vehicle inspection.

Additionally, he called for increased research, tighter drunk driving laws and more highway patrolmen.

Motor Vehicles Director Robert McCarthy said he didn't need more men, but that he'd continue his crackdown on drunk drivers, automatically suspending for six months the license of anyone convicted for the first time.

Responding to criticism from some judges and legislators, he said, however, that he didn't care whether the suspensions were imposed by himself or the courts—as long as they remained mandatory.

Brown, under whose direction the crackdown was started 17 months ago, said he hadn't had time to analyze changes suggested in this and other phases of his traffic safety program.

John R. Eales of the Education Department noted statistics showing that trained drivers have fewer accidents and cited reports urging a strengthening and broadening of state-supported driver education.

Finally, J. W. Trask, deputy state highway engineer, reported that state engineers follow up accidents to determine possible corrective construction.

But despite these and other programs, such as the new 65 miles an hour speed limit, "obviously we haven't done enough," Brown commented.

Last year, he noted, 3,588 Californians were killed in traffic accidents and 143,634 injured—12,000 of them permanently disabled. The cost: More than a half-billion dollars.

And by Dec. 31, Brown added, California again will lead the nation in traffic deaths—an estimated 3,750 for the year.

Credit Excellent, So State To Issue Bonds For Schools

SACRAMENTO (AP) — State Treasurer Bert A. Betts, saying California's credit is excellent, today announced plans to offer 95 million dollars of state school building bonds for sale Jan. 11.

Betts said sale of the school bonds, the last of the $220 million dollars in school bonds authorized by the voters in 1958, would not be affected by approval Nov. 8 of the 1.75-billion-dollar state water bond issue.

He said the first of the water bonds won't go on sale until 1963, and the total issue will be sold over a period of 20 years.

The school bonds will be used to make loans to local districts for school construction.

Church Music Recital Set At Seminary

Milton Martin, a student of church music at the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, will be presented in a recital of sacred hymns by the seminary's church Music department at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Broadus Hall on the campus.

Martin is a student of Dr. Carlyle Bennett, head of the department, and is tenor soloist for the Seminary Oratorio Choir presentation of Handel's "The Messiah," to be given Dec. 6-8. He is minister of music at the First Baptist Church in Manteca.

Included on his program are "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings," Liddle; "Every Valley Shall Be Exalted," (from "The Messiah"), Handel; "My Soul Is Athirst for God," (from "The Holy City"), Gaul; and "If With All Your Hearts," (from "The Elijah"), Mendelssohn.

The recital, which is open to the public, is a requirement for the master of church music degree. Mrs. George Suffern, Golden Gate music instructor, is accompanist.

Memorial Fishing Pier Work To Start Soon

Construction of the Robert B. Keener Memorial fishing platform is expected to begin as soon as the rains permit on the Tiburon Peninsula's Elephant Rock.

The platform will be available as a fishing place for children of 16 and under. The idea originated with supervisor-elect J. Walter Blair, following the tragic death of yound Robert Keener, who was crushed while fishing off the Northwestern Pacific Railroad Pier in Tiburon.

Following Blair's suggestion, a committee of Tiburon Peninsula residents banded together to solicit donations for construction of the pier. It will be a circular platform around the Tiburon landmark, which is about 70 feet offshore. A catwalk will lead out to it, Blair said.

Real estate developer Milton M. Tonini is allowing the use of the rock for the children's fishing area. Tiburon property owner Fred G. Zelinsky is chairman of the construction committee. Fred F. Enemark of San Rafael is vice chairman, and Howard J. Langford, treasurer.

Contributions may be sent to Langford at the Belvedere-Tiburon branch of the First National Bank.

The Tiburon Peninsula Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the project and its chairman, Robert A. Sterling, is working with the committee.

Broker Asks $40,000 Fee In Land Deal

James P. Stuart, Sausalito real estate broker, is suing for a $40,000 fee which he claims is owed him by the Fagundes family, which owns large land holdings north of San Rafael.

The suit, filed in Marin Superior Court yesterday, names as defendants Manuel J. Fagundes of Napa, Joseph A. Fagundes of San Anselmo, Mary Killough of San Francisco, Rose F. Mellen of San Rafael, and Anthony J. Fagundes of San Rafael.

Stuart contends he helped the Fagundes family get rezoning from agricultural to commercial for land at Highway 101 and Lucas Valley Road in 1956. In working for the rezoning, Stuart says he got a letter from the Emporium-Capwell Co. of San Francisco, indicating the company's intent to open a store at a shopping center on the property.

Seventy acres of the property were later sold by the family to Billings-Hutchison Inc. for $542,000, says Stuart. He seeks a $40,000 feet, which he claims is a reasonable amount for the services he rendered.

Some members had proposed the festival be dropped in favor of other community activities. Gates said 17 members met Tuesday and decided unanimously to continue the festival.

Suggested changes are: More emphasis on the art show; starting the queen's contest in the spring instead of fall, and farming out some portions of the festival to service organizations.

School Plan Check By Citizens Urged

By ELLEN BRY

Architects and Novato school officials agreed last night that they would "welcome" a citizen committee to check school plans before construction.

In a two and one-half hour discussion session, they went on to outline the problems of school construction, and point out there are not easy answers. Novato voters recently approved a $1,500,000 bond issue and $2,500,000 state loan for school construction in the rapidly growing district.

The meeting last night was sponsored by the Novato Advisory Council for Education, a citizen group. Only 18 persons sloshed through rain to hear the speakers in the Novato High School cafeteria.

The suggestion for a citizen committee to check school plans came from Novato builder Reuben Kaehler, who suggested a "qualified committee."

Earl Marshall, chairman of the board of the unified district, and W. J. J. Smith, superintendent, agreed they would welcome such a committee to check specifications and needs against plans.

Architect John Lyon Reid noted that citizen groups have been found to "benefit the building." Reid is of the San Francisco architectural firm of Reid, Rockwell, Banwell and Tarics, designers of Novato schools.

Reid, his associate Richard Banwell, and Charles Rose, president of Inland Pacific Construction Co. in San Francisco, went on to agree that the oft-suggested standard or similar design for schools is usually not practical.

Seldom are the same numbers of classrooms needed; the proportion of various age groups is continually shifting resulting in varying building requirements; geography is different from school to school; needed access—to play areas, streets, corridors—shifts with geography.

Banwell said he does not rule out the possibility of reusing plans, but noted that one plan might be useful only for one or two years, when changed ideas and construction materials would make it outdated.

"I can't even lay down the rules for reusing plans," he said.

Savings can be made by standardizing lighting in a unit, or standardizing hardware and bathroom fixtures, but even this cannot be carried too far, Reid and Rose said.

Builder and architects noted the spiraling cost of "mechanical" end of school construction: the heating, plumbing and electrical side of building which takes at least 30 per cent of total construction cost.

Rose questioned whether schools were not requiring too fine and costly equipment "just because it's a school we're talking about."

Reid suggested "lowering a little bit, with good judgment, the standard of comfort in schools." He pointed out the trend to air conditioning and said that in 10 years Novato schools would have air conditioning.

"I'm in favor of that if the school plant could be used 12 months a year," said Jerome Gilbert, manager of the North Marin Water District and another panelist in the discussion.

But superintendent Smith asked if the trend to better and more costly artifical environment might not be the right aim—"to reduce it to an automatic level" so learning could be the primary consideration.

Architects, builders and school officials went on to note:

1. The school district must decide where to balance construction cost (with bond service charges) and maintenance cost through the years (from tax funds), saying higher cost on one side often means lower cost on the other.

2. School officials and architects are aiming at the same thing: a functional design, study building and attractiveness.

3. "Quantity, quality and budget are the three items which often don't quite meet" in planning schools.

Combined Choirs Sing With Purity At Seminary Concert

By ROY JOHNSTON

The combined voices of the San Francisco Theological Seminary's A Capella Choir and the Marin Chorale, under direction of Dr. John Milton Kelly, presented the Christmas portion of Handel's "The Messiah" last night at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo.

The combined choirs performed as one under Dr. Kelly's capable leadership and had the weight of tone in each section so vital to the choruses which required solid mass of sound, such as "And He Shall Purify" and the "Hallelujah Chorus."

In the more lyrical passages, the choirs attained the fine purity of sound and line. Cleanness of attack and intonation showed thorough preparation.

The four soloists negotiating the florid passages with style were soprano Marion Swartz, contralto Dorothy Rowland, tenor Ralph Peterson and bass Elmer Maryatt.

Dr. Kelly achieved a variety of nuances in choral sound and in tempi which lifted the performance as a whole far above routine.

Faith Yost France at the piano and Wilbur F. Russell at the organ provided excellent accompaniment for the singers but at no time allowed the instruments to dominate.

All in all it was a very smooth perforance and an inspiring start of the Christmas season for the near-capacity audience in attendance.

Brought Fire In

A fire was brought to the main Tiburon fire station yesterday by Virgil Murphy of 208 Reed Boulevard, Mill Valley. A short circuit in his car radio caused the radio to smoke. He drove to the firehouse where fireman Clive Coverdale solved the problem simply by pulling out a fuse of the radio.

CHAIN OF ACCIDENTS

Pastor's Wife, Church Offcial Hurt In Wreck

A high Presbyterian official from Greenbrae, the wife of the Presbyterian pastor in Santa Venetia, and a San Francisco policeman and his wife were injured in a Highway 101 collision south of Alto yesterday afternoon.

The accident was result of a traffic pile-up after a non-injury car collision involving a Mill Valley Catholic nun and a California Department of Justice investigator from Fairfax.

Injured were.

Rev. Thomas Holden, 64, of 135 Nadina Way, Greenbrae, stated clerk and executive secretary of the Presbyterian Synod of California and chairman of the board of trustees of San Francisco Theological Seminary. He was released from Marin General Hospital after treatment for back injuries.

His passenger, with whom he had been working at Presbyterian headquarters in San Francisco, Mrs. Dorothy Miller, 50, of 849 Descanso Way, Santa Venetia, wife of Rev. Aaron Garnet Miller. She was in fair condition with head injury at Marin General Hospital today.

Andrew Terance McCarthy, 39, San Francisco policeman, and his wife, Barbara, 33, were treated and released by Marin General Hospital. McCarthy suffered multiple cuts of nose and leg, and his wife's lower lip was cut.

The McCarthys, driving their station wagon south, had passed the Alto interchange and at 5:40 p.m. were near the north end of the Richardson Bay Bridge when they noted a traffic pile-up in the northbound lane. A California Highway Patrol car manned by B. B. Barclay was standing on the divider strip, its red light blinking.

McCarthy said he braked sharply but hit the right side and rear of the other car, driven by Rev. Holden.

Mrs. Miller was thrown out of the Holden car.

The reason for the tie-up had been a minor rear-end collision in northbound traffic 20 minutes earlier. A car driven by Sister Mary Christina Punch of 34 Buena Vista, Mill Valley, a teacher at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parochial School in Mill Valley, had skidded and struck the rear of one driven by Ralph J. Dorenzo of 21 Willow Avenue, Fairfax, investigator for the California Department of Justice.

Five Door-To-Door Salesmen Routed

San Rafael police ran a door-to-door salesman out of town yesterday and warned him to take four other salesmen of his company with him.

The salesman, Daniel K. Wolfman, 21, of San Francisco, was stopped on Elizabeth Way by Police Officer Leon deLisle Jr. about 7:46 p.m.

He admitted canvassing the area in an attempt to sell encyclopedias. He said four other salesmen from P. F. Collier and Son' San Francisco office were also surveying the area door-to-door.

DeLisle warned him that door-to-door solicitation is prohibited in San Rafael by ordinance and is punishable by $500 fine and six months in jail. The salesman was not cited.

HANLEY

"David and Paul have spent hour after hour trying to devise some form of defense for the 49ers' new double wing spread formation," The UPI reported.

"That double wing the 49ers spring on Baltimore sent the Los Angeles defense coaches dashing to their drawing boards," the AP reported.

Even conceding the customary latitude for literary license, the two great press associations should not swallow the kind of hogwash David and Paul have been dishing up in unpalatable quantities.

"The question is," Paul pontificated to the UPI in the manner of a man faced with a terrible dilemma, "do you cover or rush? The Colts did both, and apparently at the wrong times,"

TO THE AP, Paul said his Sunday afternoon before the TV was ruined when he saw 49er quarterback John Brodie drop back seven yards from his usual T position behind the center and C. R. Roberts and J. D. Smith shift into wing spots with R. C. Owens out as a flanker.

"That double wing spread now has changed everything drastically," Paul told the AP and then posed the same "Do you cover or rush?" question he had put rhetorically to the UPI.

"This attack gets five quick receivers down field, two ends, two halfbacks and the fullback. It isn't new, of course, but it sure messes up your defensive plans."

HOGWASH, just plain hogwash. Any boy playing high school football can quickly diagram a sound defense against the spread. It's standard routine in football basics.

The Colts started to use a sound defense against the 49er spread by throwing six men into the line, leaving Daddy Lipscomb and the four defensive backfield men to take care of "five quick receivers." But then they began messing up their own defense, trying cute 3-4-4 stuff.

Red Hickey had hoped the spread would minimize the great rush Colt defensive giants have put on all quarterbacks all season but he never expected them to abandon their best defensive weapon.

If Hickey does use the spread next Sunday against the Rams, it is not likely that they are going to depart from sound defensive strategy, notwithstanding all of the simulated fear David and Paul have been professing.

SELDOM HAS one football game stimulated so much discussion as the 49er-Colt affair. Certainly the double wing spread played an important part in the 49er upset win but equally vital in the victory was the way the 49er defensive team kept the pressure on Johnny Unitas all day.

Unitas was rushed so hard from the inside that he was forced to throw several times before he or his receivers were set—and the result was five interceptions, without which the 49ers never could have won—even with the fancy spread stuff.

Balboa '5' Spoils Redwood's Cage Season Opener

Redwood High School opened the basketball season on a losing note yesterday as Balboa High routed the Giants 62-26 in San Francisco.

Redwood Coach Dick Hart used 15 players in a platoon system to search for standouts, among whom were Don Bowen with eight points and Rich Brear with seven.

Bolinas, Stinson Merger Discussed

A joint meeting of the boards of trustees of the Bolinas and Stinson Beach School Districts will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the Bolinas Community Center.

The proposed merger of the two districts will be discussed. The merger will come to a vote Dec. 13.

OREGON STATE BOWL GAME IS CANCELLED

NEW YORK (AP)—The inaugural Gotham Bowl football game, scheduled to be played at Yankee Stadium Dec. 10, will not be held this year, bowl director Bob Ready said today.

Oregon State's football squad accepted an invitation to play this year, but the committee was unable to find a suitable opponent.

Dad Proud Of Son Until Race Ended

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Carl Schmidt was proud when his son, Tom, took a lively interest in his hobby, model airplane racing.

But Dad was somewhat chagrined when he finished as runnerup to his 16-year-old Tom in the sixth annual Thompson Trophy Junior Air Races, sponsored by the Gulf Hawks Model Airplane Club.

Tough Year

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (AP)—J. H. Morris has retired after delivering mail for 40 years. The 39th year was his hardest. "That year," he says, "I was bitten by a Chihuahua, stung by a bee and spurred in the ankle by a bantam rooster."

Champion Tars Launch Cage Slate Tonight

With only one letterman in the lineup, College of Marin basketball hopes will be starting almost from scratch tonight as the Tars launch the 1960-61 season on their home court.

First opponent to test the Marin club will be Diablo Valley College, 8 o'clock at Kentfield. Tomorrow night Marin treks to San Mateo College for its second outing.

When the Golden Valley Conference begins Jan. 6-7, Marin will be gunning for its fifth consecutive championship.

Coach Cal Riemcke appraises his Tar squad as "small, but good ball handlers and good shooters. In fact this is as good a shooting club as I've ever had, and I hope that makes up for our lack of size."

ONLY LETTERMAN

The only letterman in Tar togs is guard John Blomquist, a 5-foot-7 scrapper who helped Marin bag the conference flag last season.

The balance of his starting lineup tonight probably will be Lynn Livie, 5-11, at the other guard; Ernie Bray, 6-0, and Ron Blum, 6-2, at forwards and either Mike Rawitser, 6-1, or Rich Laumeuster, 6-4 at center.

Blomquist is a San Rafael High School graduate, Livie is from Petaluma, Bray from Redwood High, Blub from Marin Catholic, Rawitser a transfer from Michigan and Laumeuster from St. Francis High on the Monterey Peninsula.

USF Rallies To Beat Hawaii '5' In Season Debut

HONOLULU (AP)—It took the University of San Francisco six minutes before it hit for its first field goal last night, but the Dons then overcame an eight-point deficit and beat the University of Hawaii 68-58.

Bob Gaillard paced the Dons to their season-opening victory with 19 points. Henry Johnson hit 13 for USF. Frank DeLauro's 15 was high for Hawaii's Rainbows.

After trailing by eight points early in the first half, USF pulled to a 24-all tie and led 30-28 at halftime. Hawaii tied the score early in the second half but USF then slowly began pulling away.

Browns Lead NFL Passing, Rushing

NEW YORK (AP)—Jimmy Brown and Milt Plum, the Cleveland Browns' 1-2 ground and air attack, continued to lead the top individual offensive departments in the National Football League today.

Brown has gained 912 yards rushing in nine games for the Browns, who are tied for second place with New York in the Eastern Conference. He has carried the ball 164 times for a 5.6 average.

Plum's accuracy is further demonstrated in three departments: (1) per cent completed, (2) per cent intercepted and (3) average gain.

The former Penn State star has completed 115 of 170 for 1,705 and 13 touchdowns for a 67.6 mark. He has yet to have a pass pilfered and has averaged 10.03 per toss.

Redwood's Hoffman On All-North Cal Squad

Tackle Mike Hoffman of the Marin County champion Redwood High School Giants today was named on the first team of the San Francisco Examiner's 1960 All-Northern California football squad.

Big No. 70 for the Giants was the only Marinite on the first team, but three local stars received recognition in the Examiner's annual "dream team" lineups. They were halfback Pat Morgan of Tamalpais and end Lu Haas of Novato on the first team of the All-North Coast selections and fullback-linebacker Jerry Crowe of Marin Catholic on the All-North Coast second team.

News of Hoffman's first team selection was cheered at Redwood this morning, especially by Coach Bob Troppman as Mike became his first student to attain such recognition.

The 6-foot, 2-inch, 180-pound Hoffman, a senior, also will be in line for selection to the North team in next summer's annual North-South Shrine game, featuring graduating seniors, in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Hoffman recently was named on the All-Marin County team as offensive tackle and defensive linebacker. He also received an award, along with center Mike Walsh, as Redwood's co-captain at the team's championship banquet.

Another highlight at the Redwood banquet was a three-way tie for the school's football scholarship award between Roger Siemens, Ned Griffith and Rich Brear.

Reed Trustees Apply For Funds

Reed Union School District trustees in a special meeting last night adopted a formal resolution applying for a state loan to construct eight classrooms at Del Mar Estates.

The estimated total construction cost is $310,580, Supt. Paul R. Stouffer said. Site acquisition cost is $18,000; surveys and plans, including architectural fees, amount to $19,000, and the site development, including grading and utilities, is $95,000. General construction will amount to $145,000.

Golden Gate Winner

McElhenny To Sub For R.C.; 49ers 3½-Point Underdogs

Hugh McElhenny is slated for the flanker back spot when the San Francisco 49ers face the Rams Sunday at the Los Angeles Coliseum—but don't bet against R. C. Owens showing up too, separated shoulder and all.

"No pain," lanky Owens said last night. "I hope I'll be ready for the Rams."

Coach Red Hickey doesn't know yet whether Owens will play. He's drilling McElhenny in the job and veteran Hugh, who played the position last year, knows what it's all about.

The 49ers, meanwhile, were reflecting on the values of jumping jack Owens, a remarkable athlete who's been taking jolts and bounces for years that left fans in the stands shuddering. But each time, up came R. C. for his gangling lope back to the huddle.

He injured his shoulder Sunday, seconds before the end of the first half, when he climbed an imaginary ladder high into the skies over Baltimore and fell to the ground with a touchdown pass.

Even the Colts' fans, as wildly partisan as fans can be, cheered Owens' mighty effort. Owens was helped from the field and the folks in Baltimore figured he'd need an ambulance to leave the stadium.

But back he came in the second half and it was R. C. who took a lateral from Dee Mackey and rambled for the 49ers' winning touchdown with less than two minutes left in the game.

Owens represents one of the 49ers' great psychological weapons—the Alley Oop play. He and Y. A. Tittle originated it and John Brodie has been able to emulate Tittie in throwing the long, looping pass which requires breath-taking timing.

The 49ers have been established as 3½-point underdogs for the game in the Coliseum. Hickey likes that.

Tittle, still ailing with a groin injury, and guard Ted Connolly, who rejoined the team yesterday after missing five games with a knee injury, are both doubtful for the Ram game. Hickey will miss them.

As for Owens and the Alley Oop, Hickey feels the way the generals in the pentagon feel about the hydrogen bomb. He hopes he doesn't need it—but he feels better when he knows it's available.

Coast League Okays Team For Honolulu

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—The Pacific Coast League went shopping in Hawaii today for a buyer with $55,000 who would operate a franchise in Honolulu.

The league vote yesterday to transfer the defunct Sacramento franchise to Honolulu, but a pair of Salt Lake City men who originally thought of the plan to operate a club in the mid-Pacific, backed out of the deal.

According to PCL officials, the league preferred to have a Hawaiian group backing the club. They envisioned little difficulty in finding a suitable backer.

"The Pacific Coast League will operate in Honolulu in 1961," said PCL President Soriano following day-long meetings. "There are still several arrangements that have to be straightened out, such as park lease and transportation."

CASH AVAILABLE

Soriano said "there are three other groups, which I cannot identify at this time, who are very interested, and we know one of them is ready to put up the $55,000 to buy the franchise."

Maurice Yates and Hal Tate, the Salt Lake City men who originally had wanted to buy the Sacramento team and move it to Honolulu, would not offer more than $35,000 for the franchise.

Soriano said he would meet tomorrow in San Francisco with Chinn Ho, head of the Honilulu Stadium Corporation, to complete arrangements for use of the 22,000 seat ball park.

Soriano said "directors of the Pacific Coast League are most enthusiastic about this operation. Honolulu will give the league the prestige city that is most necessary for continued operation at the Triple-A level."

The league president explained that it was probable that a 154-game schedule would be drawn up, with each mainland club making two trips to Hawaii—one for six games and one for five.

NINE RACES A DAY AT GOLDEN GATE FIELDS

ALBANY (UPI) — Golden Gate Fields has been given permission to run nine races daily next week.

The California Horse Racing Board yesterday agreed to the plan to properly evaluate the effect of an additional daily race to the card.

Golden Gate has been presenting nine races on Wednesdays, Saturdays and holidays, with eight races on other days.

King of All annexed yesterday's featured $5,000 Hayward Handicap. The time for the three-quarter mile was 1:10 2/5 in sloppy conditions.

Pete Moreno was aboard the winner. Hechizo was second by a head and Stage Actress third in the field of seven. The winner returned $14.20 to win.

Eagles Fear Letdown In Final Games

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (AP) — Coach Buck Shaw said today he is "talking his head off" in efforts to prevent a letdown by his Philadelphia Eagles, who need only a victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Sunday to win their first National Football League Eastern title since 1949.

"The Cardinals will be tough," Shaw said. "They've been improving right along. We're on top and everyone is after us. It's a real rat race.

"After two successive victories over New York and winning eight in a row it's a natural spot for a letdown and we'll have to fight it all the way."

Actually, the Eagles have three shots at the title. After playing at St. Louis, they have two more road games against Pittsburgh and Washington. They have beaten all three clubs at home this year.

"It's like being on the 3-yard line with three downs to go," Shaw said. "But I think we have to take one game at a time and assume it's the last one we're playing—that there's no second or third chance."

Shaw, 61, said a victory Sunday would mark a milestone in his long coaching career. He never has won a divisional title in 11 years of coaching professional football.

Cal In Limelight As Coast Quints Open Season Tonight

New coach Rene Herrerias previews his University of California basketball team against the alumni tonight at Berkeley while in other sections come games with more official standing.

St. Mary's plays at Stanford, San Francisco State meets Santa Clara at San Jose, Long Beach State plays at Chico State and the Cal Aggies at Memphis, Tenn., State.

The University of San Francisco, opening last night at Hawaii with a 68-58 victory over the host team, plays there again tonight.

Interest centers on Herrerias' initial California outfit since he succeeds Pete Newell whose clubs the past two seasons placed first and then second in the NCAA finals.

Stanford's Coach Howie Dallmar named co-captains Bub Bowling and John Hendry plus John Windsor, all first stringers from last year, and sophomores Rich Hosley and Don Clementson as his starters.

Clementson's twin brother Doug also will see action in a combination that could befuddle the opposition.

MESCHERY BACK

Weaver says his club this season will be trying three or four different types of offenses because "we're not big enough or strong enough to overpower a team with only one thing."

San Francisco State of the Far Western Conference starts an ambitious pre-league slate with the Santa Clara game. Coach Paul Rundell's Gators will have veteran Jim Caranica, a star of last year's conference champions, senior Richie Williams, juniors John Hammerback and Jim Cunningham and sophomore Bill Holmberg as his starters.

Coach Bob Feerick of the Santa Clara Broncos counters with a probable quintet of seniors Dennis McGrath and Pete Lillevand, juniors Barry Cristina and Ron McGee and sophomore Gene Shields. The latter at 6-8 is the tallest man on the club.

Friday night San Jose State swings into action hosting Fresno State while the Presidio of San Francisco plays at Humboldt State, Long Beach State plays at Sacramento and Eastern Oregon plays Nevada at Reno.

A.L. Expansion Plan Still Question Mark

NEW YORK (UPI)—A giant question-mark still hung over the major leagues' expansion plans today when Commissioner Ford Frick and league presidents Warren Giles and Joe Cronin met for the second straight day at baseball's summit.

The "Big Three" appeared no nearer a solution than they were at the start of yesterday's 5½-hour session which ended at 5:30 p.m. The only announcement made by Frick after that session was that another meeting would be held today.

There were no indications whether the high hopes entertained by Frick at the start of the first meeting would be justified. Frick, a long-time advocate of "orderly expansion," is attempting to persuade the American and National leagues to cooperate with each other.

"I want a rule we can live with for some time," he said. "I want to work out a formula that will be good in 1962 as well as in 1961."

There are two problems:

1. The National League has blocked the American League plan for two nine-team circuits with inter-league scheduling in 1961—the "compromise" the A.L. offered as the price for not invading Los Angeles next year.

2. Rule One-C of the major league agreement prevents the invasion of any major league city without the unanimous consent of all 16 owners. Obviously Walter O'Malley of the Dodgers will not vote in favor of expansion into Los Angeles in 1961.

Whatever is eventually decided—if anything—must be put before a vote of the two leagues during the major league meetings at St. Louis, beginning next Monday. In the event of a tie in that voting, Frick has said that he will vote against expansion in 1961.

Also present at yesterday's meeting were three attorneys—Louis Carroll of the National League, Ben Fiery of the American League and Paul Porter for the commissioner.

Dodgers Make Bid For Twins' Lemon

LOUISVILLE, Ky (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers reportedly have offered four players for outfielder Jim Lemon of the Minneapolis Twins.

But negotiations were stalled last night because the players offered did not meet the Twins' requirements for a starting pitcher.

Calvin Griffith, owner of the Twins, said he would insist on a starting pitcher in any deal involving a player with the ability of Lemon, a home run slugger.

There also were reports the Dodgers were interested in Rocky Colavito or Al Kaline of the Detroit Tigers.

Nat Holman To Teach Basketball To Japanese

TOKYO (AP) — Nat Holman, America's internationally known basketball coach, is visiting Japan next month to teach the Japanese the game, the U.S. Embassy announced today.

BOOMING SPORT

Pro Bowling Reaches Unprecedented Peak

By HAL WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—So your boy wants to be a baseball player? A football star? A touring golfer?

Talk him out of it. Tell him to be a bowler.

Better working conditions, employment 52 weeks of the year, a longer life-span—and twice as much money.

Bowling, the boom sport of the post-war years, is going professional in a big way—and the chances are it will become the biggest thing in all of sportsdom.

In 1960, for instance, an ex-school teacher named Frank Clause, from Old Forte, Pa., will make about $100,000. Which is a higher salary than either Willie Mays or Mickey Mantle gets.

Clause, who used to teach English, history and journalism, gave up the work to become a bowling pro—and at this writing he can't be unhappy about the decision. He has picked up $74,750 in TV jackpot shows this year and gets about $150 a day for exhibitions, besides.

There is more prize money for bowlers given every year than ever is offered in baseball's World Series.

From coast to coast there are small tournaments going on every day in the thousands of bowling establishments. The sport is reaching unprecedented heights.

Johnny Swanson, a one-time college football player at University of San Francisco, opened a bowling alley in nearby Westlake two years ago. It had 36 lanes and looked to be the height of perfection. Inside one year he had to enlarge to 52 lanes to handle the business—which runs 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Currently on the planning board is a National Professional League for bowlers. This won't be a fly-by-night operation. To get franchises, men in the business had to guarantee an arena that would seat from 4,000 to 20,000 for every contest. Franchises already have been awarded to Birmingham, Minneapolis, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Antonio, Dallas, Ft. Worth, Detroit, Omaha, Miami, New York and Kansas City.

"These men, eight to a team, will be playing for salaries equal to the average infielder in the major leagues," says Swanson. "They probably will make $10,000 to $20,000 each year—plus anything they can pick up in the way of exhibition money and prizes on TV contests.

Outside of the TV shows, the biggest prize money right now comes in the Petersen Classic in Chicago, where the winner drags down $25,000, and the second place man gets $12,500. The Louisville Classic pays $10,000 for first place, $5,000 for second.

Big name stars like Don Carter, Andy Varapapa and others usually are signed up by some organization which pays them salaries of $10,000 a year or better—plus all traveling expenses, plus all prize money won.

So who wants to play baseball, football or golf for chicken feed?

Fullmer Still Cautious Of Sugar's Punch

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson will have to knock out Gene Fullmer within five rounds if he is to capture the National Boxing Assn. version of the world middleweight title.

That was the consensus today as the two battlers took matters easy and speculation continued over their 15-round fight to be nationally-televised Saturday night in the Sports Arena.

Fullmer, 29, from West Jordan, Utah, smiled. "I don't say he can't do it again because he can, but I'll be a little more alert and cautious, knowing what he can do," he said.

Fullmer indicated the aging Sugar Ray may show his years as the match progresses.

"He appeared to be pretty weary in his last fight with Paul Pender," Fullmer said. Robinson twice lost to the Boston boxer early this year for the title recognized in Massachusetts and New York.

NEW YORK (AP) — The 1960 Associated Press Little All-America team named today includes two Californians, guard Doug Brown, a 246-pounder from Fresno State, and halfback Charlies Fuller of San Francisco State, former Vallejo High star.

Humboldt State tackle Vester Flanagan was named to the second team.

Palmer Sets Record For Money Winnings

DUNEDIN, Fla (AP)—Arnold Palmer, already voted professional golfer-of-the-year, has also become the biggest money winner for one season in the history of the game.

MARIN'S 'FLYING FATHER'

Expect 10,000 At Eureka For NAIA Football Playoff

EUREKA (UPI) — Humboldt State officials today talked of a possible record crowd of more than 10,000 Saturday night when Humboldt State and Whitworth square off in the Western NAIA football playoff between two unbeaten teams.

All 6,500 reserved seats at Albee Stadium have been sold, but an additional 2,000 temporary bleachers are to be erected and more tickets will be sold on a standing room basis.

Six high school basketball games within an 80-mile radius have been switched from Saturday night so that students may watch the Lumberjacks battle Whitworth.

The weatherman has bad news for Whitworth. The field is already in muddy condition and more rain is predicted before game-time. This should slow Whitworth's passing attack—best in the nation among small colleges.

From Spokane, the news for Whitworth fans was more heartening.

STEVENS

Weekend fishing sure had its ups and downs—with the downs predominating. Must have been 200 boats on Richardson Bay on the two days, all trying hard to fill out limits. Quite a few did on Sunday, but many of them didn't on Saturday. Muddy water from the storms apparently chased the herring to other parts, which some of the experts give as the reason for the slackening off of the exceptionally fine yield of large mediums (the 10 pound class of stripers).

Sunday the water and weather improved and the herring were again in evidence. Better fishing resulted. Monday, during the last two hours of the incoming tide and the first two hours of the ebb, fishing in Richardson Bay almost attained a comeback.

The Richardson fishing has been (and will continue to be) almost entirely confined to trolling with light sinkers and artificials as bait. Some attempts have been made with anchored boats closer to Tiburon, but it has not paid off.

I GUESS we can safely term that area as being in the "up" column. In the "down" section we must include the Papermill Creek and Tomales Bay. Game Warden Al Giddings worked those two areas over the weekend. He told me the creek is loaded with silver salmon, but they are being very snooty—refuse to cooperate. In Tomales Bay, nary a bass nor a salmon has been taken lately. That was the result of a six-boat foray.) Only five fish were deducted from the Papermill Creek population—three silvers and two steelies on Sunday.

THE LADS and lassies who went out of China Camp after stripers did poorly on Saturday, but had a fair-to-good day on Sunday and a better day on Monday. Not large fish, and lots of throwbacks, but limits or near limits were common on Monday. Most of the success, according to Frank Quan, was had in the shellbank region . . . all on bait.

Quan reported some of the finest flounder fishing of the year. "Big ones and plentiful," he assured me.

Some fast and fancy fishing on bait was had in the Red Rock sector the past three days. Limits of stripers in the six-to-eight-pound class were taken along with some hefty flounders to four pounds in weight.

One report came in of a party of three fishing all day on Sunday without a fish being caught in the Big Break. Several other reports from the lower Suisun Bay and Honker Bay indicate that section as one of the most promising for the gal or guy who likes a chance at hooking and landing a striper in the 20-30-pound class.

BASS IN the Red Rock area; Buoys 8, 10 and 12, and on the shellbanks off China Camp are hitting very lightly — need to be hooked almost at the moment of contact. The bigger stripers in the Suisun and Honker Bays need time to make up their minds. Hence the wait until the second strike before attempting to set the hook. Two hooks, one above and one below the sinker for the San Pablo Bay fish and a sliding sinker and long leader with single hook, or a light sinker and a long leader (four-five feet) for the lunkers in Honker Bay.

All-America Final In Aussie Tennis

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —Barry MacKay and Earl Buchholz, Jr. battled their way today into the final of the Victorian tennis championships, making it an all-American final for the first time in the 60-year history of the tourney.

Buchholz staged a fighting comeback to beat his fellow St. Louisan, Chuck McKinley, 3-6, 5-7, 6-4, 6-1, 6-4. MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, whipped Mike Sangster of England 6-4, 10-8, 12-10 in the first semi-final match.

N.Y. Racing Records

NEW YORK (AP)—Thoroughbred racing for 1960 is over in New York state with records in both attendance and wagering. When Aqueduct wrapped up the year Wednesday with 30,176 betting $3,509,402, the total attendance for 218 days was boosted to 5,588,779 and the total handle to $531,441,960.

Sixto To Face Rugged Foe In Britisher

Sixto Rodriguez of San Anselmo, California's light heavyweight champion, and Johnny Sullivan, one time holder of the British middleweight title, clash in Lou Thomas' 10-round feature next Monday night at Kezar Pavilion in San Francisco.

Those closely associated with the ring sport consider this the best attraction Thomas has lined up since he moved into the pavilion.

Sullivan has appeared in three national television fights since he came to this country. That he can fight he has proved by the fact that he has met the likes of Joey Giambra, Rocky Castellani, Yolande Pompey, Willie Troy, Gordon Wallace and Eduardo Lausse.

Karl Ashley, who manages Rodriguez, thinks Sixto will be able to challenge for the world's title next year. He's accepting tough fights for his man, he says, to keep his charge in perfect condition.

In his last start at Richmond Sixto engaged in a rousing battle with Bobby Sands of Los Angeles. Knocked down in the first round, Rodriguez came back to batter his foe and score a technical kayo.

In gym workouts at Newman's, Sullivan has the railbirds talking about him. He's a tough, aggressive battler, who seems to carry a hefty sock. He's a good body pounder and, for that reason, should give Rodriguez real trouble.

The feature is backed with three six rounders.

Charley Smith, a main eventer out of Detroit, takes on Lem Miller, an experienced lightweight out of Los Angeles.

Don Chestra and Dorsey Williams will clash in what is billed as a grude fight.

Heavyweights Billy Fields of San Francisco and Bill McMurray of Sacramento will meet in the third six rounder.

Max Says Johansson Could Be Greatest

TORONTO (AP)—Max Schmeling, Germany's former world heavyweight boxing champion, says Ingemar Johansson of Sweden could be the greatest heavyweight champion in history if he took the sport seriously.

Schmeling, 55, said in an interview yesterday that Johansson was in perfect condition when he knocked out Floyd Patterson in their first fight. In the second bout, in which Johansson was knocked out, he didn't train hard enough, Max said.

El Marinero Presents New 50-Star Flag

The presentation of a new 50 star American Flag was the highlight of the recent birthday celebration of Kentfield Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 130, held at Arequipa.

Mrs. Kenneth Gregory of the El Marinero Chapter, Marin County DAR made the presentation. Receiving the Flag for the troop were Patrol Leaders Patty Woolston, Jan Ellis and Cindy Wiklund.

The 27 Scouts, all sixth graders, received their fourth year pins. A skit on an incident from the life of Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scouts, was presented by some of the girls, while the others acted as hostesses.

Kentfield Brownie Scout Troop 131 and their leaders, Mrs. Nathan Posner and Mrs. Shirley Hutchinson, were guests for the afternoon program, as were the mothers of Troop 130 Leaders of Troop 130 are Mesdames Martin Griffin, J. R. B. Ellis and John Parsons.

Social Service Christmas Tea Will Highlight Worthy Project

Invitations have been received this week for the annual Christmas Tea of the Marin County Catholic Social Service Auxiliary.

This traditional event will be held this year on Wednesday, Dec. 7, at Meadowlands on the Dominican College grounds from 3 to 5 p.m.

Carolers from the Upper School will serenade the many Auxiliary members who will gather at the social event marking the end of one of their major yearly efforts—the preparation of toys, clothes and dolls for distribution during the Christmas season.

Enclosed in the invitations were stockings in which checks will be enclosed by members. The cash donation is taking the place of the former donations of canned goods which used to be the admission to the Tea. Mayor Robert Huber of Mill Valley will again play Santa Claus to gather up the stockings.

Chairman for the annual tea is Mr. Bernard J. Conroy, with Mrs. Arthur Fay acting as her co-chairman. Members of their committee are Mesdames Bernard O'Kane, decorations; Clifford Meagher, food; Arthur Fay, invitations; Thomas Keating, reservations; Howard A. Leif, awards; G. D. Callahan, properties; Hugh Ailen, entertainment; John East, cleanup; William Flynn, mailing; A. H. Nathe, toys; John Fracchia, dolls; Fred Enemark, sewing and J. E. Knox, publicity.

Kappa Delta Alums To Meet Tonight

An exchange of Christmas recipes and decorating ideas will be the feature of the December meeting of Marin County Kappa Delta alumnae members. They will gather at 8 p.m. tonight in Greenbrae at the home of Mrs. Watson Conner.

All Kappa Delta alumnae in the county are cordially invited. Assisting Mrs. Conner will be Mrs. C. R. Allen.

PARTIES TO FOLLOW NORTHGATE HOLIDAY COCKTAIL STYLE SHOW

Plans have been completed for the holiday cocktail and fashion show party sponsored by the Northgate Group to be tomorrow night at the Meadow Club, Fairfax.

Specially selected glamour clothes from a San Francisco store will be featured in the fashion promenade with Andrew Swedlund of Greenbrae acting as commentator.

Many dinner parties at the Meadow Club will follow the cocktail party. Among those who have already arranged dinner groups, according to Mrs. Frank Dettner, reservations chairman, are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Smith of Ross who will entertain six couples and also entertain at several no host tables. Mrs. Smith, who with Mrs. H. Wallace Hickman, is in charge of the entire affair, said today many informal "Lets sit together" arrangements have been made for dinner by Northgate members, committee chairmen and friends.

Party Will Honor Folk Dance Beginners

Honoring beginner folk dancers, the Marin Dance Council, Inc., is giving a party Monday night from 8 to 11 p.m. at the E Street School. Some of the beginners have been dancing since July under the direction of Jim Greer. It will be the beginners first opportunity to meet dancers of the clubs in the county and their instructors. All folk dancers are invited to the party.

Another beginners' folk dance class will be organized soon.

Holy Family Guild Tea Set Monday

Members of the Holy Family Guild will close the year's activities at a Christmas Tea to be held at the Holy Family Convent, 125 Prospect Avenue, San Anselmo, on Monday, Dec. 5 at 1 p.m.

A basket of groceries will be presented to the Sisters with a contribution derived from various parties held throughout the county during the summer.

Mrs. Walter Garrett, out-going president, will present the new officers. Chairmen for the day Mesdames Edward Monaghan and Daniel Sheehy, will welcome the members who will be present to extend Holiday greetings to the Sisters.

Alpha Chi Omega Christmas Party

Marin Alpha Chi Omega alumnae will hold their annual Christmas party on Dec. 7 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lowell F. Jett, 60 Alta Vista, Mill Valley.

Mrs. George Larson will be co-hostess for the affair, which will feature the traditional silent auction of white elephants and a sale of Christmas wrappings and decorated boxes.

Each one attending is asked to bring a "White Elephant." All Alpha Chis are invited and may telephone Mrs. Jett for further details.

Nine Girls Honored By Auxiliary

"Star Trails Upward" was the theme for the Girls' Auxiliary Coronation Service at First Baptist Church, San Rafael, Sunday night, when nine girls were honored for work in the organization.

Judith Ann Harrop, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clayton Harrop of Terra Linda was honored as "Queen-inService," third highest rank in the auxiliary.

Three girls were crowned "Queen." They were Joyce Harrop, Terra Linda; Carol Nichols, who resides with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Harvell, San Rafael; and Gloria Hassler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sassler, San Anselmo.

Honored as princesses were Nancy Wallace, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Bradley Wallace, San Rafael; Lyn Scholz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scholz, Corte Madera; Carol Ann Hough, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Wallace Hough Jr., San Rafael; and Linda Pollard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pollard, San Rafael.

Girls from 9 to 17 years are eligible for the Auxiliary. During the time, they may pass requirements for seven steps — from maiden to queen regent. Requirements for each step become progressively more difficult and lengthy.

Directing the Coronation Services were Mrs. Clayton Harrop, Mrs. Robert Scholz, Mrs. Stanley Jacobs and Mrs. Fred Fisher.

Members Will Model In Christmas Show

When the San Francisco Yacht Club Auxiilary presents "Christmas Luxuries in Fashions and Furs" Saturday, Dec. 10 at the clubhouse, many of the auxiliary members will model.

They are Mesdames Gilbert H. Duby of Tiburon; David Imrie, and Robert Bernheim of Belvedere; William Wallace of Kentfield, Robert Shannon of The Reedlands; Robert Gomez and Corinne Mathews of Mill Valley; Leonard Delmas of Kentfield; Henry Prien, Leo Tarantino, Ernie Van Asperin, Edward Schneider and John Anlyan of San Francisco and Miss Cathy Mersereau of Belvedere.

Mrs. Don Carlberg of Little Reed Heights has been asked to commentate the fashions which are designed by Elisabeth Vincent and the furs which are from a San Francisco shop.

In addition to the show, cocktails will be served and gentlemen members of the Club are especially invited to attend.

Assisting Mrs. Myron Elges who is general chairman are Mrs. Michael Shay, decorations chairman and her assistant Mrs. Imrie. Mrs. Daniel Nyhan is planning the hors d'oeuvres and Mrs. Jeff Capell will play the organ. Auxiliary president Mrs. Kirby Atterbury is in charge of arrangements.

New Features Planned For Poseda Party

Additional features have been added to the "Poseda" party scheduled for Sausalito children at the Sausalito Woman's Club at 3 p.m. on Sunday.

Mrs. Charles H. Merrill Jr., chairman, announces that Harry Alto, well known Marin guitarist, will accompany the youngsters in the procession that is a traditional part of the Mexican Yuletide celebration. Folk dancers from "Mickey McGowan's group will appear in costume to show the children dances of the country.

Mrs. S. C. Stapp, club president, reminds parents that all Sausalito children are invited to this holiday party serving the community.

Nurses' Assn. Plans Dance On Saturday

The Marin County Nurses' Assn., District 28, will have its Christmas party and dance on Saturday at 8 p.m.

The event will be in the ballroom of the Hamilton Air Force Base Non-Commissioned Officers Club in Novato. M/Sgt. and Mrs. Frank Leonard will be sponsors.

Lagan Institute Celebrates 56th 'Birthday' At Dinner

Lagan Institute, Young Ladies Institute of San Rafael celebrated its fifty sixth birthday at a dinner Tuesday night at the Blue Rock Hotel in Larkspur. Honored were two of the institute's charter members, Mrs. Alice Sanford and Miss Catherine F. Timony. Also an honor guest was Florence Donnelly, society and women's editor of the Independent-Journal.

The institute was named for the late Rev. Hugh Lagan, pastor of St. Raphael's Church from 1884 and 1899. The beloved pastor accomplished many improvements in the church and parish.

Miss Mildred Young, chairman of the birthday dinner, presided as mistress of ceremonies and introduced Mrs. Stanley Cowan, Lagan president, and Mrs. Jack Benz, institute deputy. Miss Young called to mind past days with the introduction of members, giving the years they had joined the institute. The dinner was concluded with the serving of the large birthday cake in which good luck symbols had been placed.

The institute with others in the Redwood Empire District is giving the annual Christmas party for children at Albertinium School in Ukiah. On Saturday night the Lagan members with those of other institutes of the county will join the members of Sonoma County at the parish hall in Sebastopol to wrap gifts which will be distributed to the Albertinium youngsters on Sunday, Dec. 11. Lagan members will leave at 9 a.m. in a chartered bus from St. Raphael's Church. Each child will have a special gift with his name. Also there will be a gift for the school. This year about $250 of playground equipment will be presented. In others years there have been Hi-Fi sets, TV sets. The children are served party fare. The Christmas party has been an annual event, sponsored by the institutes for more than 30 years.

On Tuesday, Dec. 6 Alma Pucci, grand first vice president, will make her official visit to Lagan at a meeting in Painters Hall, San Rafael.

University Women Hear Talk By First Consumer Counsel

Two hundred members of the Mill Valley and Marin branches of the American Association of University Women gathered recently at the Mill Valley Community Church to hear a talk by Helen Ewing Nelson on her work as California's first consumer counsel.

Mrs. Nelson (Nathan), who is still a member of the Mill Valley branch though she now lives in Sacramento, was introduced by Marin Supervisor Vera Schultz.

Of much interest to the audience was Mrs. Nelson's statement that she has heard that President-elect John F. Kennedy plans a position similar to hers—the first in the United States—on the national level.

The speaker said she was particularly interested in her job in connection with weights and measures and cited as an illustration of her work in this field the discovery from testing packages of potato chips that because of variances in packaging the prices varied from 79 cents to $1.79 per pound.

Another field her staff investigates, she explained, is that of credit, remarking that "California is the bankruptcy capital of the world."

She went on to discuss such abuses as the "Prepaid service contracts" under which certain reducing salons and dance studios had gone out of business, yet clients were forced to fulfill their contracts.

Mrs. Nelson said that claims up to $150 (formerly $50) may be taken to the court of small claims, but that people, rather than bother with recovering small amounts, would not take advantage of this recourse.

Another problem she described was the bad practices in connection with telephone solicitation for business in which information is also obtained that is passed on to others.

Additional fields needing study and recommendations she mentioned were door-to-door sales, further controls under the food and drugs act and labeling of potentially dangerous products, such as cleaners and detergents and even cosmetics.

Mrs. Nelson gave special credit to the Independent-Journal for an excellent job of publicizing the duties of her office.

The program was planned by co-chairmen Mrs. J. A. Fuller of the Mill Valley Branch, and Mary Ann Christensen of the Marin Branch.

Following her talk, Mrs. Nelson was beseiged with questions. Refreshments were served by tea chairman for the evening, Mrs. John Radovich of the Mill Valley Branch, who arranged a table centerpiece consisting of old fashioned scales with items in outmoded packages on one side and in up-to-date style on the other.

Preceding the meeting Mrs. Nelson was entertained at dinner at Sabella's by representatives of the two branches.

Fashions Topic Chosen By Sparks For Dec. 7 Meet

"Fashions for You and Your Home" is the subject chosen for the next monthly luncheon of the Sparks, auxiliary to the Southern Marin Recreation Center. Speaker will be Mrs. Moree Stuber, fashion coordinator and designer.

The luncheon will be held at the Center on Wednesday, Dec. 7 starting at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Stuber, who is also a writer and teaches charm, will commentate a fashion show of clothing from a Sausalito ski shop. Both home and snow clothes will be shown. She will also discuss fashion trends and make-up.

Mrs. Robert Sitkin and Mrs. Lloyd Jergeson will hostess. Reservations may be made by calling either Mrs. John Hoffmire or Mrs. Kent Beardsley by Monday, Dec. 5.

Gray Ladies Awarded Stripes

Mrs. Verne MacFarlan's home in Fairfax was recently the scene for the third annual luncheon honoring the Red Cross Gray Ladies who serve at Sonoma State Hospital.

Service stripes were awarded to Mesdames Pedley, Caughill, Wright, Walker, Lester, Madsen and Mrs. Frank Jordan, who was unable to be present.

Students Entertained By Mme. Bella Resek

Purpose of the meeting was to allow the students to become acquainted and help beginners to overcome shyness by performing at these informal occasions which will be held every five or six weeks.

Turkey Whist Party

A turkey whist party will be given by the APUMEC No. 30 at the IDESI Hall in Novato Saturday at 8:30 p.m. Mrs. William Canessa, chairman, announces many awards will be made and refreshments served.

United Voluntary Services Unit Plans Activities

Members of the Mill Valley Unit of the United Voluntary Services made plans this week for their annual Christmas season activities at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Archer Forsyth of Mill Valley.

While some of the UVS members serve the luncheon to be given at 12 o'clock on Dec. 13 at the Mill Valley American Legion Hall, others will make up the packages of treats for the children.

Mrs. Frederick Fellows, UVS unit chairman, announces that any seniors in Marin County wishing to attend the luncheon will be welcome, but that any who are not regular members of the group should make reservations with her or Mrs. Stanley D. Wilson. Both live in Mill Valley.

At this week's meeting the unit also decided to have its annual fund raising project in the spring a garden party-luncheon at the home of Mrs. Gande.

New Blue Bird Group Tours 'The Wanderer'

The Adventurous Blue Birds, a newly organized group of third grade girls in Ross, are really living up to their name.

One of their first activities was to spend the afternoon on board the schooner, "The Wanderer," anchored off Sausalito, and owned by Captain Omer Darr of Mill Valley. The Blue Birds learned about the life of passengers and crew on a schooner while it is on cruise. Captain Darr told the girls about the cruise taken last summer to the South Pacific and about the trip that is planned next, when the boat will sail to Pitcairn Island, Tahiti, and other islands in the South Seas.

Earlier this fall, the Adventurous Blue Birds planted poppies around Lake Lagunitas, with the approval of the Marin Municipal Water District, in accordance with the program of the Camp Fire Girls to plant the Califonria Golden Poppies on the hillsides and roadways.

Since organization on Sept. 21, the group has gone to Tiburon for a "seashore" nature hike, and visited Lake Lagunitas for a nature hike to identify trees and native plants.

ANYTHING TO PROMOTE A PLAY

These three members of the Cove Players caroled on the Belvedere lagoon, dressed in angels' costumes, to publicize the Players' Christmas-themed play, "My Three Angels," which will open tomorrow at 8:30 p. m. at the Tiburon Playhouse. The three are (from left) Donald Pickett, John Del Mar and Donald Birch. The "body" on pier in background is unidentified and unexplained.

Burdell, Lincoln School Discussion Scheduled

Trustees of Burdell and Lincoln school districts will continue discussion of students attending the same school at a meeting next week.

Trustees of both districts met Tuesday night at the home of James Grossi, clerk for the Burdell District, to begin ironing out details of a contract which would allow Burdell pupils to attend the Lincoln school.

The Burdell school was burned down by young vandals in November, 1958. Pupils have been using rooms in Our Lady of Loretto Catholic School in Novato.

If contract arrangements are worked out, pupils in the first six grades would go to Lincoln School, off the Petaluma-Point Reyes Road near Novato. Students in seventh and eighth grades probably would attend junior high school in Petaluma.

Both districts are in sparsely populated ranch areas. Each has an assessed valuation of approximately $450,000, Grossi said.

Trustees in both districts are aiming at an arrangement in which residents in each district would pay an 80-cent school tax rate. That is the present figure in the Burdell District. But the Lincoln rate is now $1.07 per $100 assessed valuation.

If a contract is worked out, costs would drop because only one teacher would be used for the two districts, Grossi pointed out. Five pupils are expected up to the sixth grade next year from the Burdell district. There now are 12 students at Lincoln School.

Novato Seeks Director Of Public Works

City councilmen authorized advertising for the position at their meeting Tuesday. Advertisements had been place months ago, but a change in administrators and councilmen requests for specifics on what the job entails delayed hiring.

City Administrator J. Julien Batet reported to the council that he hoped to be able to recommend hiring of a man between Jan. 15 and Feb. 1.

Councilmen approved re-advertising for the post by a 4-1 vote. Councilman M. E. (Babe) Silva voted "No" after hearing that about 30 applications had been received from previous advertisements, but that the top men had taken other jobs during the delay. He favored checking the applications already on hand.

Hub Restaurant Changes Hands

Don's Broiled Burgers at 306 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, which has been operated by Don Giovannoni of Ignacio, has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Camporeale of 2283 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael.

The new proprietors formerly owned eating establishments in New York City and Miami, Fla. They moved to Marin County about three months ago.

The name of the San Anselmo establishment will be changed but Camporeale said he had not yet decided on the new name. He said there will be several changes made in the menu.

Former owner Giovannoni said he plans to work for Hector Paris at Novato Joe's restanurant in Novato.

All America Says Welcome To Nation's New First Baby

It will be a wonderful thing to have a baby in the White House. We recall when Earl Warren moved into the governor's mansion in Sacramento and for the first time in many, many years, the "sound of little feet" resounded through the high-ceilinged rooms.

Now the White House will have to have a diaper-drying area.

It is fitting that our nation should have a baby in its first family. We sometimes forget that we are still a young nation. It is getting easier for us, constantly called the leaders of the world, constantly looking upon ourselves as the final word in practically anything, to think that we have arrived, that we are grown up.

But we're still young. We're less than 200 years old and as nations go, that's very young indeed.

But of course we have many younger brothers and sisters. Some of them, like Jack Jr., are only a few days old. This seems to make the older sister even older than she is.

If only the birth of this baby will remind us individually our nation has not reached old age. In the ease and opulence of our American way of life, we can't relax into retirement. We haven't guaranteed freedom for all even in our own country, much less throughout the world.

We're not talking about our foreign policy or our national goals. We're talking about our individual attitudes, our moral principles, our daily contact with fellow human beings. Our nation will continue to stay young only if our individuals don't become senile.

So we welcome the Kennedy baby, congratulate the happy parents and wish them all well. And in so doing, wish good fortune, too, to our nation and the world.

Get Those Bugs With Flowers

This is flea and tick season in Marin now and those of us with pets are kept busy with the flea powder and flea soap.

The common ingredient in these powders and soaps is an oil manufactured from the dried daisy-like flowers of three kinds of chrysanthemum. It is also an important plant spray for sucking insects.

Every gardener or pet owner has run across the name "pyrethrum" on the labels. For a number of years pyrethrum was manufactured in Iran and was known as the "Persian insect powder." Now most of it is homegrown in Southern California.

The next time you deflea your dog or spray for scale and aphids, think of all those little chrysanthemums growing in Persia and be happy.

MAKE HASTE SLOWLY

Switching drivers in an automobile hurtling at 110 miles an hour would be perilous even for experts. But a 26-year-old man took that fearful risk to avoid arrest for not having a license.

When he saw the police giving chase because of his reckless speed, he prevailed upon his younger companion (who had a license) to slide over and take the wheel.

Apparently his fear of punishment made him forget that he was exposing both of them and every other driver on that road to the danger of instant death.

The speedier a pace man sets for himself, the more care he must show in living up to the awesome responsibilities that God expects of every one of us in this jet-propelled age.

Too much is at stake nowadays for us to take needless risks that expose ourselves and others to catastrophe. The axiom that was taught by the ancients still has binding force for all: "Make haste slowly."

"Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God." (Matthew 4:7)

Don't Cry, Junior, Santa Claus Gets Just A Little Tired, Too

"Well, well, well—if it ain't the jolly Old Saint himself."

"Don't cry, junior. Just leave the lollipop in his whiskers. Mommy'll buy you another one."

"What do I want for Christmas? I told you when I was here last week. Can't you remember?"

"This morning we have 500 from the different kindergartens. This afternoon there are 600 from the nursery schools, and tomorrow things really start getting tough."

"I'm from the Fire Department. Do you have a certificate proving your beard has been flame-tested in accordance with Page 7, Section 2, Paragraph 3, of the city's fire laws?"

"That wuz me brother's list, Santa. Now let me read you mine, it's a lot longer."

"I know that uniform is pretty itchy, McGillicuddy. But it doesn't look right for you to be scratching while you're supposed to be listening to the children."

"When he bends over to pick you up, Sis, grab his beard and pull hard. Then we'll find out for sure."

"I'm the business agent for Kris Kringle Local 312. Have you got a card in good standing?"

"Hey, whiskers, which way to the men's room?"

"No, darling, he's not God, and he's not Moses. They don't wear red suits."

"P-S-S-S-T, McGillicuddy, is that you? Your wife asked me to give you this grocery list. And she said to tell you that if Santa Claus drops off at any bars on the way home tonight, he'll show up for work tomorrow with a black eye."

"I wish I had nothing to do all days but sit in a warm department store and listen to children."

"WOULD YOU MIND telling my son just one more time what happens to little boys who don't eat their oatmeal?"

"Sorry, but I'll have to ask you to turn in your beard, McGillicuddy. The psychologist in our personnel department has decided we ought to finish the season with a midget as Santa Claus. He feels the children will have more confidence if they talk to someone more their own size."

OUR NATIONAL GOALS—I

Growth Is Essential Key To Problems

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several hundred goals for the 1960s were set before Americans this week by a White House commission. Yet one simple, overriding, all-essential word told the story — growth.

Growth to provide at least 13.5 million new jobs, growth to avoid higher taxes, growth to support new multimillion-dollar outlays for research and education, growth to rebuild decayed downtowns, growth to arm more strongly against "grave danger."

Without economic growth, at a rate apparently not less than one-sixth faster than American production has increased over the past 20 years, the commission says some of the nation's vital objectives will be lost, its security and leadership endangered.

IN SUCH A CASE, said the President's Commission on National Goals, Americans are going to have to sacrifice —perhaps by tax increases, loss of leisure time, a slower rise in living standards, and unaccustomed controls.

The commission said it this way:

"If the growth rate is lower, it will impel consideration of higher taxes, increased quantity of labor and the greater individual effort and sacrifice exemplified by forced savings and reduced consumption."

This was the essence of the report filed with President Eisenhower by 11 distinguished Americans after 10 months of study. The White House released it this week.

ON THE HOME front, the commission dealt with many matters not tied directly to economic policy — breaking down racial and religious bias, reducing juvenile delinquency, and reorganizing the government, to name a few.

But the central theme was that the United States must make a greater investment—of both private and public money—in its own future, or it will risk the loss both of world leadership and its own cherished freedoms.

The growth goal was stated mainly in terms of jobs. The target, said the commission, should be the fastest possible rate which is "consistent with primary dependence upon free enterprise and the avoidance of marked inflation."

What will that rate be? The commission was uncertain. One careful study, it said, suggests that the total output of goods and services can be boosted by a 3.4 per cent a year — if unemployment is held consistently below 4 per cent and if a climate favorable to investment and research is maintained.

Yet equally careful studies indicate that a 5 per cent growth can be achieved "without extraordinary stimulating measures," said the report.

The average increase in gross national product recorded since 1939 has been 2.9 per cent.

The first task is to reduce joblessness from the October rate of 6.4 per cent to the commission's goal — below 4 per cent.

Then, over the decade, the economy must provide about 13.5 million more jobs than now exist to accommodate new entries into the labor force, 1.5 million farmers who won't be able to make a decent living on the soil, and an unestimated number of factory workers, displaced by automation and advancing technology.

The commission's proposals for insuring growth included many that will be cited in Congress next session.

Here are some of the specific targets:

EDUCATION — Yearly U. S. outlays must be doubled by 1970, to $40 billion. "The federal role must now be expanded."

The commission hewed to the line that education is "primarily a responsibility of the states" and shied away from an outright endorsement of federal aid for school construction. But it said that since 1787 the federal government has participated in the support of education "without destroying local initiative and responsibility."

TAXES—An "overhaul of the tax system" is necessary, whether tax rates go up or down, to improve the climate for new business investment.

The changes, said the commission, should include more liberal depreciation deductions on business and industrial equipment to encourage modernization and investment.

AUTOMATION — Technological change should be encouraged, but with careful advance planning to avoid hardship to those displaced by new machines and processes.

Where whole areas are left in distress, both state and federal governments should help provide loans and grants to assist the communities in attracting new industries and in retraining and relocating workers.

AGRICULTURE — Supply and demand must be brought into balance so that the market—instead, presumably, of federal subsidies — will provide farmers a fair return.

There should be "much increased retirement of farm land, with emphasis on whole farms." But federal farm programs, including price supports, will be necessary for some time to come.

CITIES — Slum conditions must be remedied and the process of decay in big cities arrested, the commission said. It called for more urban renewal programs "costing as much as $4 billion a year."

HEALTH—Among a dozen recommendations in this field, the commission called for further efforts to reduce the burden of the cost of medical care.

"Extension of medical insurance is necessary, through both public and private agencies," it said.

It also called for higher standards of unemployment compensation, without endorsing the effort of many Democrats in Congress for fixing federal standards.

REMEMBER WHEN

10 YEARS AGO

Marin artists took top prizes in the 1950 San Francisco Art Festival at the Palace of Fine Arts. John L. Howard of Marin City got two $500 awards and $100 awards went to Lucienne Bloch Dimitroff of Mill Valley and Irving Norman, formerly of Lagunitas, all for paintings. Edith K. Heath of Sausalito got $100 and Mary Lindheim of Forest Knolls $50 for ceramics. Keith Monroe of Sausalito and Edwin A. Cadogan of Kentfield won in jewelry and craft work respectively.

20 YEARS AGO

Repeated acts of vandalism at Tamalpais High School were blamed on football rivalry by Principal Edwin A. Wells, who told San Rafael High School that its student body must accept responsibility and make at least partial restitution of the latest $250 damage, or all remaining football games between the two schools would be called off. (This was later lifted due to confessions by 11 non-students.)

Describing construction in progress on San Rafael's Highway 101 viaduct a visiting editor, W. L. Netherby, said that "it points the way toward the freeways of the 1950s."

Even Santa Gets A Little Cold When He Arrives In Marin Rain

A bashful handful of youngsters were on hand to greet Santa Claus when he arrived at the Corte Madera Shopping Center in a heavy downpour last week.

One of the first in line was a reluctant little miss with blonde pigtails whose mother urged her to tell Santa what she wanted. She thought a while. "A stove."

Anything else? She thought some more. "A refrigerator," concluded the domestic-minded lass.

The boy behind her looked like her brother. What did he want? Some nails, he told Santa. More questioning revealed that he wanted a carpenter set.

It was a chilly, gloomy, wet day, but Santa smiled determinedly in his little green hut in the arcade. He should have a stove to keep him warm, commented a grown-up visitor.

"Maybe we'll get him a hibachi," said Bob Guelld, promotional manager for the center.

WE LEARNED of a new use for old Independent-Journals the other night at a San Rafael Board of Education meeting. On display was a large, handsome model of a horse, created by art students at Santa Venetia School.

The model was made of wadded up newspapers.

Incidentally, Santa Venetia's junior high students are doing all sorts of other interesting things. One group has been making a survival study and has learned how to recognize, prepare and eat edible weeds. The youngsters are hoping to spend a weekend camping at Samuel P. Taylor State Park to test some of the things they have learned.

SANTA VENETIA'S Principal Lawrence Geiger tells the story about the youngster who was having difficulty with his studies and finally got his first "A" the other day.

"Yah," said the boy, casually, brushing off the accomplishment. Geiger was almost to the door of the classroom when he heard the proud voice, attempting to be off-hand: "You want to see it?"

SAN RAFAEL BOARD of Education Trustee Willard Vernon had a plaintive request to make of junior high teachers:

"Will you teach in math and home economics what you do when you have a cake package that says use an eight-inch square pan and all you have is a round pan?"

Vernon and his fellow trustees spent some time last week pondering the problem of bus transportation for students—a problem made increasingly difficult by the number of high schoolers in Hamilton Air Force Base's Capehart housing.

The district can't afford to buy another bus, and Hamilton apparently has none to lend in the emergency.

"How about air transportation?" joked Chairman C. Paul Bettini. Helicopters might be the solution at that, if the Air Force can spare a few in the mornings and afternoons!

"How do I make it evident to people that sometimes I want to talk as a citizen and not as a city councilman?"

Independent-Journal:

As a resident of Terra Linda who will soon be called upon to cast his vote in an election to decide whether or not Terra Linda shall be annexed to San Rafael, I was very much disturbed by the impression created in a recent article in your paper.

It is difficult to tell whether or not the misrepresentation was deliberate.

In a front page article in the issue of Tuesday, Nov. 22, the mayor of San Rafael is quoted as describing the recent transfer of recreation lands from the Terra Linda Community Services District to the newly formed Terra Linda Recreation District, as "juvenile shenanigans in bad faith." Under any circumstances such a statement by one public official about others would seem to be in extremely poor taste, but in the light of the facts this statement appears even more irresponsible and misleading. These are the facts:

The first formal resolution of the CSD declaring its intention to transfer these recreation lands to a recreation district, if formed, was on Feb. 11, 1960, following many weeks of public discussion. This resolution was reported in your issue of Feb. 12. This can hardly be called "in the face of annexation proceedings" as the CSD's action was characterized in the Nov. 22 story.

This intention of the CSD has been the subject of continuous public discussion during the past six months as the recreation district was being formed for the purpose of receiving these lands. Formation of the recreation district was approved by 72 per cent of the voters at the election of Oct. 4.

During the recent campaign for the CSD Board of Directors, the three successful candidates all publicly endorsed this transfer and were elected on this platform. Thus, the voters of Terra Linda have endorsed the CSD's actions, not once, but twice within the past three months.

It is clear that the actions of the CSD have been entirely open and above board and in complete good faith. By way of contrast, if this is the type of leadership and cooperation which we can expect from San Rafael, then, in the forthcoming annexation election, it will not be difficult to decide how to cast my vote.

The high price of a good cook in New York produced a brand-new crisis in the home of a prominent merchant. The newly acquired queen of the kitchen made no move whatever to prepare dinner her first night on the job.

"Vera!" called the lady of the house, "why aren't you preparing dinner? We're starving!"

"At the salary you're paying me," replied the new cook loftily, "I don't have to cook in a hot kitchen. I'm taking you all out for dinner at the Colony."

Auction Of Unclaimed Storage Goods Set Saturday In San Rafael

Another auction of unclaimed storage goods comes up Saturday, this time at Pierce-Hardin Van and Storage, 26 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael. Time set for opening the bidding is 10 a.m.

Such auctions among Marin County moving and storage houses generally occur once or twice a year—this is Pierce-Hardin's first in several years and is likely to turn up a wide variety of furniture and household appliances as well as the usual collection of boxes, cartons, barrels, suitcases and trunks with contents unknown that challenge the venturesome to try for hidden treasures. Anyone's guess as to what's inside is as good as the next fellow's and the odds are somewhat better than table stakes.

A NEW BUSINESS which seems to be in the making, still without an offiical studio address, is that of Paula Antoinette Diele who lives at 550 Sunset Parkway, Novato. Under the trade name of Antoinette she designs original fashions with the Parisian touch and operates by appointment only.

Antoinette is a product of Belgium who recently arrived in this country with her husband, Sgt. S. Diele of Hamilton Air Force Base. She is a graduate of the Institut Superieur a Parmentier of Brussels and received post-graduate instructions under the tutelage of Dior in his Paris studios. She was later a fashion designer for Pascal of Paris. She speaks five languages and has already put on several shows in North Marin displaying her creations.

Undoubtedly it won't be long before the young lady opens a studio where they can be more regularly displayed.

NEW STAFF ADDITION in the escrow department of Trans Western Title Co., San Rafael is Donald Sheahan of Marinwood. He was formerly vice president of the Continental Escrow Co. in Los Angeles and more recently president of Columbia Escrow Co. in Reseda. His specialty is V.A. and FHA escrow work which he helped develop for Continental Escrow. Look for increased service in this line at Trans Western.

He is married and has a 3-year-old son.

MEMBERS of the Marin Builders Exchange who contemplate attending the third annual dinner dance at the Meadow Club in Fairfax Saturday should get their applications in now for reservations.

Others in the construction industry who are interested but not members of the exchange may also be eligible to attend. Call the Marin Builders Exchange for details.

COLDWELL, BANKER and Co. has now officially opened its new office at 1242 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, where it will offer complete service in residential, commercial and industrial sales and leasing. In addition to these normal brokerage facilities the firm provides property management and real estate loan services. Manager of the new office is Gordon H. Dohemann of San Rafael.

The company first came to Marin County about 10 months ago when it established a real estate loan department at 967 Grand Avenue in connection with its affiliation with Aetna Life Insurance Co. as exclusive loan correspondent in the states of California and Arizona.

It now has a network of 12 offices in San Rafael, San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Los Angeles, Beverly Hills, San Diego, San Mateo, Palo Alto and Phoenix, Ariz.

Seat Belts Called Wreck Insurance

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A pair of prominent surgeons say 10,000 persons killed in highway accidents last year would be alive today if they had used auto seat belts.

Drs. Murray E. Gibbens and Samuel P. Newman, in a paper submitted yesterday to the American Medical Assn.'s 14th clinical conference, that seat belts are like insurance.

"If you have them and don't wear them, it's like letting your insurance payments lapse," they said. "If you don't have them, it's like driving without insurance."

The report said studies showed "conclusively" that a person involved in a highway crash is 40 to 60 per cent "safer against death and injury" if he is strapped in with a seat belt.

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, Dec. 1, the 336th day of the year with 30 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Mercury and Mars.

The evenings stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1917, Father Flanagan founded Boys Town, the "city of little men" near Omaha, Neb., with a fund of less than $100.

In 1919, the first woman in the British Parliament took her seat as American-born Lady Nancy Astor was sworn into the House of Commons.

A thought for today: The Greek Philosopher Plato said: "under the influence either of poverty or of wealth, workmen and their work are equally liable to degenerate."

The Future Holds But Little Now For Once Popular Teen-Age Girl

She's somebody's daughter. I can't tell you whose. She tried suicide and almost succeeded.

She is just 16.

She joined a high school sorority 15 months ago. Supposedly it is a secret affair, but all the kids know about it. About 20 girls belong. They meet in each others' homes.

Betty's parents knew the club was illegal. They were warned of the risks. However, they wanted her to have fun. They told her to go ahead.

Last summer the sorority teamed up with a boys' fraternity. The two groups had several unchaperoned parties. Liquor flowed freely. Betty got drunk. On Labor Day weekend the kids rented a cabin on a lake. They had a house party, with no adults present.

Later that month Betty realized she was pregnant. She dared not tell her folks. Her father is a community leader. Her mother is an officer in their church. Betty knew how they would feel. She thought death by her own hand would be less of a disgrace than the arrival of an illegitimate grandchild.

She took an overdose of sleeping capsules. Fortunately her mother discovered it in time. Betty will live, and so will her baby.

The moral? Just this:

Don't let your girls join high school sororities or your boys join high school fraternities. Keep track of the parties they attend. Make sure their affairs are well chaperoned and properly conducted. Never allow any drinking.

Remember Betty, and be careful.

Retired Sausalito City Employees To Be Honored

They are Walter Washbourne, city gardener who retired June 1 after 14 years service; Ada Saline, assistant librarian, who retired June 1 after 17 years service; Paul Low, street superintendent, who retired Oct. 1 after 35 years service, and Mabel Wosser, librarian, who retired Nov. 1 after 23 years service.

The retired employees will receive engraved gifts in recognition of their service and copies of a city council resolution acknowledging their service, prepared on a scroll.

Other employees who will receive service awards from the city council are Fire Chief Mathew (Matts) Perry for 35 years service; Amelie Smith, city clerk; Ralph K. Pedersen, fireman; John Terris, assistant fire chief; Stanley Kelly, police sergeant, and Wilma Young, deputy city clerk, who have all served 15 years or longer.

The banquet and program, which is at 7:30 p.m., is being planned by an employees committee, made up of Pedersen, Tom Zink, William Hynes and John Rocha.

Sausalito Gallery To Show Art Works

The David Cole Gallery, Gate 5 Road in Sausalito, will present a group showing of recent paintings and sculptors beginning tomorrow. The showing will close Dec. 24.

Federal Commissioner Of Education Quits

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower yesterday accepted the resignation of Lawrence G. Derthick as U.S. commissioner of education, effective Jan. 19.

Derthick will become executive assistant secretary of the National Education Assn.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Human Rights Day Events Set In Marin

Two special events are planned for Marin County next week in recognition of Human Rights Day.

On Tuesday, the League of Women Voters of Central Marin will present David McEntire, professor of social welfare at University of California, in a lecture at 8 p.m. in Olney Hall of College of Marin.

McEntire will discuss "Residence and Race," the last of a series of studies prepared by the Commission on Race and Housing set up by the Fund for the Republic, of which he was direct or of research. The lecture will be open to the public.

On Friday at 8 p.m. in the same hall, the Marin Chapter, American Assn. for the United Nations, will present the feature-length, full-color film, "Power Among Men."

The film, produced by the United Nations, won the Robert Flaherty award for "most outstanding creative achievement in documentary films." There will be no admittance charge but a donation will be solicited.

Dec. 10 will be the 12th anniversary of Human Rights Day.

Forgery Suspect Booked At Jail

San Rafael police brought Richard D. Rodriguez, 22, from the San Francisco County Jail to the Marin County Jail Tuesday and booked him on a charge of forgery.

Rodriguez, who lives in San Francisco, is accused of cashing a forged payroll check for $101 at the Gasoteria, Second Street and Francisco Boulevard in San Rafael, on Sept. 13.

He was identified by James E. Brogan of 59 Bell Avenue, Fairfax, assistant manager of the service station.

Police arrested him after he completed a two-month sentence in San Francisco City Prison yesterday for joyriding and non-support. He was being held in lieu of $2,625 bail yesterday.

Asks Incorporation

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan announced Del Mesa Property Owners Assn., a Marin County group, has filed articles with his office to form a non-profit organization. Directors were listed as Barrett G. Hinds, 36 Hill Drive, and Dudley F. Miller, 25 Hill Drive, Ross, and T. C. Wellman, 1 Vista Drive, Kentfield.

Kennedy Picks Ribicoff, Williams

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy today announced his first cabinet selection — Democratic Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut as secretary of health, education and welfare.

In the same place a few hours earlier, Kennedy announced his selection of retiring Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan to be assistant secretary of state for African affairs.

Shortly after that he broadly indicated he had tried and failed to get Republican Robert A. Lovett, former secretary of defense and under secretary of state, into his administration.

The Kennedy disclosure that Ribicoff had agreed to head the Department of Health, Education and Welfare came late in the afternoon after the president-elect and the Connecticut governor had conferred at Kennedy's home for about 20 minutes.

Ribicoff's term as governor has two years to run. He was one of the earliest Kennedy-for-president backers.

The selection of Williams was the first announced choice of anyone for either a cabinet or sub-cabinet post. He was tabbed for assistant for African affairs, a post which Kennedy called a position of responsibility second to none.

Williams, who leaves the governor's office Jan. 1, was a breakfast guest. Lovett came in for lunch.

After the conference with Lovett, Kennedy told an impromptu news conference that his guest "has retired from active service in government."

Cuba Charges Missile Blast 'Provocation'

Rocket Destroyed, Fragments May Have Hit Island

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Cuba charged today that the United States deliberately exploded a rocket from Cape Canaveral over Cuba territory as a "provocation."

The Havana government organ Revolucion said 40-pound fragments plunged onto eastern Cuba yesterday after a malfunctioning satellite carrier was destroyed in mid-flight. The U.S. Defense Department said it could not "exclude the possibility."

Revolucion's bitter attack bore the implied threat that Cuban and Communist propaganda might be unleashed in a campaign to halt or hobble U.S. flights down the Caribbean-Atlantic missile range, the main street of American space research.

". . . the Cuban people and other peoples of America have been and are now being submitted to a grave danger from United States war experiments," Revolucion charged.

Drenching Gale Sweeps Marin; Ark Set Afloat

THE LOOK OF THE MORNING — This was the view through windshields as rain poured on Marin this morning. The particular windshield in the photo is that of Independent-Journal cameraman Dick Steinheimer as he drove east on First Street in San Rafael.

Less Rain, More Cold Forecast

A drenching gale swept Marin County at what should have been sun-up this morning, flooding streets and breaking trees and setting an ark afloat in Corte Madera Creek at Greenbrae.

Weather forecasts were for diminishing showers and winds with slightly colder temperatures tonight, and 30 per cent chance of more rain tomorrow.

TRAFFIC JAMS

San Rafael and other points experienced traffic jams due to street flooding while falling tree limbs not only interfered with traffic but caused a three-hour break in electricity supply in Bolinas.

A concrete ark broke loose from its mooring at 111 Greenbrae Boardwalk as the tide neared its height shortly after 10 a.m. and was floating out toward the bay until two Greenbrae Boardwalk residents, Charles Flynn and Howard Gold, boarded it and threw an anchor over the side to hold it in the channel. It then headed diagonally across the channel to ground on the other side.

The Army Corps of Engineers at Sausalito planned to tow it out of the channel this afternoon as a menace to navigation.

2.21 INCHES FELL

The ark belongs to Frank Winters of San Francisco. Neighbors said Winters moored it by the boardwalk sometime ago but had not yet anchored it on piles.

With a total rainfall of 2.21 inches for the 24 hours ended at noon today, San Rafael had a total for the season of 7.39 inches—well over the average of 5.87 inches to this date and far ahead of 4.55 inches last Dec. 1.

Soviets Orbit 'Ark' Of Animals, Plants

MOSCOW (UPI) — Russia launched a five-ton "arknik" spaceship loaded with two dogs and other living creatures into orbit today as a prelude to manned space flight, but there was fear the rocket would burn and kill its occupants.

A Russian scientist dampened jubilation over the heaviest-yet space shot by warning that unless it was brought down from its cigar-shaped orbit "very soon," it might hit the earth's atmosphere and burn into a cinder like a shooting star.

The dogs Pchelka (little bee) and Mushka (little fly) were reported in "satisfactory condition" as the huge rocket soared in an orbit that carried it around earth once every 88.49 minutes on a medical-biological research probe for space flight.

Its closest point to earth (perigee) was estimated at 111.94 miles by Russian scientists. Its farthest point (apogee) was 154.72 miles.

Vehicle Noses Down Cliff, Crashes Home

A driverless station wagon plummeted down a 70 foot cliff and crashed into a house at 23 Eucalyptus Court, San Rafael today, spewing glass over a table at which a family of five had just been seated.

Andrew Coomans, resident of the house in the Dominican area, said one of his sons had just called him from the living room to look at rainwater rushing down the street at 8:30 a.m.

HEARD NOISE

"I heard a rumbling noise in the rear yard, turned around and saw this car come smashin through the glass window," he said.

Chester Sipkin, owner of the car, told Police Officer Raymond Bleasdale he had parked the 1960 station wagon in his rear yard at 27 Eucalyptus Court while he inspected a drainage culvert.

"All of a sudden I heard the brake pop and saw the wagon roll over the hill," Sipkin said.

It skidded down the steep slope, ripped through the Coomans' patio, overturning tables and chairs, and rammed through their dining room window. The wagon halted with its bumper about a foot inside the house.

SECOND RUNAWAY CAR

It was the second runaway car in San Rafael in 24 hours.

At 2:45 p.m. yesterday, Mrs. Nancy Lee Gray tried to start her car in front of her home at 346 Santa Margarita Drive. It wouldn't start. She went into the house to call a garage.

She returned to find the car had started—it had rolled 42 feet down the hill, careened across the street and flipped over on its side in front of 350 Santa Margarita.

BAY AREA'S FUTURE

Much Urban Land Due Development

(This is the fourth of five stories digesting the voluminous report of the Army Corps of Engineers on the Bay Area's future, as it affects Marin.)

By RANDALL GOULD

By the year 2020 it is forecast that 65 per cent of potential urban land in the Bay Area will be in urban use.

At present, according to current surveys, "Marin County is the most extensively developed of the North Bay counties with more than 13 per cent of its urban potential land developed." Forecast is a figure of 62.9 per cent by 2020.

The quotation is from a new U.S. Department of Commerce book called "Future Development of the San Francisco Bay Area," based on Army Engineers' studies, which makes clear the opinion of its compilers that Marin, and especially South Marin, is due for steady population influx from San Francisco and elsewhere—a population looking for living space in an urban pattern.

For Marin, the word "urban" is shown to have specialized meaning which will be mainly residential-recreational rather than such uses as industrial and commercial to any large degree.

In contrast with Marin's present 13 per cent development of its urban potential, Napa, Solano and Sonoma have used less than 6 per cent — under four acres of every potential 100 urban acres having been developed so far in Sonoma.

Figures for 1958 population show that Marin with a then population of 136,800, only 3.9 per cent of the total Bay Area population, had 278 square miles of potential urban land which represented 7.7 per cent of the over-all potential. What this indicates is room to grow. A series of charts by 10-year periods conveys how the experts feel this extent of "residential and commercial land" — including relatively minor industrial-land areas — is likely to spread.

Marin residents pretty well realize the location of their present urban areas as shown on these charts. Geography limits what the future can hold, and future growth is anticipated to be a general process of swelling the present areas.

Progress will be rapid, the

DRUGS CHANGE SKIN COLOR, DOCTOR SAYS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Washington skin specialist produced evidence at the American Medical Assn. meeting today that drugs in some cases can make black people white or white people black.

The specialist, Dr. Robert Stolar, was accompanied by a white-skinned Negro woman, who did not identify herself but who said that under his treatment she has been white for 15 years.

Stolar said he has accomplished the same result in 16 cases.

Stolar stressed that he administers the treatment only to patients who have blotched skin such as cafe-au-lait spots or other "disturbances of pigmentation."

He said it has not so far proved possible to provide white skin for Negroes with no pigmentation disturbances.

The technical name of the drug used in the treatment is "monobenzyl ether of hydroquinone." It is used in an ointment which is applied externally.

To make light skin uniformly dark, Stolar said he uses a drug called "8 methoxypsoralen," which is taken by mouth and is followed by ultraviolet ray treatments to trigger its action.

Wives' Fury Explodes In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—White housewives became so furious today when six white children were slipped past their blockade into an integrated school that they began chasing bystanders.

They cursed, shoved, pummeled and kicked nearly a dozen assorted bystanders, including newsmen and elderly women, after white parents outmaneuvered them and boosted the attendance at William Frantz school to seven—six white students and a Negro girl.

It was the highest attendance at Frantz in the last six days of integration. But at McDonogh 19, three Negro girls were still alone in the building—the 467 white students at the school boycotted it for the fifth day.

The "cheerleaders," as police call the core of about 40 of the housewife heckling team that appears daily at Frantz school, braved bitter cold temperatures today but were frustrated from their prime objective.

Rev. Andrew Foreman and Mrs. Daisy Gabrielle, arriving about half an hour apart, got their daughters into the school by a side door opposite to the side where the "cheerleaders"

NEGRO CONGRESSMAN VISITS KENNEDY

U.N. To Adjourn, Await Kennedy

By TOM HOGE

The assembly, still in sort of a state of shock since Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's table-thumping antics at the start of this session, has not taken action on a single major issue in the past two months. It has given up hope of ending its business on the target date of Dec. 17.

Most delegates feel that the United States cannot make any hard decisions until Sen. John F. Kennedy takes over the presidency. They do not want the 99-nation assembly to reconvene before the middle of February.

Many hope that with a new U.S. president not bound by the commitments of the Eisenhower administration, the Soviet Union may take a more conciliatory position on its major conflicts with the United States.

So far the major accomplishments of the assembly have been the perennial decision to shelve Communist China's bid for membership and seat the Congo delegation backing President Joseph Kasavubu.

But other debates have so bogged down the schedule that night and Saturday meetings are set in the trusteeship committee and the assembly itself in a drive to clean up a bulging agenda of colonial issues before the recess in mid-December.

The assembly itself is confronted with a staggering list of 64 speakers who want a say on the Soviet proposal to abolish all colonies at once. This idea was proposed by Khrushchev during his four-week visit here.

Another of Khrushchev's ideas, a three-man board to replace Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, has not been made into a formal proposal by the Soviets. But Communist spokesmen have taken a lot of time talking about Hammarskjold and his secretariat in various assembly committees.

Still coming up for discussion are acrimonious debates on Hungary and Tibet, and resolutions by the Soviet Union and Cuba accusing the United States of aggression.

Next week the Political Committee takes up the question of the Algerian rebels' six-year war for independence from France. It is likely to produce plenty of verbal fireworks, with the Soviets joining in hot and heavy against the French. The Political Committee has indicated it also plans to go on a double schedule then.

Right now the Political Committee is discussing disarmament, a question on which its members would like to hear the views of the Kennedy administration. Most delegates want to avoid voting on rival proposals at this stage.

Winnie Takes Birthday Fete In His Stride

LONDON (UPI)—Sir Winston Churchill's doctors kept a close watch on their indomitable patient today for any signs of undue exertion arising from his 86th birthday celebration.

His physicians heaved a sigh of relief as Churchill, with the milestone behind him and his home decked with presents and greetings from all over the world, settled down to the task of recovering from a bone fracture.

The venerable statesman, who led Britain to victory during World War II, broke a small bone in his back in a fall 17 days ago.

Churchill got out of his special bed yesterday for the first time and sat up in a wheelchair.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Ship Still Aground

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. (AP) — Water rose higher in the holds of a grounded Liberian freighter today, and her captain indicated concern over the plight of his ship and the 14 persons aboard.

Twelve crewmen, Capt. Eduardo Trivizas and his wife, an expectant mother, have spent two nights aboard the Francisco Morazan in gale-lashed Lake Michigan. She piled onto the rocks off South Manitou Island about 32 air miles northwest of this Michigan city Tuesday night. The Coast Guard hoped the weather would improve enough today to allow rescue and salvage operations.

Archbishop In Rome

ROME (UPI) — The Anglican Archbishop of Canterbury arrived today on an historic visit during which he will meet in an audience of "friendship and courtesy" with Pope John XXIII.

Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, dressed in his flowing purple robes as primate of the Church of England, flew in from Istanbul and a tour of the Holy Land for his visit tomorrow with the pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church. It will be the first meeting between the spiritual leaders of the two religions since the Protestant Reformation 400 years ago.

Typhoon Rakes Atoll

TOKYO (UPI) — A late-season typhoon, packing winds of up to 160 miles per hour, roared across tiny Ulithi atoll in the Western Pacific late yesterday and flattened everything but a concrete U.S. Coast Guard Station, according to reports received here today.

There were no immediate reports of casualties. The Coast Guard Loran Navigational Aid Station has a normal complement of one officer and 15 men. Reports said there were about 450 natives living near the facility. The reports reaching here said Typhoon Ophelia wrecked every building on the atoll except for the Coast Guard installation.

More Ransom Found

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Federal Bureau of Investigation agents have found another $100,000 of the ransom paid kidnapers of sportsman Anthony Alessio. To date $182,515 of the $200,000 paid has been recovered.

Agents discovered the money yesterday in a Los Angeles apartment occupied briefly by Frank Marrone, 31, one of five arrested suspects. The money was in a panel on the inside of a refrigerator door. Alessio, kidnaped in San Diego Nov. 21, was freed unharmed after payment of the ransom.

Orders U.A.R. Out

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP) — President Joseph Kasavubu today broke off diplomatic relations with the United Arab Republic and ordered Ambassador Murard Ghaleb and all his staff to leave the Congo immediately.

In a letter to U.A.R. President Abdel Gamal Nasser, Kasavubu said Ghaleb had plotted to overthrow the "established authority" in the Congo and sought to encourage "rebel elements" — meaning ex-Premier Patrice Lumumba.

Prison For Ape Thief

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Robert Tomarchin was found guilty of burglary and stealing and sentenced to four years in prison by a jury last night for the theft of Mr. Moke, the St. Louis Zoo's talking chimpanzee.

Tomarchin, 28, admitted taking the animal, which can utter the words "no" and "mama," from a cage in the zoo last Dec. 21 and removing him to Miami, Fla. He sought to prove that he had a change of heart after selling Mr. Moke to the zoo for $1,575. He claimed the zoo had failed to live up to an oral agreement to give the animal special treatment and care.

Reason For Tardiness

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police officer E. A. Chitwood was late for class at an auto theft institute at Los Angeles City College. The reason: He was arresting the driver of a stolen car.

Flavorings Banned

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government today prohibited the use of safrol and oil of sassafras as flavorings in foods and beverages—including root beer and sarsaparilla.

The bottling industry, acting voluntarily, already has generally quit using them.

The Food and Drug Administration announced it was taking the formal action based on findings by a special scientific committee that the flavorings cause cancer of the liver in male rats. Under a new law, substances which cause cancer in test animals are banned for human use.

Trout In Gas Tank

WATERBURY, Conn. (AP) — Dorothea Loughran's car had been stalling off and on for the past month. Finally, after having checked everything else, garagemen removed the gasoline tank and inspected it. Inside they found a 7-inch trout. No one knew how it got there.

Nixon To Head GOP

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower has given Vice President Richard M. Nixon his personal endorsement as the leader of the Republican Party for the next four years, the White House said today.

Eisenhower tapped the defeated GOP presidential nominee as titular head of the party last night. He made his statement in a toast at a White House dinner.

He said Nixon would be recognized as head of the party for the next four years and would have his support.

Chilly Weather

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

It was bitter cold in northern Midwest areas and freezing in Dixie.

Skies cleared and winds diminished in the icy air across most sections from the Rockies to the Midwest. But more snow and strong winds hit areas in the Great Lakes, the upper Ohio Valley, western New York and northeastward into Vermont.

Shoot-To-Kill Orders Given In Havana

HAVANA (UPI)—Hundreds of militiamen with orders to shoot to kill suspicious persons prowled the streets here last night and early today, determined to prevent any repetition of the terror bombing which blacked out a fifth of Havana for 17 hours.

There was no immediate report of new activity by the foes of Premier Fidel Castro who killed his physician, militia Maj. Manuel Fajardo, in the Escambray Mountains Tuesday and bombed out the Havana electrical system yesterday.

The anti-Castro "30th of November" underground organization exploded 20 bombs in various parts of Havana during the pre-dawn hours yesterday, including one that wrecked an electric transformer, interrupting power service at 7 a.m.

Fajardo was killed and three other militiamen were wounded late Tuesday night in a clash with anti-government guerrillas in the Escambray range.

Church Fears Castro Will Close Schools

HAVANA (AP)—Roman Catholic Church authorities fear that Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government soon will squeeze their schools out of operation.

A top-ranking church spokesman, who declined the use of his name, said in an interview the "possibility that the University of Villanueva will be functioning six months from now" appears doubtful.

The informant suggested that the government may demand "indoctrination" courses in Cuba's private schools which Catholic institutions will not accept.

There are about 2,000 private schools in Cuba, 275 of them Catholic.

Castro recently attacked Villanueva as a "pro-Yankee" college. Opened 14 years ago as Cuba's first private Catholic university, it began the year with 750 students, a drop of 200 from last year.

It is financed mostly by donations and private grants, which have declined to almost nothing. Its unsalaried rector is Msgr. Eduardo Boza Masvidal, auxiliary bishop of Havana, and its administrative staff consists almost entirely of American and Spanish priests of the Order of Saint Augustine. There are 120 lay professors, mostly Cuban.

A university spokesman suggested that the Castro attack on the university fits into a pattern to undermine church influence.

He foresaw the definite possibility the government eventually will expel all foreign priests. Most of them are Spanish.

Palsy Organization Plans Yule Party

The seventh annual Christmas party for Marin's handicapped children will be held the afternoon of Dec. 18, at the Corte Madera Recreation Center, under sponsorship of United Cerebral Palsy of Marin.

A Christmas tree, Santa Claus, gifts, entertainment, and refreshments are on the program, according to Mrs. Robert Dinehart of Sausalito, chairman.

All cerebral palsy children in Marin and their families are invited to the party, Mrs. Dinehart said. Invitations also are sent to other handicapped through the Marin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Muscular Dystrophy Assn., Marin Assn. for Retarded Children, Indoor Sports and Marindale School.

Invitations also go to three sororities which aid victims of cerebral palsy: Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Gamma Delta and Kappa Delta.

'WOULD BREAK MY LEGS'

Mother Braves Mob Four Times A Day

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Mrs. Daisy Gabrielle says the mob of white women who abuse her daily "would break both my legs without thinking twice." But she walks through them four times a day so her child can attend school—a racially integrated school.

"People like these mobs will crucify and cut you to pieces," Mrs. Gabrielle said. "You have to have a tough hide to take it."

Mrs. Gabrielle has been struck twice walking her 6-year-old daughter Yolanda to and from the William Frantz Elementary School. The crowd of up to 50 women, called the "cheerleaders" by police, are trying to enforce a boycott of whites at the school, and Mrs. Gabrielle will not go along with it. So they line the walk, jeering and threatening her.

Sometimes Mrs. Gabrielle's husband, a 39-year-old meter reader for the city water department, gets off work early enough in the afternoon to see his wife and daughter home from school.

But even the presence of the police didn't stop one woman from shoving Mrs. Gabrielle and her daughter into a tree yesterday. No arrests were made.

"I don't think the women are going to hurt anyone's child," she said. "But I think they would break both of my legs without thinking twice."

Mrs. Gabrielle, 43, has received threats and been cursed by the women since Nov. 14, when Yolanda was left in the first grade at Frantz after a lone Negro girl began attending.

Only one other white child, the daughter of a Methodist minister, was in the school yesterday. More than 500 pupils quit attending Frantz in protest of desegration there.

"They (the "cheerleaders") want me to take Yolanda out of school so the school board will close it," Mrs. Gabrielle said. "But what these women don't realize is that it would be a catastrophe if all the schools are closed."

She said with better education, she and her family might be enjoying higher living standards. Mrs. Gabrielle answered questions while sitting on a battered, blanket-covered cough in the small living room of the family's low-rental housing project apartment.

Mrs. Gabrielle, who has six children, said she knows several other pupils at the school whose parents will take them to class if Frantz stays open.

"There is a danger of closing it now unless the enrollment increases," she said. "And the mob is out there to scare the other mothers into keeping their children away."

As for herself, Mrs. Gabrielle is "taking my stand on my rights as an American citizen."

Postal Confusion

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—If postmen puzzle over mail for Cross Roads, Ark., it's no wonder. The state has six towns by that name. There's a Crossroad, a Crossroads, and four Cross Roads.

Yule Pickpocket Warning Issued

He asked shoppers to lock their cars and stow packages in the truck while shopping.

Last Of Romanoffs Goes To Her Grave

It was a day of sadness for the remnants of Russia"s emigres who attended the burial of Grand Duchess Olga, the last of the shattered house of Romanoff, who died in a friend's home last week at the age of 79.

Bluebloods and peasants fought tears as the coffin of the daughter of Czar Alexander III was lowered into its grave sprinkled with Russian soil.

A dozen former imperial guardsmen, once dashing cadets but now well past their 60s, braced their shrunken figures to attention while two union jacks dipped to the bugle strains of the last post.

The funeral was for Olga, but to the 500-odd white Russians who attended it, it also was the funeral of an era that had been their way of life.

Olga took with her to the grave the last link of the Romanoff Czars, a dynasty which was born out of chaos and which ended in chaos, but during its three centuries of rule carved out modern Russia.

There was little glitter at Olga's funeral, however. Funeral services were held at the Russian orthodox Christ the Savior Cathedral, a small brick church located in a shabby section of Toronto.

The only signs of regal splendor were some purple drapes with the two-headed eagle of imperial Russia and orange, black and white ribbons, the colors of the Romanoff czars.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — A fireman's bucket brigade came to the aid of Mrs. Ed Hoffman and painted her house in four hours. Her husband, a fireman, died of injuries suffered in a fire early in March, so his buddies came to the aid of his widow. Mrs. Hoffman served the workers a picnic dinner.

charts indicate. In another 10 years the development of available areas of South Marin should be fairly complete while by 1980 the pattern of urban growth will have brought the San Rafael-San Anselmo-Fairfax area together with northern extension through Ignacio and Novato, while the Tiburon Peninsula will similarly have filled out quite fully. There is expectation of another bridge to pass across Angel Island.

Meanwhile West Marin's report-growth will have been forging along and urban character will be established by 1990 to group together Marshall-Point Reyes Station, Inverness - Olema - Nicasio, and points toward Petaluma.

The situation as of 2020 will make Novato part of a big urban strip running north out of Marin so that Highway 101 will be all urban with all the spread on either side that nature readily permits.

As for West Marin, now very little urbanized, this extends up the Shoreline Highway by 2020 most of the way up Tomales Bay well past Marshall, to be interrupted briefly with another considerable urban area centering on Tomales.

Bolinas and Stinson Beach are shown as much more urbanized. A new freeway leading west from Novato is expected to include two sizeable urban patches, one about the intersection of the Petaluma Road and another between that and the urbanization about Point Reyes Station.

What has been considered is the suitability of existing land for such development. No urbanization is in evidence, however, anywhere around Point Reyes-Drakes Bay area and the development of a national seashore area seems to have been considered likely.

Vast green areas of "public or reserved land" stand reassuringly undisturbed on the dream map of the year 2020. The planners are confident that no subdivider is going to level Mount Tamalpais, while vast stretches of North Marin will remain at least technically agricultural.

The text says that "in the North Bay area, greatest urban growth will occur in Solano and Sonoma Counties." Elsewhere it is indicated that a reason for this will be the saturation of Marin.

Tables forecast that by 2020 Marin will have 175 square miles of developed urban land of its 278 square mile potential already mentioned which gives the figure of 62.9 development of potential by that time. With less advantage and slower start the corresponding figures for other counties include Napa, 34.0; Solano, 45.7 and Sonoma, 44.2.

LONDON (AP)—Moscow Radio disclosed offhandedly today that Marshal Andrei Grechko was acting as Soviet defense minister.

Grechko is Malinovsky's deputy.

The broadcast reported talks between Field Marshal Abdel Hakim Amer of the United Arab Republic and Soviet military leaders and said Grechko participated as "acting U.S.S.R. minister of defense."

Other Soviet military leaders present were listed as Marshals Vassily Chuikov and Andrei Yeremenko and Adm. Arseni Golovko.

Malinovsky, a bulky battle veteran, was a subject of Western speculation during the Paris summit conference in May.

He followed Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev around like a shadow, prompting the feeling that political forces in Moscow had ordered Malinovsky to keep an eye on the premier and make sure Khrushchev did nothing that had not been approved in advance at the Kremlin.

Malinovsky was last in the public eye Nov. 7, when he addressed a giant parade in Moscow's Red Square on the 43rd anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution.

He said the Soviet Union did not want to attack any other nation "but should our peaceful soil be violated by the imperialists they will receive a retaliatory blow from which they will never recover."

Demo Party Chief Quitting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) announced today he will resign as Democratic national chairman, effective Jan. 20—inauguration day—or the next day.

He recalled that in accepting the chairmanship at the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles, he said he planned to serve only until shortly after election.

Garb Annoys Judge

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — County Judge Warren L. Finch ordered six youths wearing blue jeans to leave his courtroom and return today properly dressed. One was told to have his sideburns cut and another to remove a peroxide streak in his hair. Finch commented: "People come to court these days as if they were going to a barn dance."

'MAN, IT WAS GOOD'

Teeners Tell How They Liked Holdup

Donald R. Temple, 19-year-old confessed robber, was to appear today in Marin Municipal Court with the public defender to plead to the robbery charge. He is being held in Marin County Jail in lieu of $2,625 bail.

Temple, armed with an automatic, led four younger teenagers in a $177 robbery of Lagunitas Grocery Store Tuesday night, according to sheriff's officers. An hour later, they were nabbed in Novato with the loot, and an arsenal of weapons.

As sheriff's inspectors quizzed the five youths, bizarre and sometimes comical details of the holdup came pouring out of the mouths of the boys, aged 15 to 19.

"Man, it was good! The guy just put the gun on the table and said 'this is a stickup.' It sure went smooth—just like 'The Untouchables!'"

Before entering the grocery store in pouring rain, the boy with the beanie began putting shells into a .410 shotgun. Inspector Bowen Bridges said he learned from other members of the gang that ringleader Temple slapped the boy and told him not to load the gun. The ringleader is quoted as saying, "I don't want any loaded guns on this job."

They decided three would enter the store and two would remain in the car. They drew cards, with the highest three cards to pull the robbery. A 16-year-old San Francisco youth, who drew one of the high cards, began crying. So they had to draw again.

Just before the three went into the store, said Inspector Bridges, Temple told them, "Okay, this is a big job. You don't have to go if you don't want to. Remember, if we get caught, we'll get 25 years to life.

The boy with the beanie had been in the store earlier in the day to buy a candy bar and "case" the store, operated by 72-year-old Edward J. Lacy.

The boys said they decided to hit this store because the owner was known to be trusting and could not get around the store very well.

Lucy had a 12-year-old neighbor boy helping him at the store. The 12-year-old gave accurate descriptions of the robbers that led to their arrest.

Tomorrow Last Day For Exhibit Of Books

Tomorrow is the last day to view the exhibit of 600 new children's books on display at the county superintendent of schools office, 317 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

The exhibit is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Although books cannot be bought at the exhibit, Edith Potter, library assistant, will be available to answer questions and aid visitors.

Much-Arrested Man Faces Jail Sentence

Bernard Duane Montbriand, 23-year-old San Rafael laborer, who has been arrested about 20 times in five years, faced a jail sentence today for his second drunken driving offense.

He was convicted yesterday of driving while intoxicated when he led police on a 90-mile-per-hour chase from Corte Madera to San Rafael on Nov. 20.

Montbriand admitted he was driving with a suspended license and had driven off after his pickup truck struck a car near Greenbrae. However, he denied reckless driving, speeding, and drunken driving.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson found Montbriand guilty of every charge. Montbriand also has convictions for resisting arrest still hanging over his head. He was to be sentenced this afternoon on all of these convictions.

Montbriand, who lives at 228 Humboldt Street, San Rafael, had a prior drunken driving conviction last September. Since this is a second such offense, he faces a minimum of five days in jail on this charge alone.

During his trial yesterday, Montbriand took the stand and said he had had "considerable" to drink that night. He admitted he was "going fast" but claimed he was not driving recklessly.

He took issue with the police clocking of 90 miles per hour. "When an officer is chasing someone, how can they say you're going 90? To catch up, he may have to go 90, but maybe I'm going only 70."

Montbriand said he knew someone was chasing him, but he tried elusive tactics because he did not realize his pursuer was a police officer.

Slayer Rejected In Parole Plea

Duane Hall, 48, serving a life term in San Quentin Prison for the 1953 Mount Tamalpais slaying of Roy Kapphahn, 32, must wait at least another three years before he can try again for parole.

His plea for parole was turned down yesterday by the California Adult Authority.

Hall has already served seven years in prison since his conviction in Marin Superior Court. He made headlines on Nov. 15 when a fellow inmate stabbed him at the prison library.

Salt water conversion helps make electricity at Morro Bay. Ingenious PG&E engineers have turned ocean water into pure water for power plant boilers. Pioneered there in 1955, the remarkable ocean water converters are now being expanded as part of an $80,000,000 project to triple the electric generating capacity of Morro Bay Power Plant. It will be one of the biggest power plants in the West, turning out five billion kilowatt hours a year—more electricity than is used in Denmark, Ireland, Greece or Portugal!

Art-Garden Yule Sales Planned On Same Day

Three separate Christmas sales held annually at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross will take place on the same dates this year for the first time, it was announced today by Mrs. Norman B. Livermore, center president.

The Christmas Greens Sale sponsored by the Decorations Guild, the Christmas Sale staged by the Marin Society of Artists and the Christmas Cupboard, a project of Pixie Parents, all will be held on the center grounds during the weekend of Dec. 16, 17 and 18.

Also to be open during the same weekend is the Northgate Group's Antique Shop, usually open only on Tuesdays and Fridays.

Locations and hours of the various sales, all to benefit the center, and the items to be offered are as follows:

CHRISTMAS GREENS SALE: Decorations Guild Building. Preview party, with free refreshments 6 to 10 p.m. Dec. 16. Open Dec. 17 and 18 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wreaths, door swags, mistletoe balls and other articles of fresh greens; also Christmas decorative items of dried materials.

MARIN SOCIETY OF ARTISTS' CHRISTMAS SALE: Frances Young Gallery. Opening day, Dec. 16 from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Open Dec. 17 and 18 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sale preview, Dec. 12 through 15 from 2 to 4 p.m. daily. Original paintings, sculpture and other art work; craft products such as ceramics, jewelry and weaving.

PIXIE PARENTS' CHRISTMAS CUPBOARD: Decorations Guild Building. Home-made holiday foods. Open Dec. 17 and 18 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. during Christmas Greens Sale.

Heading committees planning the three sales are Mrs. Marion F. Ludlow of San Rafael, Decorations Guild; Mrs. A. W. Ralston of Fairfax, Marin Society of Artists, and Mrs. Charles Phalen of Ross, Pixie Parents.

Wife Signs Charge Against Husband

Clarence Edward Malone, 41, of 1409 Clinton Street, San Rafael, was arrested by his wife last night on charges of assault, battery and drunkenness.

His wife, Doris, told Police Lt. Jay Fletcher that her husband had drunk a bottle of whisky and then repeatedly slapped her in the face about 7:53 p.m.

The woman was bleeding from the mouth and from the cheek where a tooth had pierced the skin, Fletcher said.

After she signed a citizen arrest form, her husband was booked at the county jail. He was released on $630 bail to be arraigned in Marin County Municipal Court at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Because of its huge population growth, Red China reportedly is resettling great masses of people in underdeveloped areas of Sinkiang and Inner Mongolia.

Benefits Reaped When Subdividers, Cities Cooperate, Mayors Told

Cooperation between cities and subdividers means benefits for everyone, Niels J. Schultz Jr., Greenbrae developer, told the Marin Council of Mayors last night at the Peacock Gap Golf Clubhouse.

It means profit to the subdivider and benefit to the city, he said.

A city with a cooperative attitude will attract better financed and more willing developers, Schultz explained.

"The tax base in a residential community like Marin County can only be increased by bringing business in with residences as in the subdivision," he asserted.

To the developer, Schultz said, cooperation means a smoother operation. He can avoid costly start-stop procedures. "If both parties work together, economy is the result," Schultz added.

Schultz, a member of the Marin County Planning Commission since 1956, told some 45 representatives from the 10 cities in the county that the cities should try to make the best out of the future.

"Growth frequently means change," he said. "But the subdivider doesn't bring growth, he only serves it.

"The people have the desire, the developer is serving them," Schultz declared.

Schultz said some of the issues on which cooperation was needed between cities and subdividers are zoning (for example including a small commercial area in large residential development for profit to the developer), improvement restrictions (as requiring 43 to 40 foot wide streets in Marin County) and financing, which he agreed was primarily the responsibility of the subdivider.

Before closing the meeting, Mayor John F. McInnis of San Rafael, the host city, urged the various cities to enter into the joint powers agreement and join the Assn. of Bay Area Governments, of which he has been an avid backer. He said the association now has four counties and 49 cities and only one more county to become operative.

Incorporation Issue Raised

The Tiburon Property Owners Assn. board of directors last night revived the issue of incorporation of Tiburon with a resolution suggesting that the Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council consider undertaking a new survey.

Although several suggestions were made for means of raising money to finance the survey, no action was taken on a method, association chairman William H. Von Lackum said.

The last time the incorporation issue was raised on the peninsula was in August, 1958. Proponents finally dropped the project when the issue of money came up.

Personal debt is one of the fastest growing parts of the nation's debt structure. Family mortgage debt and consumer credit combined added to more than 176 billion dollars at the end of 1959; two-fifths greater than in 1955 and two and three-quarters times the figure for 1950.

PAULA DALY

Redwood Senior Gets DAR Citizen Award

Paula Daly, 17, a Redwood High School senior, has been named the school's Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen award winner.

The DAR winner is selected by the faculty on the basis of her dependability, service, leadership and patriotism.

Paula will receive a certificate of award from the national society and a Good Citizen pin from the local sponsoring chapter. She will take a history examination in competition for the district award, a $25 U.S. savings bond. The district winner may compete for the State award by writing a theme on good citizenship. State winners receive $100 savings bonds and their essays are sent to Washington, D.C., to compete for a national award.

Paula is Redwood student body secretary. She was the school's representative to Girls' State; was elected the female "all-around Redwoodite" by the senior class; was sophomore class vice president, and is active in the school honor society, program committee and self-government.

Modern Attraction

BALTIMORE (AP)—You know how it is on Sundays, when the kiddies go out to the airport to watch the big jets come in? Well, don't kid yourself. At Friendship International Airport one sunny Sunday, for instance, the eyes of young America weren't on the airliners. The spectacle they climbed on, touched, stared at and exclaimed over was a miniature, imitation 19th Century railroad locomotive in the lobby which costs 10 cents to ride.

Sen. Morton Sees Slim Possibility

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republican National Chairman Thruston B. Morton said today there was a possibility that exposure of "shocking irregularities and fraud" in the presidential balloting still could put Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the White House. But he admitted there was not "too much chance" that this would happen.

Morton told a news conference it was his duty as GOP national chairman to expose irregularities.

Morton made these statements at a news conference called to announce formation of a "national recount and fair elections committee" which he will head.

He said the committee was created to demand "an honest count of this election in every suspicious state."

NOVATO PLANS CITY'S FIRST BIRTHDAY FETE

Novato residents are planning a birthday party for themselves on Jan. 20. It will be the first anniversary of incorporation of the city.

A birthday cake and coffee will be served in the Novato High School cafeteria. A dance band will play in the gym from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. The party is sponsored by the Novato Chamber of Commerce, and underwritten by Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions clubs of the city, if admission charges do not cover costs.

Robert Merritt, manager of the chamber, has suggested that the five city councilmen sing "Happy Birthday to us" on the program.

"There has been a singular lack of enthusiasm on the part of the council members," he admitted.

D.A. To Ask Indictment Of Terrorizer

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety will seek grand jury indictments tonight against a convict who terrorized a woman and her granddaughter at San Quentin Village in 1958, and a Contra Costa robber suspected of stabbing San Quentin life-termer Duane R. Hall on Nov. 15.

The grand jury will meet at 7:30 in the courthouse to consider the cases of escapee Henderson McCoy, 32, who was caught in Chicago last September, and of Michael Eksala, 20, a Contra Costa robber who allegedly stabbed Hall in the prison library.

McCoy threatened Mrs. Bal B. Suttle, wife of the then supervisor of the prison furniture factory, and her granddaughter, 8-year-old Katie Hancock on July 23, 1958. The Suttles' home was at the prison, outside the wall. McCoy stole Suttler's car and vanished. Mrs. Suttle will come from Saratoga to testify.

After an unsuccessful attempt to give himself up, McCoy was finally rounded up among vagrants in Chicago, recognized, and flown back to Marin.

Warrant Issued In Dog Shooting

Joe Nerviani, who operates Joe's Boat Launching in Santa Venetia, is wanted on suspicion of "wilfully and maliciously" shooting a dog to death near North San Pedro Road last Sunday.

At the request of the district attorney, Judge Joseph G. Wilson yesterday issued a warrant of arrest for Nerviani, with bail set at $263.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Harold F. Wolters said residents of Santa Venetia complained to him that they saw Nerviani blast a dog to death with one shot from a double barreled shotgun "for no apparent reason."

For centuries men assumed the stars were ageless. But now astronomers believe some are old while others are young—that is, less than a million years old.

New Administrator Hired For Hospital

William W. Turner, a 42-year-old Georgia native who has been assistant administrator of a Long Beach hospital, will become the fourth administrator of Marin General Hospital next Feb. 1.

Selection of Turner was announced last night by Dr. Wilson P. Goddard, president of the board of directors of Marin County Hospital District, which operates the 104-bed hospital in Greenbrae.

PENCE LEAVING

S. Ames Pence, who resigned as administrator on Oct. 1, has agreed to remain until Feb. 15 if necessary to assist Turner in taking over the administration, Dr. Goddard said.

The board president said Turner was selected "as the top man from 300 applicants by not only the board of directors but by the three-man screening committee." The latter committee was composed of Alfred E. Maffley, administrator of Herrick Memorial Hospital in Berkeley; Harold H. Hixson, administrator of University of California Hospital, and Mel J. London of Ross, vice president of Calaveras Cement Co.

ON STAFF FIVE YEARS

Turner is now assistant administrator of the newly completed Memorial Hospital of Long Beach. He has been on the staff of that hospital and its predecessor, Seaside Memorial Hospital, for five years. Prior to that he was administrator of the Logansport, Ind., Memorial Hospital.

He was born in Atlanta, Ga., attended high school in Tampa, Fla., and holds a certificate in accounting from International Business College, a bachelor of science degree in commerce from University of Chicago.

He earned his way through college and served five years in the Army during World War II, entering as a private in 1941 and emerging in 1946 as a captain in the Quartermaster Corps.

Long Beach Memorial Hospital is a 400-bed, 65-bassinet community general hospital. Turner has been involved with the construction of the new institution, which particularly impressed the Marin board of trustees because of plans for building a 116-bed addition to Marin General Hospital next year, said Dr. Goddard.

Marin General Hospital opened in the spring of 1952 with Henry X. Jackson as administrator. He left in September of that year, being succeeded by William S. Weeks, who in turn succeeded by Pence in 1956.

Anti-Smog Device Called Expensive

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Paul Magill, industrial research scientists, warned yesterday that anti-smog devices for automobiles would cost California car owners approximately $950 million during the first three years of state control on exhaust gases.

Magill's warning was made in a report to the Bay Area Pollution control district advisory council.

Magill's report said the estimate did not include installation costs, nor did it include costs of a complex inspection system by the state which presumably would be borne by the general taxpayers.

The chameleon was supposed to be able to perform such prodigies of endurance that the Greeks were moved to honor him by calling him "chamaileon"—little lion.

Better Ranch Access Urged By Supervisors

Improved access to Highway 101 for the 380-acre Silveira Ranch north of San Rafael was recommended in a resolution adopted by the Marin County Board of Supervisors at a special meeting yesterday afternoon.

R. A. Hayler, district engineer for the California Division of Highways, promised to put the case before the State Highway Commission, but indicated that it would have to buck policy generally opposed to numerous freeway access points.

Hayler asked for supporting data as to what county road might be provided for such access, as nothing could be done for a private road.

"With the tax rate what it is, how long can they milk cows on that property?" asked attorney Raymond H. Shone on behalf of the Silveiras. "Development will come fast but we can't foresee just what it will be—but we know there must be access."

Shone explained that before the freeway, there were three access points to the main road. The state proposes to limit access to the portion, some 20 acres, north of Miller Creek.

"Certainly there will be additional study but there are points against it in our minds," said Hayler, whose view was supported by John S. Daniels, metropolitan district right of way agent. "We'll have a hard time selling the idea without knowledge of what road and where it will go."

With Supervisor Vera Schultz absent due to illness, all the other four board members took turns in arguing the unique merits of the Silveira wish for at least one access from the southern or major part of the property.

This is entirely different from other cases," said Chairman Walter R. Castro, who finally moved the resolution of support. "This is probably the most valuable property in Marin County, and what is asked is something that should be considered."

Tree Lighting Warning Given

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A warning on the hazards of decorating aluminum Christmas trees with electric lights was issued today by John F. Henning, director of the State Department of Industrial Relations.

Henning noted that aluminum is almost as good a conductor of electricity as copper, and said that if there is any defective or faulty wiring the entire tree could become an exposed "hot wire."

"The insulation on most Christmas tree light cords is not designed to be attached to metal of any kind," Henning said.

Other officers elected were James Gibson, first assistant chief; Gail Bennett, second assistant chief and Richard Reasoner, secretary - treasurer. Terms are for one year and effective starting today, according to OB Cavanaugh, secretary of the Stinson Beach Fire District.

Investigation Pushed On Prices Of Drugs

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Government anti-trust division attorneys today pushed their investigation of California prescription drug prices before a special session of the federal grand jury.

Don Bank and Gil Pavlovsky, the attorneys, said two major witnesses in the price inquiry had been subpoenaed for the grand jury's special session.

Marsh Pine, mayor of Chico and former president of the Northern California Pharmaceutical Assn., was one of three witnesses testifying yesterday at the grand jury's regular weekly meeting.

Banks and Pavlovsky said evidence already submitted to the jury indicates prescription drug prices in Northern California are among the highest in the nation. The grand jury is being asked to determine whether there is illegal agreement on druggists to keep prices uniformly high.

Pine, a part owner of the Lee Pharmacy in Chico, told reporters before his jury appearance, that prescription prices vary somewhat from store to store in Northern California.

"If prices are high in Northern California, it's because our overhead costs are higher than in other areas," Pine said. "Each store has its own peculiarities in setting its prescription prices."

Pine said his own store used the so-called Hedgpeth list—a scale of suggested prices prepared by Donald K. Hedgpeth, a San Francisco pharmacist.

Innocent Plea Entered By Van Doren

NEW YORK (UPI)—Quiz winner Charles Van Doren today pleaded innocent to a second-degree perjury charge that he lied in saying he never got help from the quiz show's producers.

Van Doren made the innocent plea despite the fact he has admitted before a Congressional inquiry that he lied when he told a New York County grand jury his appearances on the defunct show "Twenty-One" were not "fixed."

The former Columbia University professor's attorney, Carl J. Rubino, told chief Magistrate John M. Murtagh his client was "forced" to plead innocent pending the outcome of efforts by other winners on fixed shows to have the perjury charges against them invalidated.

Van Doren and 12 other winners on "Twenty-One" and "Tic Tac Dough" were called to court today to plead. Murtagh set Jan. 18 as Van Doren's trial date.

Nine other quiz winners on whose behalf motions testing the perjury information are pending in general sessions court requested and received adjournaments until Jan. 13.

Students, Troops Still Shooting In Venezuela

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Hard core leftists students, trading gunfire with troops, still held out in their self-styled "Stalingrad" dormitory at Caracas University today. Disorders spread to half a dozen other cities.

President Romulo Betancourt's moderate Socialist government cracked down hard on his leftist enemies in an effort to crush the week-long insurrection of Communist-backed pro-Castro rioting and student strife which has resulted in eight deaths.

His police grabbed about 250 persons in raids on white collar and other labor movements to prevent a bank strike and other threatened work stoppages. Communist headquarters were also raided.

The government said disorders, mainly rioting by high school students, had spread to Maracaibo, the oil center, Barquisimeto, Venezuela's third largest city, Maturin, Portuguesa, Puerto la Cruz, and San de los Morros, a health resort 50 miles southwest of the capital.

The eggs of the tinamou, a South American bird, are so shiny that the Indians often use them as mirrors.

San Anselmo Chamber Voting For Directors

Ballots were mailed to 65 members of the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce this week for the election of seven members of the board of directors.

The votes will be counted after 5 p.m., Dec. 7. The seven new directors will be elected to the 15-man board for two-year terms.

Nominated for re-election were Charles R. Banfield of Chapel of the Hills; Mozart Kaufman of Kaufman's Department Store; Sidney Braverman of Braverman's Furniture Store; Lee Busolo of Lee's Tune-up Service; Marvin Christensen of H. N. Christensen Insurance Co.; Richard Kientz of Kientz Bakery, and Samuel Miller of Safeway Stores.

Seeking a first term on the board are Paul LaPointe, Sprouse-Reitz Co.; Edward Nordmann, San Anselmo Paint Center; Robert Seeba, Wells Fargo Bank American Trust Co., and Paul De Martini, De Martini Owl Drugs.

He Misses Skunk Lands In Hospital

William Bonini, 23, of Tomales, successfully avoided a skunk in driving along Shoreline Highway a mile north of Tomales at 4 a.m. yesterday.

'Fashion Week' Opens At Renovated Macy's

With music, fresh flowers, and models parading the newest fashions, Macy's San Rafael today opened a holiday fashion week to introduce its newly remodeled fashion floors.

A trio from the Marin Symphony Guild was presented in a two-hour concert on the store's second floor beginning at 2 p.m., to be repeated from 7 to 9 p.m., tomorrow, and on Saturday from 2 to 4.

Informal modeling, on both the street and second floors, of the season's latest fashions will be presented through Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m., with additional evening showings tonight and Friday from 7:30 to 8:30.

Gay LaJoie, Macy's fashion coordinator, was in the gown salon today and will return tomorrow from 2 to 4 p.m.

In a renovation program for Macy's San Rafael, with total cost reported near one-half million-dollars, the street and second floors have been completed After the holiday season, the lower level will also receive the glamor treatment, to bring the modernization of all departments up to the "new look" of the upper floors.

With a new emphasis on fashions, Macy's San Rafael will carry greatly supplemented stock throughout all its fashion categories, including accessories, said William R. Costello, store manager.

The physical changes in the store also permit more convenient shopping, and all departments are positioned for easier selection, Costello said. For instance, all men's wear is now grouped in a street floor department with its own entrance. All sportswear for women and girls is on the street floor, with most of the necessary departments in close proximity.

The second floor ready-to-wear departments now include the separate gown salon, an expanded millinery department, a large lingerie and foundation department, and a new women's and children's shoe department.

Even apparel for infants, girls and sub-teens has been augmented in the new, roomy second-floor quarters, said Costello.

Oral Polio Vaccine Not Ready Yet

WASHINGTON (AP)—Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney said yesterday the Public Health Service feels that "we cannot expect to have an oral virus vaccine for use by next summer."

Burney said that in developing the recently approved vaccine made of live polio virus as distinguished from the Salk vaccine, already in use, there are still many problems to be worked out.

"These problems have been by no means resolved," Burney said in an address to the American Medical Assn's. annual clinical meeting.

Marinship Master Plan Wins Sausalito Planner Approval

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Under fire from property owners last night, the Marinship master plan nevertheless won unanimous acceptance of the Sausalito Planning Commission at a public hearing last night.

Commissioners spoke highly of the plan, commissioner Paul Micou saying it fulfilled the commission's demands for suggestions on Marinship uses, circulation pattern and development of the waterfront.

"The next step," Micou said, "is to develop the tools that are necessary to work out the opportunity that lies ahead for Sausalito in Marinship.

Murphy said three use permits, held up pending the plan, would be considered by the commission Dec. 14. They are the permits to build the Heath-Allied Grocers Shopping Center, the 75-unit Johnsen-Rischmuller Garden Apartments, and a brass and aluminum foundry by Sol Tyroler of San Rafael.

The Marinship Property Owners Assn., in a letter, asked for three changes to the plan. The association took exception to Allen's statement that the life of the Northwestern-Pacific railroad in Marinship should be measured in monhs rather than years. T.E. Schoonmaker of A. G. Schoonmaker Co. said he would continue to fight against abandonment of the railroad and, even if he failed it would be at least two years before service could be abolished.

The property owners proposed that the north and south artery along the railroad spur, when constructed, terminate at the foot of Spring Street. They also asked that buildings not be limited to a minimum of 32 feet.

Most vociferous of the five objectors was Adolph A. Tiscornia, who owns the property occupied by Federal Ornamental Iron and Bronze Co. and a vacant parcel of Marinship land.

Tiscornia, a San Francisco attorney and Larkspur resident, said he feared that if residential buildings were allowed, apartment dwellers might object to the foundry's noise and "we may be forced to get out of Marinship." He said Allen's proposal for a parking lot and depot for the rapid transit district constituted "a threat over my property."

Murphy told Tiscornia that the rapid transit district had indicated its desire to use the property, and the Sausalito City Council had approved this.

E. N. Kettenhofen, manager of the industrial center building, protested that roads proposed in Allen's plan would take a great portion of his land, much of which is needed parking space.

He said the plan was instigated by the three groups (Morgan-Pedersen, Heath-Allied Grocers and Johnsen-Rischmuller) in their desire to develop their own property. Therefore, they should pay the costs involved in such development, he declared.

Cecil Muller of Hercules Glue Co. said the proposed north-south artery belongs to the Northwestern Pacific Railroad. "The minute it is abandoned, the property belongs to the property owners. They're not going to give this property to the city of Sausalito," he said.

More Liberal Abortion Law Recommended

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The State Judiciary Committee has been told California's laws on abortion should be liberalized.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Zad Leavy told the committee yesterday that girls and women determined to end a pregnancy at present "are forced into the clutches of abortionists, many of them incompetent but able to become rich."

He said from 30 to 50 women each day to Los Angeles General Hospital are found to have aborted.

He contended that a change of law to legalize abortions for reasons other than saving the patient's life would not change the morals of the country.

Prison Escapee's Wife Arrested For Brawling

Martha Ophelia Giguiere, wife of a San Quentin Prison inmate who was captured after a bullet-punctuated chase through downtown San Rafael Oct. 30, was arrested for brawling last night in the Mission Inn Bar in San Rafael.

Police Officer John Kingston said he found the 28-year-old brunette sitting on top of J. B. Speegle, 30, of 14 Sentinel Court, San Rafael about 10:20 p.m.

Both combatants were jailed on charges of disturbing the peace and drunkenness, Speegle was also booked for two parking warrants. He was held in lieu of $135 bail to be arraigned at 1:30 p.m. today in Marin County Municipal Court.

Mrs. Giguiere of 111 C Street, San Rafael, was released on $105 bail to appear at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Police said she is the wife of Carl E. Giguiere, 35-year-old forger who escaped from San Quentin on Oct. 29, but was captured less than 24 hours later by two Hamilton Air Force airmen. He had threatened to kill his wife and seven children if anything went wrong with his escape plot, police said.

Judge Sims Will Be Honored At Dinner

A dinner honoring Judge Richard M. Sims Jr., who was elevated to superior court last Sept. 16, will be held tomorrow night by Tamalpais Post 72, Veterans of Foreign Wars, at the VFW Hall in Santa Venetia.

Irving F. Blabon of San Rafael, adjutant of the VFW post, announced that the dinner will start at 1 p.m. The hall is at 70 San Pablo Avenue.

Master of ceremonies will be Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court. Among honored guests will be Superior Court Judges Thomas F. Keating and N. Charles Brusatori; Municipal Court Judges Harold J. Haley and Joseph G. Wilson; County Counsel E. Warren McGuire; Walter Castro, chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors; Capt. Theodore Parnow of the California Highway Patrol, and guests from other VFW posts.

Mr. and Mrs. Blabon and Mrs. Louise Garies of San Rafael are in charge of arrangements.

'Arsenic And Old Lace' Set At Novato High

"Arsenic and Old Lace," the staple combination of comedy and horror, will go on stage at the Novato High School tomorrow and Saturday.

Al Arendale will play the part made famous by Boris Karloff, the homicidially insane relative shielded by two sweet old maids. Arendale has a special makeup committee assigned to make him look like Karloff.

Playing the sweet old ladies with a predilection for poisoned elderberry wine will be Sharon Jennings and Sue Obee. Teddy Brewster, who believes himself to Theodore Roosevelt, will be played by Don Klapperich. Duwayne Campbell plays Dr. Einstein, the evil doctor.

Mortimore Brewster, the sane young man surrounded by peculiar relatives, will be played by Rob Schultz. Alice Unwrath will play his girl friend.

Others in the cast are Ron Turner, Bob Sherman, Mike Anderson, Ron Green, Jim Temple, Hank Hankel and Allen Schaeffer. Linda McElry is prompter.

The play will begin at 8 o'clock each night. Tickets are available at reduced rates for all high school students

DEDICATING CITY HALL — There were not enough chairs for all the people taking part in the dedication of the Mill Valley City Hall in 1936 at which time the late Frank F. Bostwick (standing center) gave the address. Today, the final retired bond was paid off on the 25-year mortgage of $30,000. The building was built by Vincent Maggiora for $53,748 and ready for its first city council meeting in August, 1936.

BRITISH RAIL GUARDS PLAGUED BY SIX-SHOOTING MAIL BANDITS

LONDON (UPI)—British railway guards threatened to strike today because a band of train robbers has begun to operate using tactics normally associated with the "varments" in American western television programs.

About 150 guards met last night in the seaside resort town of Brighton and announced they would not work on fast trains carrying the mail to London unless they were given "adequate protection" against the bandits.

The guards said they were concerned with the ease in which the bandits have raided three trains in the past three months, getting away with valuable registered mail each time.

The robbers, armed with six shooters, have broken in mail vans, overpowered guards and jumped to safety when the trains stopped for a red light signal.

Marin Leads Bay Area In Crusade Fund Count

Marin's United Crusade campaign led all other Bay Area counties yesterday at the county's final Crusade report luncheon at Ondine Restaurant in Sausalito.

Marin's $140,876 represents 88.4 per cent of quota, announced E. W. Bullard Jr., campaign chairman, but $18,453 is still needed to reach the Marin goal. The Bay Area percentage stood at 84.3 per cent, with $9,480,010.

Two of the 10 campaign divisions were over their quotas: major firms (Byron Leydecker, chairman) with 113 per cent, and professional (Dr. Russell R. Klein and Hugh Allen, co-chairmen) with 107 per cent.

While no further report meetings will be held, Bullard said, solicitation will continue until completed. This week, he noted, has been declared "Hit the Top Week" throughout the Bay Area. Persons who have been missed in the solicitation are asked to mail their contributions to the Crusade at 801 B Street, or in care of the San Rafael postmaster, said Bullard.

Only seven years after the first prune-plum cuttings from France were planted in the state, California-grown and dried prunes were exhibited at the California State Fair in 1863.

City Hall Bonds Paid, It Belongs To Mill Valley

City Treasurer William G. Rutherford said the final bond was paid off today in the city's 25-year mortgage of $30,000 taken out in 1935.

At that time the city council passed a resolution for the 30 bonds of $1,000 each with an interest rate not to exceed 4 per cent. Matching funds came from the federal government's Public Works Administration.

Construction of the brick and tiled-roof two-story building began the same year, with the contract going to Vincent Maggiora of Sausalito on a low bid of $53,748.

To celebrate the end of the mortgage, T. Fred Bagshaw and Adolph Eberhart, who were members of the 1935 city council, both of Mill Valley, will be invited along with other citizens to a ceremony at the Dec. 7 city council meeting.

Rutherford said City Atty., Thomas C. Nelson has declared the mortgage cannot be burned in the city council chambers but that other suitable activities will be held.

Other members of the 1935 council were H. Walter Johnson, mayor; Ernest K. Little and Frederick Merriman. They have since died.

Dedication ceremonies were held Aug. 1, 1936. The late Frank F. Bostwick, president of the city's first town trustees, gave the dedication address.

Liz, Eddie File Suits For Libel

NEW YORK (AP)—Actress Elizabeth Taylor and her husband, Eddie Fisher, have filed 7.25-million-dollar libel actions against eight movie and TV magazines, charging them with character damage through "lurid" headlines.

The papers in the suit were submitted yesterday in State Supreme Court as the Fishers, in Paris, prepared to fly back to the United States today.

Louis Nizer, attorney for the couple, said they planned to appear in court in connection with the action. He set no date.

The suit accuses the magazines of acting maliciously and irresponsibly for the "crass commercial purpose" of stimulating circulation.

Named as defendants were Official Magazines Corp., publisher of Screen Stars; Interstate Publishing Corp., publishers of Movie World; Fawcett Publications, publisher of Motion Pictures; Dell Publishing Co., publisher of Modern Screen; Countrywide Publications, publisher of Movie TV Secrets; Sterling Group, Inc., publishers of Movie Mirror, and Ideal Publishing Corp., publishers of Movie Stars-TV Closeups and Movie Life.

Fatal Landing

BUENA VISTA, Colo. (AP)—State Patrolman Clem Wiechman stopped to investigate a stolen auto one night. He turned on the dome light of his car to make out a report. Suddenly there was a loud thump. Weichman found that a teal duck had landed on the hood of the patrol car. The patrolman theorized the duck mistook the reflected light for a pond and made a landing. The duck died.

Car Sitters

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Denver residents returning from Los Angeles report parking lots there have special sections for small cars. The sections are designated as "The Nursery."

THEY KEPT THE CAKE IN THE VAULT—The San Rafael branch of Crocker-Anglo National Bank, celebrating the bank's 90th birthday yesterday, locked a cake in the vault until the proper moment for its cutting. Checking watches to see whether the time's arrived are, beyond the vault door, bank manager Byron W. Leydecker, president Fred F. Enemark of Marin Industrial Development Foundation, Mayor John F. McInnis and Supervisor Chairman Walter R. Castro. (Ken Molino photo)

Crocker-Anglo Celebrates 90th Birthday

Three of Marin County's civic leaders joined yesterday in helping Crocker-Anglo National Bank celebrate its 90th anniversary.

In connection with observances throughout the 93 branches in the system, ceremonies were held here at the San Rafael Office at 409 Third Street. Participating were Walter R. Castro, chairman of the county board of supervisors; Fred F. Enemark, president of Marin Industrial Development Foundation, and John F. McInnis, mayor of San Rafael.

Also marking the occasion were officers of the branch, including Byron W. Leydecker, assistant vice president and manager, and Theodore B. Craig, assistant manager.

A large candle-covered cake was cut and served to the dignitaries, bank personnel and customers.

Crocker-Anglo, which is California's oldest national bank, has its roots in the history of Northern and Central California. Its origin was in several private banking houses which flourished during Gold Rush days, but it was officially chartered in 1870 as the First National Gold Bank of San Francisco.

Rail-Utilities Group Elects Ross Resident

Peter E. Mitchell of Ross, member and former president of the California Public Utilities Commission, yesterday was elected president of the National Assn. of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners at its annual conference in Las Vegas, Nev.

Mitchell becomes the second Marinite to head the national organization. Justus F. Craemer of Kent Woodlands, who was then also president of the California PUC, headed it in 1949.

The Ross resident succeeds George R. Perrine of Chicago in the presidency.

Mitchell, a former Sacramento city councilman, has been a member of the California PUC since 1951, and was its president from May, 1954, to June, 1958.

He was born and reared in Sacramento and was in business there for 21 years. He served 10 years as a city councilman.

In 1948, he was appointed by Gov. Earl Warren to the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board. In January, 1951, Warren named him to the PUC, to which he was appointed for a second six-year term in 1957.

Mitchell and his wife reside on Fernhill Avenue in Ross. A daughter, Mary Louise, is a teacher, and a son, Peter E. Jr., is a student at St. Mary's College, which his father also attended.

was plenty. Second Street was flooded from A Street to Francisco Boulevard. Three major intersections with Lincoln Avenue at Second, Third and Fourth Streets were all coverd with water.

Norris Rawles, San Rafael public works supervisor, said the city suffered no real damage but a lot of inconvenience.

Woodland Avenue was closed between 10 and 11 a.m. from Du Bois Street to Irwin Street in the Bret Harte area because high tide flooded the street to about 10 inches depth.

Rawles reported minor mud slides in the Dominican area on Highland and Deer Park Avenues, but the streets were not closed.

There were many reports of "bubbling up" of manhole covers of sewers.

Deepest water at main intersections, Rawles said, was at Second and Lindaro Streets and Third Street and Grand Avenue, both at seven inches.

Headlights were in use everywhere until after 9 a.m.

Novato registered 1.24 inches of rain between midnight and 9 a.m. today, making 1.78 inches since the previous midnight.

Five calls had been received by the Novato City Hall by 9:15 a.m. complaining of floods at 1032 and 1036 Sixth Street, 67 Western Drive, a plugged culvert on Alice Street and fill sliding into backyards of a new housing tract.

A tree limb blew across a power line at 6 a.m. in Bolinas at Terrace and Brighton Avenues, causing the community to be without electricity for more than three hours. Ralph Brisbin, assistant supervisor of Marin District for Pacific Gas and Electric Co., said repairs were complete and power on again at 9:15 a.m.

A madrone tree blew down across Hillcrest Avenue in Larkspur. In Mill Valley a tree had fallen at 1 p.m. yesterday near 289 Tamalpais Avenue, blocking the street for half an hour.

Tiburon firemen were called to the home of Mrs. A. Soriano at 750 Hilary Drive, Strawberry, at 6:30 a.m. because water overflowing from a culvert was running into her garage. Firemen assisted a county street crew in clearing the culvert.

A man at 235 Bridgeway, Sausalito, told Brown that due to new sewer construction his front yard had washed out.

"Water is finally starting to build up in our reservoirs," was the report from William Seeger, general manager for Marin Municipal Water District. He added that the new Nicasio reservoir is "starting to take water."

Other rainfall records included: Woodacre 1.76 inch, Point Reyes Station 1.60, Tamalpais Valley 1.65; Muir Woods 1.61; Chevy Chase in Larkspur 1.94.

Throughout northern California the storm took heavy toll. One death was caused near Half Moon Bay when an 80-mile gust took off a barn roof which struck and killed Roger Lohsen, 35, a ranch worker. As rescuers worked, a water tank on a hilltop collapsed and sent a torrent of water down on them.

"We sure did run them off," remarked one of the cheerleaders after they had attacked Goldfinch, the elderly women and the newsmen.

The Louisiana legislature, considering bills to set up funds for white children who want to go to private schools, met briefly today and then adjourned until tomorrow.

The legislature, disgruntled over a federal court ruling yesterday knocking away the foundations of its fight against integration, also was reportedly about to be asked by Gov. Jimmie Davis to go into another 30-day special session.

Student Council Sets Work Party

The Bel Aire School student council, representing fourth through sixth grades, is enlisting the aid of fathers to assist landscaping and site improvements on the school grounds Saturday and Dec. 10.

Teams of students will weed ivy and plant bulbs while fathers plant shrubs and trees and construct benches, President Norman Hantzsche of the student association said.

"If it rains we will wait until the 10th to start," Norman said. Fathers in charge are Kenneth J. Wolfersperger and Clark Holmes.

Meeting Planned

The Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District board will hold its next meeting on Dec. 27, the regular date Monday Dec. 26, being a legal holiday, chairman Loren L Jay said.

Inverness Man Wins Divorce

Wayne M. Peterson, operator of West Marin Pharmacy in Inverness, who complained that his wife, Naomi Ruth, left him for parts unknown last March 18, has won a divorce in Marin Superior Court.

A property settlement, approved by Judge Richard M. Sims, gives him the pharmacy business, property and household furnishings at Point Reyes, 1960 Mercedes Benz automobile, and property in Ben Lomond, Santa Cruz County.

She gets $9,800 cash as her share of community property and half the profit from the sale of the Ben Lomond property.

Governor Asserts 'Force Of Law' Needed To Save Lives In Traffic

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Traffic safety slogans may be clever, but they don't necessarily save lives.

What's really needed to reduce the toll of highway deaths in California is "the force of the law," Gov. Edmund G. Brown told some 200 delegates at his annual traffic safety conference Wednesday.

And in response to his plea for help "in this essential program of legislation for life," state officials came forward with several suggestions.

Dr. Irma West of the Public Health Department, noting that auto accidents are by far the leading cause of death for Californians between the ages of 15 and 34, suggested special safety devices.

"Many Californians have been needlessly disabled or killed for lack of one safety belt costing $15," she said. "Others have permanently smashed faces which would not have occurred if the dashboard in the car in which they were riding was padded."

Health agencies, Dr. West added, could play a leading role in setting medical standards for driver licensing and in other accident prevention.

Commissioner Bradford Crittenden of the California Highway Patrol echoed Dr. West's comments on safety belts. He suggested requiring all cars sold in the state to come equipped with floor bolts for belt installation.

Crittenden said, too, that officers should be allowed to confiscate licenses in certain circumstances, that state use of radar be authorized, and that the state expand commercial vehicle inspection.

Additionally, he called for increased research, tighter drunk driving laws and more highway patrolmen.

Motor Vehicles Director Robert McCarthy said he didn't need more men, but that he'd continue his crackdown on drunk drivers, automatically suspending for six months the license of anyone convicted for the first time.

Responding to criticism from some judges and legislators, he said, however, that he didn't care whether the suspensions were imposed by himself or the courts—as long as they remained mandatory.

Brown, under whose direction the crackdown was started 17 months ago, said he hadn't had time to analyze changes suggested in this and other phases of his traffic safety program.

John R. Eales of the Education Department noted statistics showing that trained drivers have fewer accidents and cited reports urging a strengthening and broadening of state-supported driver education.

Finally, J. W. Trask, deputy state highway engineer, reported that state engineers follow up accidents to determine possible corrective construction.

But despite these and other programs, such as the new 65 miles an hour speed limit, "obviously we haven't done enough," Brown commented.

Last year, he noted, 3,588 Californians were killed in traffic accidents and 143,634 injured—12,000 of them permanently disabled. The cost: More than a half-billion dollars.

And by Dec. 31, Brown added, California again will lead the nation in traffic deaths—an estimated 3,750 for the year.

Credit Excellent, So State To Issue Bonds For Schools

SACRAMENTO (AP) — State Treasurer Bert A. Betts, saying California's credit is excellent, today announced plans to offer 95 million dollars of state school building bonds for sale Jan. 11.

Betts said sale of the school bonds, the last of the $220 million dollars in school bonds authorized by the voters in 1958, would not be affected by approval Nov. 8 of the 1.75-billion-dollar state water bond issue.

He said the first of the water bonds won't go on sale until 1963, and the total issue will be sold over a period of 20 years.

The school bonds will be used to make loans to local districts for school construction.

Ballot Check May Change Illinois Vote

CHICAGO (AP) — Will the recheck of ballots in Chicago have any effect on the presidential election?

That question loomed larger today in the wake of Gov. William G. Stratton's statement that the Illinois Electoral Board may not certify the state's 27 Democratic electors if "strong and tangible" evidence of vote frauds is presented.

The board's function is to canvass the vote reports from the state's 102 counties and make an official proclamation of the results.

Reports from the 102 counties show President-elect John F. Kennedy is entitled to the electoral votes on the basis of his defeat of Richard M. Nixon by 8,849 votes.

Across the nation, Kennedy has 300 electoral votes. If the 27 from Illinois were withheld, he still would have 273—four more than the 269 required, if there are no shifts elsewhere.

Stratton, who lost in his bid for re-election, made his statement yesterday at a news conference in Springfield. The board is expected to meet there next week. Unless there is a hitch, the electoral votes will be cast there Dec. 19.

The Chicago Board of Election Commissioners went into its third day of checking 486,000 paper ballots cast in 863 precincts in the Nov. 8 election.

Until 1955 Wales had no capital city. Then Home Secretary Gwilym Lloyd-George, son of former British Prime Minister David Lloyd-George, announced Cardiff as the Welsh capital.

WOMAN TALKS UP IN COURT, GETS PASS KEY INTO JAIL CELL

A San Anselmo woman talked herself into jail yesterday by making some unsolicited comments in court.

Robert Houghton Hallock, 38, of 51 Scenic Avenue, San Anselmo, was taken to court by Asst. Police Chief Sam Serio of San Anselmo on charges of writing $45 in worthless checks at Lucky Store in Fairfax and paying his rent with a bad check for $85. The checks were passed Nov. 12 to 14.

As Judge Joseph G. Wilson continued the case for a day and began setting bail at $3,150, a woman in the back of the coutroom jumped up and declared she had contacted an attorney to represent Hallock.

"Who are you?" asked Judge Wilson.

"I'm the one who passed the checks, which he gave me not knowing they were no good," she replied.

"You're arrested on a charge of conspiracy to pass bad checks," said Serio, as he booked Eleanor Church Knapp, 40, also of 51 Scenic Avenue, San Anselmo.

Both Hallock and Mrs. Knapp were scheduled to show up in court today.

Open House Slated At New Marin City Apartments

Three separate dwelling units will be open for inspection of the public at the newly completed five-story apartment buildings at Marin City from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Units available will include an occupied two-bedroom unit furnished by the tenant. There will be a three-bedroom unit furnished partially by the housing authority but mainly with furniture upholstered and refinished by tenants who have taken part in the weekly upholstery class sponsored by the Marin Council of Community Services. A third unit, a one-bedroom, will be unfurnished.

All units are in the so-called "high rise" buildings on Drake Avenue and, executive director Bert Klahn said, buildings will be clearly marked to direct people to those being shown at the open house.

The St. Lawrence Seaway accommodates ships up to 750 feet long with 75-foot beam and about a 25-foot draft.

Church Music Recital Set At Seminary

Milton Martin, a student of church music at the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, will be presented in a recital of sacred hymns by the seminary's church Music department at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Broadus Hall on the campus.

Martin is a student of Dr. Carlyle Bennett, head of the department, and is tenor soloist for the Seminary Oratorio Choir presentation of Handel's "The Messiah," to be given Dec. 6-8. He is minister of music at the First Baptist Church in Manteca.

Included on his program are "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings," Liddle; "Every Valley Shall Be Exalted," (from "The Messiah"), Handel; "My Soul Is Athirst for God," (from "The Holy City"), Gaul; and "If With All Your Hearts," (from "The Elijah"), Mendelssohn.

The recital, which is open to the public, is a requirement for the master of church music degree. Mrs. George Suffern, Golden Gate music instructor, is accompanist.

Memorial Fishing Pier Work To Start Soon

Construction of the Robert B. Keener Memorial fishing platform is expected to begin as soon as the rains permit on the Tiburon Peninsula's Elephant Rock.

The platform will be available as a fishing place for children of 16 and under. The idea originated with supervisor-elect J. Walter Blair, following the tragic death of yound Robert Keener, who was crushed while fishing off the Northwestern Pacific Railroad Pier in Tiburon.

Following Blair's suggestion, a committee of Tiburon Peninsula residents banded together to solicit donations for construction of the pier. It will be a circular platform around the Tiburon landmark, which is about 70 feet offshore. A catwalk will lead out to it, Blair said.

Real estate developer Milton M. Tonini is allowing the use of the rock for the children's fishing area. Tiburon property owner Fred G. Zelinsky is chairman of the construction committee. Fred F. Enemark of San Rafael is vice chairman, and Howard J. Langford, treasurer.

The Tiburon Peninsula Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the project and its chairman, Robert A. Sterling, is working with the committee.

Broker Asks $40,000 Fee In Land Deal

James P. Stuart, Sausalito real estate broker, is suing for a $40,000 fee which he claims is owed him by the Fagundes family, which owns large land holdings north of San Rafael.

The suit, filed in Marin Superior Court yesterday, names as defendants Manuel J. Fagundes of Napa, Joseph A. Fagundes of San Anselmo, Mary Killough of San Francisco, Rose F. Mellen of San Rafael, and Anthony J. Fagundes of San Rafael.

Stuart contends he helped the Fagundes family get rezoning from agricultural to commercial for land at Highway 101 and Lucas Valley Road in 1956. In working for the rezoning, Stuart says he got a letter from the Emporium-Capwell Co. of San Francisco, indicating the company's intent to open a store at a shopping center on the property.

Seventy acres of the property were later sold by the family to Billings-Hutchison Inc. for $542,000, says Stuart. He seeks a $40,000 feet, which he claims is a reasonable amount for the services he rendered.

Some members had proposed the festival be dropped in favor of other community activities. Gates said 17 members met Tuesday and decided unanimously to continue the festival.

Suggested changes are: More emphasis on the art show; starting the queen's contest in the spring instead of fall, and farming out some portions of the festival to service organizations.

School Plan Check By Citizens Urged

By ELLEN BRY

Architects and Novato school officials agreed last night that they would "welcome" a citizen committee to check school plans before construction.

In a two and one-half hour discussion session, they went on to outline the problems of school construction, and point out there are not easy answers. Novato voters recently approved a $1,500,000 bond issue and $2,500,000 state loan for school construction in the rapidly growing district.

The meeting last night was sponsored by the Novato Advisory Council for Education, a citizen group. Only 18 persons sloshed through rain to hear the speakers in the Novato High School cafeteria.

The suggestion for a citizen committee to check school plans came from Novato builder Reuben Kaehler, who suggested a "qualified committee."

Earl Marshall, chairman of the board of the unified district, and W. J. J. Smith, superintendent, agreed they would welcome such a committee to check specifications and needs against plans.

Architect John Lyon Reid noted that citizen groups have been found to "benefit the building." Reid is of the San Francisco architectural firm of Reid, Rockwell, Banwell and Tarics, designers of Novato schools.

Reid, his associate Richard Banwell, and Charles Rose, president of Inland Pacific Construction Co. in San Francisco, went on to agree that the oft-suggested standard or similar design for schools is usually not practical.

Seldom are the same numbers of classrooms needed; the proportion of various age groups is continually shifting resulting in varying building requirements; geography is different from school to school; needed access—to play areas, streets, corridors—shifts with geography.

Banwell said he does not rule out the possibility of reusing plans, but noted that one plan might be useful only for one or two years, when changed ideas and construction materials would make it outdated.

"I can't even lay down the rules for reusing plans," he said.

Savings can be made by standardizing lighting in a unit, or standardizing hardware and bathroom fixtures, but even this cannot be carried too far, Reid and Rose said.

Builder and architects noted the spiraling cost of "mechanical" end of school construction: the heating, plumbing and electrical side of building which takes at least 30 per cent of total construction cost.

Rose questioned whether schools were not requiring too fine and costly equipment "just because it's a school we're talking about."

Reid suggested "lowering a little bit, with good judgment, the standard of comfort in schools." He pointed out the trend to air conditioning and said that in 10 years Novato schools would have air conditioning.

"I'm in favor of that if the school plant could be used 12 months a year," said Jerome Gilbert, manager of the North Marin Water District and another panelist in the discussion.

But superintendent Smith asked if the trend to better and more costly artifical environment might not be the right aim—"to reduce it to an automatic level" so learning could be the primary consideration.

Architects, builders and school officials went on to note:

1. The school district must decide where to balance construction cost (with bond service charges) and maintenance cost through the years (from tax funds), saying higher cost on one side often means lower cost on the other.

2. School officials and architects are aiming at the same thing: a functional design, study building and attractiveness.

3. "Quantity, quality and budget are the three items which often don't quite meet" in planning schools.

By ROY JOHNSTON

The combined voices of the San Francisco Theological Seminary's A Capella Choir and the Marin Chorale, under direction of Dr. John Milton Kelly, presented the Christmas portion of Handel's "The Messiah" last night at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo.

The combined choirs performed as one under Dr. Kelly's capable leadership and had the weight of tone in each section so vital to the choruses which required solid mass of sound, such as "And He Shall Purify" and the "Hallelujah Chorus."

In the more lyrical passages, the choirs attained the fine purity of sound and line. Cleanness of attack and intonation showed thorough preparation.

The four soloists negotiating the florid passages with style were soprano Marion Swartz, contralto Dorothy Rowland, tenor Ralph Peterson and bass Elmer Maryatt.

Faith Yost France at the piano and Wilbur F. Russell at the organ provided excellent accompaniment for the singers but at no time allowed the instruments to dominate.

All in all it was a very smooth perforance and an inspiring start of the Christmas season for the near-capacity audience in attendance.

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Police say a local cobbler's shop wasn't paying enough attention to soles and heels. The owner and his assistant were arrested for bookmaking.

NEW POST—Barry L. Adams of 563 San Rafael Avenue, Belvedere, has been named district sales for a new Matson Lines passenger office to open in Seattle, Wash., Monday. Adams moved to Belvedere a year ago when he was made assistant to the Hawaii passenger service sales manager in San Francisco.

Brought Fire In

A fire was brought to the main Tiburon fire station yesterday by Virgil Murphy of 208 Reed Boulevard, Mill Valley. A short circuit in his car radio caused the radio to smoke. He drove to the firehouse where fireman Clive Coverdale solved the problem simply by pulling out a fuse of the radio.

CHAIN OF ACCIDENTS

Pastor's Wife, Church Offcial Hurt In Wreck

A high Presbyterian official from Greenbrae, the wife of the Presbyterian pastor in Santa Venetia, and a San Francisco policeman and his wife were injured in a Highway 101 collision south of Alto yesterday afternoon.

The accident was result of a traffic pile-up after a non-injury car collision involving a Mill Valley Catholic nun and a California Department of Justice investigator from Fairfax.

Injured were.

Rev. Thomas Holden, 64, of 135 Nadina Way, Greenbrae, stated clerk and executive secretary of the Presbyterian Synod of California and chairman of the board of trustees of San Francisco Theological Seminary. He was released from Marin General Hospital after treatment for back injuries.

His passenger, with whom he had been working at Presbyterian headquarters in San Francisco, Mrs. Dorothy Miller, 50, of 849 Descanso Way, Santa Venetia, wife of Rev. Aaron Garnet Miller. She was in fair condition with head injury at Marin General Hospital today.

Andrew Terance McCarthy, 39, San Francisco policeman, and his wife, Barbara, 33, were treated and released by Marin General Hospital. McCarthy suffered multiple cuts of nose and leg, and his wife's lower lip was cut.

The McCarthys, driving their station wagon south, had passed the Alto interchange and at 5:40 p.m. were near the north end of the Richardson Bay Bridge when they noted a traffic pile-up in the northbound lane. A California Highway Patrol car manned by B. B. Barclay was standing on the divider strip, its red light blinking.

McCarthy said he braked sharply but hit the right side and rear of the other car, driven by Rev. Holden.

Mrs. Miller was thrown out of the Holden car.

The reason for the tie-up had been a minor rear-end collision in northbound traffic 20 minutes earlier. A car driven by Sister Mary Christina Punch of 34 Buena Vista, Mill Valley, a teacher at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parochial School in Mill Valley, had skidded and struck the rear of one driven by Ralph J. Dorenzo of 21 Willow Avenue, Fairfax, investigator for the California Department of Justice.

Five Door-To-Door Salesmen Routed

San Rafael police ran a door-to-door salesman out of town yesterday and warned him to take four other salesmen of his company with him.

The salesman, Daniel K. Wolfman, 21, of San Francisco, was stopped on Elizabeth Way by Police Officer Leon deLisle Jr. about 7:46 p.m.

He admitted canvassing the area in an attempt to sell encyclopedias. He said four other salesmen from P. F. Collier and Son' San Francisco office were also surveying the area door-to-door.

DeLisle warned him that door-to-door solicitation is prohibited in San Rafael by ordinance and is punishable by $500 fine and six months in jail. The salesman was not cited.

HANLEY

"David and Paul have spent hour after hour trying to devise some form of defense for the 49ers' new double wing spread formation," The UPI reported.

"That double wing the 49ers spring on Baltimore sent the Los Angeles defense coaches dashing to their drawing boards," the AP reported.

Even conceding the customary latitude for literary license, the two great press associations should not swallow the kind of hogwash David and Paul have been dishing up in unpalatable quantities.

"The question is," Paul pontificated to the UPI in the manner of a man faced with a terrible dilemma, "do you cover or rush? The Colts did both, and apparently at the wrong times,"

TO THE AP, Paul said his Sunday afternoon before the TV was ruined when he saw 49er quarterback John Brodie drop back seven yards from his usual T position behind the center and C. R. Roberts and J. D. Smith shift into wing spots with R. C. Owens out as a flanker.

"That double wing spread now has changed everything drastically," Paul told the AP and then posed the same "Do you cover or rush?" question he had put rhetorically to the UPI.

"This attack gets five quick receivers down field, two ends, two halfbacks and the fullback. It isn't new, of course, but it sure messes up your defensive plans."

HOGWASH, just plain hogwash. Any boy playing high school football can quickly diagram a sound defense against the spread. It's standard routine in football basics.

The Colts started to use a sound defense against the 49er spread by throwing six men into the line, leaving Daddy Lipscomb and the four defensive backfield men to take care of "five quick receivers." But then they began messing up their own defense, trying cute 3-4-4 stuff.

Red Hickey had hoped the spread would minimize the great rush Colt defensive giants have put on all quarterbacks all season but he never expected them to abandon their best defensive weapon.

If Hickey does use the spread next Sunday against the Rams, it is not likely that they are going to depart from sound defensive strategy, notwithstanding all of the simulated fear David and Paul have been professing.

SELDOM HAS one football game stimulated so much discussion as the 49er-Colt affair. Certainly the double wing spread played an important part in the 49er upset win but equally vital in the victory was the way the 49er defensive team kept the pressure on Johnny Unitas all day.

Unitas was rushed so hard from the inside that he was forced to throw several times before he or his receivers were set—and the result was five interceptions, without which the 49ers never could have won—even with the fancy spread stuff.

Balboa '5' Spoils Redwood's Cage Season Opener

Redwood High School opened the basketball season on a losing note yesterday as Balboa High routed the Giants 62-26 in San Francisco.

Redwood Coach Dick Hart used 15 players in a platoon system to search for standouts, among whom were Don Bowen with eight points and Rich Brear with seven.

Bolinas, Stinson Merger Discussed

A joint meeting of the boards of trustees of the Bolinas and Stinson Beach School Districts will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the Bolinas Community Center.

The proposed merger of the two districts will be discussed. The merger will come to a vote Dec. 13.

OREGON STATE BOWL GAME IS CANCELLED

NEW YORK (AP)—The inaugural Gotham Bowl football game, scheduled to be played at Yankee Stadium Dec. 10, will not be held this year, bowl director Bob Ready said today.

Oregon State's football squad accepted an invitation to play this year, but the committee was unable to find a suitable opponent.

Dad Proud Of Son Until Race Ended

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Carl Schmidt was proud when his son, Tom, took a lively interest in his hobby, model airplane racing.

But Dad was somewhat chagrined when he finished as runnerup to his 16-year-old Tom in the sixth annual Thompson Trophy Junior Air Races, sponsored by the Gulf Hawks Model Airplane Club.

Tough Year

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (AP)—J. H. Morris has retired after delivering mail for 40 years. The 39th year was his hardest. "That year," he says, "I was bitten by a Chihuahua, stung by a bee and spurred in the ankle by a bantam rooster."

Champion Tars Launch Cage Slate Tonight

With only one letterman in the lineup, College of Marin basketball hopes will be starting almost from scratch tonight as the Tars launch the 1960-61 season on their home court.

First opponent to test the Marin club will be Diablo Valley College, 8 o'clock at Kentfield. Tomorrow night Marin treks to San Mateo College for its second outing.

When the Golden Valley Conference begins Jan. 6-7, Marin will be gunning for its fifth consecutive championship.

Coach Cal Riemcke appraises his Tar squad as "small, but good ball handlers and good shooters. In fact this is as good a shooting club as I've ever had, and I hope that makes up for our lack of size."

ONLY LETTERMAN

The only letterman in Tar togs is guard John Blomquist, a 5-foot-7 scrapper who helped Marin bag the conference flag last season.

The balance of his starting lineup tonight probably will be Lynn Livie, 5-11, at the other guard; Ernie Bray, 6-0, and Ron Blum, 6-2, at forwards and either Mike Rawitser, 6-1, or Rich Laumeuster, 6-4 at center.

Blomquist is a San Rafael High School graduate, Livie is from Petaluma, Bray from Redwood High, Blub from Marin Catholic, Rawitser a transfer from Michigan and Laumeuster from St. Francis High on the Monterey Peninsula.

USF Rallies To Beat Hawaii '5' In Season Debut

HONOLULU (AP)—It took the University of San Francisco six minutes before it hit for its first field goal last night, but the Dons then overcame an eight-point deficit and beat the University of Hawaii 68-58.

Bob Gaillard paced the Dons to their season-opening victory with 19 points. Henry Johnson hit 13 for USF. Frank DeLauro's 15 was high for Hawaii's Rainbows.

After trailing by eight points early in the first half, USF pulled to a 24-all tie and led 30-28 at halftime. Hawaii tied the score early in the second half but USF then slowly began pulling away.

Browns Lead NFL Passing, Rushing

NEW YORK (AP)—Jimmy Brown and Milt Plum, the Cleveland Browns' 1-2 ground and air attack, continued to lead the top individual offensive departments in the National Football League today.

Brown has gained 912 yards rushing in nine games for the Browns, who are tied for second place with New York in the Eastern Conference. He has carried the ball 164 times for a 5.6 average.

Plum's accuracy is further demonstrated in three departments: (1) per cent completed, (2) per cent intercepted and (3) average gain.

The former Penn State star has completed 115 of 170 for 1,705 and 13 touchdowns for a 67.6 mark. He has yet to have a pass pilfered and has averaged 10.03 per toss.

Reed Trustees Apply For Funds

Reed Union School District trustees in a special meeting last night adopted a formal resolution applying for a state loan to construct eight classrooms at Del Mar Estates.

The estimated total construction cost is $310,580, Supt. Paul R. Stouffer said. Site acquisition cost is $18,000; surveys and plans, including architectural fees, amount to $19,000, and the site development, including grading and utilities, is $95,000. General construction will amount to $145,000.

Redwood's Hoffman On All-North Cal Squad

Tackle Mike Hoffman of the Marin County champion Redwood High School Giants today was named on the first team of the San Francisco Examiner's 1960 All-Northern California football squad.

Big No. 70 for the Giants was the only Marinite on the first team, but three local stars received recognition in the Examiner's annual "dream team" lineups. They were halfback Pat Morgan of Tamalpais and end Lu Haas of Novato on the first team of the All-North Coast selections and fullback-linebacker Jerry Crowe of Marin Catholic on the All-North Coast second team.

News of Hoffman's first team selection was cheered at Redwood this morning, especially by Coach Bob Troppman as Mike became his first student to attain such recognition.

The 6-foot, 2-inch, 180-pound Hoffman, a senior, also will be in line for selection to the North team in next summer's annual North-South Shrine game, featuring graduating seniors, in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Hoffman recently was named on the All-Marin County team as offensive tackle and defensive linebacker. He also received an award, along with center Mike Walsh, as Redwood's co-captain at the team's championship banquet.

Another highlight at the Redwood banquet was a three-way tie for the school's football scholarship award between Roger Siemens, Ned Griffith and Rich Brear.

McElhenny To Sub For R.C.; 49ers 3½-Point Underdogs

Hugh McElhenny is slated for the flanker back spot when the San Francisco 49ers face the Rams Sunday at the Los Angeles Coliseum—but don't bet against R. C. Owens showing up too, separated shoulder and all.

"No pain," lanky Owens said last night. "I hope I'll be ready for the Rams."

Coach Red Hickey doesn't know yet whether Owens will play. He's drilling McElhenny in the job and veteran Hugh, who played the position last year, knows what it's all about.

The 49ers, meanwhile, were reflecting on the values of jumping jack Owens, a remarkable athlete who's been taking jolts and bounces for years that left fans in the stands shuddering. But each time, up came R. C. for his gangling lope back to the huddle.

He injured his shoulder Sunday, seconds before the end of the first half, when he climbed an imaginary ladder high into the skies over Baltimore and fell to the ground with a touchdown pass.

Even the Colts' fans, as wildly partisan as fans can be, cheered Owens' mighty effort. Owens was helped from the field and the folks in Baltimore figured he'd need an ambulance to leave the stadium.

But back he came in the second half and it was R. C. who took a lateral from Dee Mackey and rambled for the 49ers' winning touchdown with less than two minutes left in the game.

Owens represents one of the 49ers' great psychological weapons—the Alley Oop play. He and Y. A. Tittle originated it and John Brodie has been able to emulate Tittle in throwing the long, looping pass which requires breath-taking timing.

The 49ers have been established as 3½-point underdogs for the game in the Coliseum. Hickey likes that.

Tittle, still ailing with a groin injury, and guard Ted Connolly, who rejoined the team yesterday after missing five games with a knee injury, are both doubtful for the Ram game. Hickey will miss them.

As for Owens and the Alley Oop, Hickey feels the way the generals in the pentagon feel about the hydrogen bomb. He hopes he doesn't need it—but he feels better when he knows it's available.

BOOMING SPORT

Pro Bowling Reaches Unprecedented Peak

By HAL WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—So your boy wants to be a baseball player? A football star? A touring golfer?

Talk him out of it. Tell him to be a bowler.

Better working conditions, employment 52 weeks of the year, a longer life-span—and twice as much money.

Bowling, the boom sport of the post-war years, is going professional in a big way—and the chances are it will become the biggest thing in all of sportsdom.

In 1960, for instance, an ex-school teacher named Frank Clause, from Old Forte, Pa., will make about $100,000. Which is a higher salary than either Willie Mays or Mickey Mantle gets.

Clause, who used to teach English, history and journalism, gave up the work to become a bowling pro—and at this writing he can't be unhappy about the decision. He has picked up $74,750 in TV jackpot shows this year and gets about $150 a day for exhibitions, besides.

There is more prize money for bowlers given every year than ever is offered in baseball's World Series.

From coast to coast there are small tournaments going on every day in the thousands of bowling establishments. The sport is reaching unprecedented heights.

Johnny Swanson, a one-time college football player at University of San Francisco, opened a bowling alley in nearby Westlake two years ago. It had 36 lanes and looked to be the height of perfection. Inside one year he had to enlarge to 52 lanes to handle the business—which runs 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Currently on the planning board is a National Professional League for bowlers. This won't be a fly-by-night operation. To get franchises, men in the business had to guarantee an arena that would seat from 4,000 to 20,000 for every contest. Franchises already have been awarded to Birmingham, Minneapolis, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Antonio, Dallas, Ft. Worth, Detroit, Omaha, Miami, New York and Kansas City.

"These men, eight to a team, will be playing for salaries equal to the average infielder in the major leagues," says Swanson. "They probably will make $10,000 to $20,000 each year—plus anything they can pick up in the way of exhibition money and prizes on TV contests.

Outside of the TV shows, the biggest prize money right now comes in the Petersen Classic in Chicago, where the winner drags down $25,000, and the second place man gets $12,500. The Louisville Classic pays $10,000 for first place, $5,000 for second.

Big name stars like Don Carter, Andy Varapapa and others usually are signed up by some organization which pays them salaries of $10,000 a year or better—plus all traveling expenses, plus all prize money won.

So who wants to play baseball, football or golf for chicken feed?

NEW YORK (AP) — The 1960 Associated Press Little All-America team named today includes two Californians, guard Doug Brown, a 246-pounder from Fresno State, and halfback Charlies Fuller of San Francisco State, former Vallejo High star.

Humboldt State tackle Vester Flanagan was named to the second team.

Palmer Sets Record For Money Winnings

DUNEDIN, Fla (AP)—Arnold Palmer, already voted professional golfer-of-the-year, has also become the biggest money winner for one season in the history of the game.

Fullmer Still Cautious Of Sugar's Punch

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson will have to knock out Gene Fullmer within five rounds if he is to capture the National Boxing Assn. version of the world middleweight title.

That was the consensus today as the two battlers took matters easy and speculation continued over their 15-round fight to be nationally-televised Saturday night in the Sports Arena.

The only knockout in Fullmer's career was registered by Robinson in five rounds in 1957 in the Garden for the championship.

Fullmer, 29, from West Jordan, Utah, smiled. "I don't say he can't do it again because he can, but I'll be a little more alert and cautious, knowing what he can do," he said.

Fullmer indicated the aging Sugar Ray may show his years as the match progresses.

"He appeared to be pretty weary in his last fight with Paul Pender," Fullmer said. Robinson twice lost to the Boston boxer early this year for the title recognized in Massachusetts and New York.

Coast League Okays Team For Honolulu

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—The Pacific Coast League went shopping in Hawaii today for a buyer with $55,000 who would operate a franchise in Honolulu.

The league vote yesterday to transfer the defunct Sacramento franchise to Honolulu, but a pair of Salt Lake City men who originally thought of the plan to operate a club in the mid-Pacific, backed out of the deal.

According to PCL officials, the league preferred to have a Hawaiian group backing the club. They envisioned little difficulty in finding a suitable backer.

"The Pacific Coast League will operate in Honolulu in 1961," said PCL President Soriano following day-long meetings. "There are still several arrangements that have to be straightened out, such as park lease and transportation."

CASH AVAILABLE

Soriano said "there are three other groups, which I cannot identify at this time, who are very interested, and we know one of them is ready to put up the $55,000 to buy the franchise."

Maurice Yates and Hal Tate, the Salt Lake City men who originally had wanted to buy the Sacramento team and move it to Honolulu, would not offer more than $35,000 for the franchise.

Soriano said he would meet tomorrow in San Francisco with Chinn Ho, head of the Honilulu Stadium Corporation, to complete arrangements for use of the 22,000 seat ball park.

Soriano said "directors of the Pacific Coast League are most enthusiastic about this operation. Honolulu will give the league the prestige city that is most necessary for continued operation at the Triple-A level."

The league president explained that it was probable that a 154-game schedule would be drawn up, with each mainland club making two trips to Hawaii—one for six games and one for five.

NINE RACES A DAY AT GOLDEN GATE FIELDS

ALBANY (UPI) — Golden Gate Fields has been given permission to run nine races daily next week.

The California Horse Racing Board yesterday agreed to the plan to properly evaluate the effect of an additional daily race to the card.

Golden Gate has been presenting nine races on Wednesdays, Saturdays and holidays, with eight races on other days.

King of All annexed yesterday's featured $5,000 Hayward Handicap. The time for the three-quarter mile was 1:10 2/5 in sloppy conditions.

Pete Moreno was aboard the winner. Hechizo was second by a head and Stage Actress third in the field of seven. The winner returned $14.20 to win.

Eagles Fear Letdown In Final Games

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (AP) — Coach Buck Shaw said today he is "talking his head off" in efforts to prevent a letdown by his Philadelphia Eagles, who need only a victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Sunday to win their first National Football League Eastern title since 1949.

"The Cardinals will be tough," Shaw said. "They've been improving right along. We're on top and everyone is after us. It's a real rat race.

"After two successive victories over New York and winning eight in a row it's a natural spot for a letdown and we'll have to fight it all the way."

Actually, the Eagles have three shots at the title. After playing at St. Louis, they have two more road games against Pittsburgh and Washington. They have beaten all three clubs at home this year.

"It's like being on the 3-yard line with three downs to go," Shaw said. "But I think we have to take one game at a time and assume it's the last one we're playing—that there's no second or third chance."

Shaw, 61, said a victory Sunday would mark a milestone in his long coaching career. He never has won a divisional title in 11 years of coaching professional football.

Cal In Limelight As Coast Quints Open Season Tonight

St. Mary's plays at Stanford, San Francisco State meets Santa Clara at San Jose, Long Beach State plays at Chico State and the Cal Aggies at Memphis, Tenn., State.

The University of San Francisco, opening last night at Hawaii with a 68-58 victory over the host team, plays there again tonight.

Interest centers on Herrerias' initial California outfit since he succeeds Pete Newell whose clubs the past two seasons placed first and then second in the NCAA finals.

Stanford's Coach Howie Dallmar named co-captains Bub Bowling and John Hendry plus John Windsor, all first stringers from last year, and sophomores Rich Hosley and Don Clementson as his starters.

MESCHERY BACK

Weaver says his club this season will be trying three or four different types of offenses because "we're not big enough or strong enough to overpower a team with only one thing."

Coach Bob Feerick of the Santa Clara Broncos counters with a probable quintet of seniors Dennis McGrath and Pete Lillevand, juniors Barry Cristina and Ron McGee and sophomore Gene Shields. The latter at 6-8 is the tallest man on the club.

Friday night San Jose State swings into action hosting Fresno State while the Presidio of San Francisco plays at Humboldt State, Long Beach State plays at Sacramento and Eastern Oregon plays Nevada at Reno.

A.L. Expansion Plan Still Question Mark

NEW YORK (UPI)—A giant question-mark still hung over the major leagues' expansion plans today when Commissioner Ford Frick and league presidents Warren Giles and Joe Cronin met for the second straight day at baseball's summit.

The "Big Three" appeared no nearer a solution than they were at the start of yesterday's 5½-hour session which ended at 5:30 p.m. The only announcement made by Frick after that session was that another meeting would be held today.

There were no indications whether the high hopes entertained by Frick at the start of the first meeting would be justified. Frick, a long-time advocate of "orderly expansion," is attempting to persuade the American and National leagues to cooperate with each other.

"I want a rule we can live with for some time," he said. "I want to work out a formula that will be good in 1962 as well as in 1961."

There are two problems:

1. The National League has blocked the American League plan for two nine-team circuits with inter-league scheduling in 1961—the "compromise" the A.L. offered as the price for not invading Los Angeles next year.

2. Rule One-C of the major league agreement prevents the invasion of any major league city without the unanimous consent of all 16 owners. Obviously Walter O'Malley of the Dodgers will not vote in favor of expansion into Los Angeles in 1961.

Whatever is eventually decided—if anything—must be put before a vote of the two leagues during the major league meetings at St. Louis, beginning next Monday. In the event of a tie in that voting, Frick has said that he will vote against expansion in 1961.

Also present at yesterday's meeting were three attorneys—Louis Carroll of the National League, Ben Fiery of the American League and Paul Porter for the commissioner.

Dodgers Make Bid For Twins' Lemon

LOUISVILLE, Ky (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers reportedly have offered four players for outfielder Jim Lemon of the Minneapolis Twins.

But negotiations were stalled last night because the players offered did not meet the Twins' requirements for a starting pitcher.

Calvin Griffith, owner of the Twins, said he would insist on a starting pitcher in any deal involving a player with the ability of Lemon, a home run slugger.

There also were reports the Dodgers were interested in Rocky Colavito or Al Kaline of the Detroit Tigers.

Nat Holman To Teach Basketball To Japanese

TOKYO (AP) — Nat Holman, America's internationally known basketball coach, is visiting Japan next month to teach the Japanese the game, the U.S. Embassy announced today.

MARIN'S 'FLYING FATHER'

Expect 10,000 At Eureka For NAIA Football Playoff

EUREKA (UPI) — Humboldt State officials today talked of a possible record crowd of more than 10,000 Saturday night when Humboldt State and Whitworth square off in the Western NAIA football playoff between two unbeaten teams.

All 6,500 reserved seats at Albee Stadium have been sold, but an additional 2,000 temporary bleachers are to be erected and more tickets will be sold on a standing room basis.

Six high school basketball games within an 80-mile radius have been switched from Saturday night so that students may watch the Lumberjacks battle Whitworth.

The weatherman has bad news for Whitworth. The field is already in muddy condition and more rain is predicted before game-time. This should slow Whitworth's passing attack—best in the nation among small colleges.

STEVENS

Weekend fishing sure had its ups and downs—with the downs predominating. Must have been 200 boats on Richardson Bay on the two days, all trying hard to fill out limits. Quite a few did on Sunday, but many of them didn't on Saturday. Muddy water from the storms apparently chased the herring to other parts, which some of the experts give as the reason for the slackening off of the exceptionally fine yield of large mediums (the 10 pound class of stripers).

Sunday the water and weather improved and the herring were again in evidence. Better fishing resulted. Monday, during the last two hours of the incoming tide and the first two hours of the ebb, fishing in Richardson Bay almost attained a comeback.

The Richardson fishing has been (and will continue to be) almost entirely confined to trolling with light sinkers and artificials as bait. Some attempts have been made with anchored boats closer to Tiburon, but it has not paid off.

I GUESS we can safely term that area as being in the "up" column. In the "down" section we must include the Papermill Creek and Tomales Bay. Game Warden Al Giddings worked those two areas over the weekend. He told me the creek is loaded with silver salmon, but they are being very snooty—refuse to cooperate. In Tomales Bay, nary a bass nor a salmon has been taken lately. That was the result of a six-boat foray.) Only five fish were deducted from the Papermill Creek population—three silvers and two steelies on Sunday.

THE LADS and lassies who went out of China Camp after stripers did poorly on Saturday, but had a fair-to-good day on Sunday and a better day on Monday. Not large fish, and lots of throwbacks, but limits or near limits were common on Monday. Most of the success, according to Frank Quan, was had in the shellbank region . . . all on bait.

Quan reported some of the finest flounder fishing of the year. "Big ones and plentiful," he assured me.

Some fast and fancy fishing on bait was had in the Red Rock sector the past three days. Limits of stripers in the six-to-eight-pound class were taken along with some hefty flounders to four pounds in weight.

One report came in of a party of three fishing all day on Sunday without a fish being caught in the Big Break. Several other reports from the lower Suisun Bay and Honker Bay indicate that section as one of the most promising for the gal or guy who likes a chance at hooking and landing a striper in the 20-30-pound class.

BASS IN the Red Rock area; Buoys 8, 10 and 12, and on the shellbanks off China Camp are hitting very lightly — need to be hooked almost at the moment of contact. The bigger stripers in the Suisun and Honker Bays need time to make up their minds. Hence the wait until the second strike before attempting to set the hook. Two hooks, one above and one below the sinker for the San Pablo Bay fish and a sliding sinker and long leader with single hook, or a light sinker and a long leader (four-five feet) for the lunkers in Honker Bay.

All-America Final In Aussie Tennis

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—Barry MacKay and Earl Buchholz, Jr. battled their way today into the final of the Victorian tennis championships, making it an all-American final for the first time in the 60-year history of the tourney.

Buchholz staged a fighting comeback to beat his fellow St. Louisan, Chuck McKinley, 3-6, 5-7, 6-4, 6-1, 6-4. MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, whipped Mike Sangster of England 6-4, 10-8, 12-10 in the first semi-final match.

N.Y. Racing Records

NEW YORK (AP)—Thoroughbred racing for 1960 is over in New York state with records in both attendance and wagering. When Aqueduct wrapped up the year Wednesday with 30,176 betting $3,509,402, the total attendance for 218 days was boosted to 5,588,779 and the total handle to $531,441,960.

Sixto To Face Rugged Foe In Britisher

Sixto Rodriguez of San Anselmo, California's light heavyweight champion, and Johnny Sullivan, one time holder of the British middleweight title, clash in Lou Thomas' 10-round feature next Monday night at Kezar Pavilion in San Francisco.

Those closely associated with the ring sport consider this the best attraction Thomas has lined up since he moved into the pavilion.

Sullivan has appeared in three national television fights since he came to this country. That he can fight he has proved by the fact that he has met the likes of Joey Giambra, Rocky Castellani, Yolande Pompey, Willie Troy, Gordon Wallace and Eduardo Lausse.

Karl Ashley, who manages Rodriguez, thinks Sixto will be able to challenge for the world's title next year. He's accepting tough fights for his man, he says, to keep his charge in perfect condition.

In his last start at Richmond Sixto engaged in a rousing battle with Bobby Sands of Los Angeles. Knocked down in the first round, Rodriguez came back to batter his foe and score a technical kayo.

In gym workouts at Newman's, Sullivan has the railbirds talking about him. He's a tough, aggressive battler, who seems to carry a hefty sock. He's a good body pounder and, for that reason, should give Rodriguez real trouble.

The feature is backed with three six rounders.

Charley Smith, a main eventer out of Detroit, takes on Lem Miller, an experienced lightweight out of Los Angeles.

Don Chestra and Dorsey Williams will clash in what is billed as a grude fight.

Heavyweights Billy Fields of San Francisco and Bill McMurray of Sacramento will meet in the third six rounder.

Max Says Johansson Could Be Greatest

TORONTO (AP)—Max Schmeling, Germany's former world heavyweight boxing champion, says Ingemar Johansson of Sweden could be the greatest heavyweight champion in history if he took the sport seriously.

Schmeling, 55, said in an interview yesterday that Johansson was in perfect condition when he knocked out Floyd Patterson in their first fight. In the second bout, in which Johansson was knocked out, he didn't train hard enough, Max said.

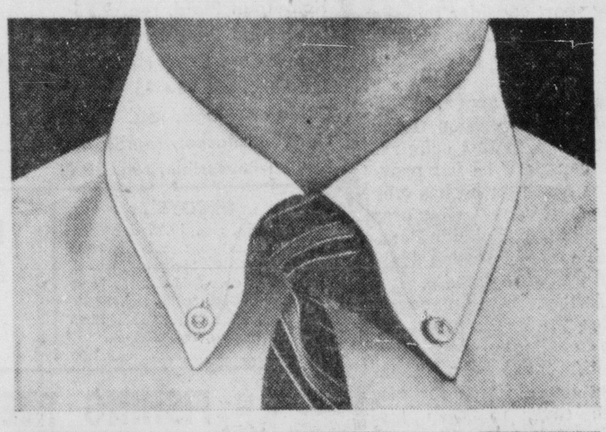
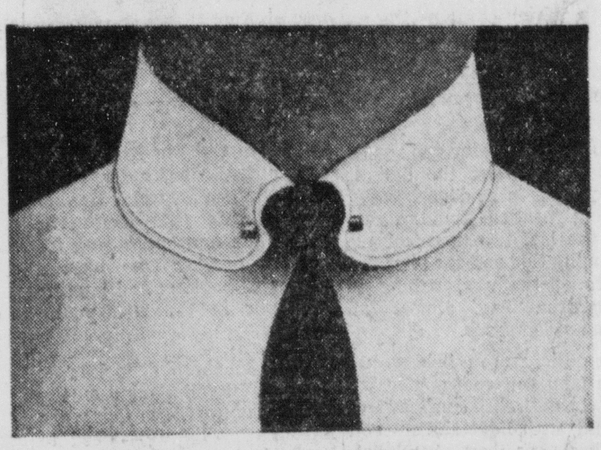
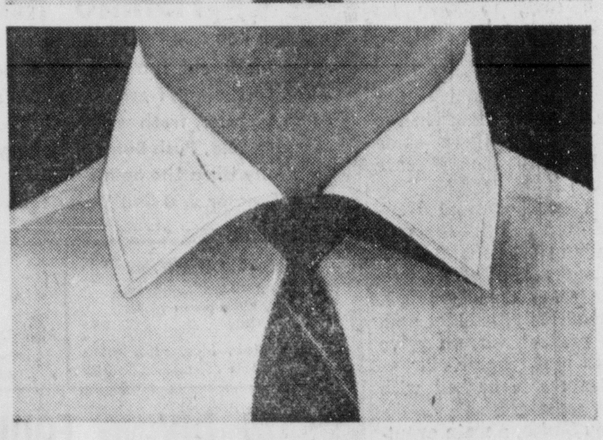
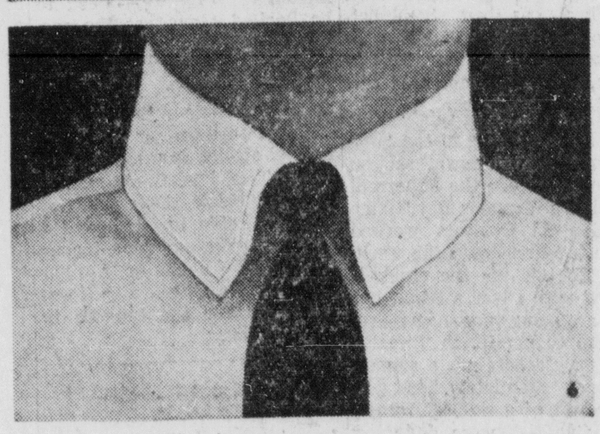
Macy's men's store









The man on the way up has always bought his clothes at Macy's. Now in the spaciously elegant new Men's Store he finds an even wider selection of all the fine details he prefers—handsomely tailored suits, coats to fit every weather whim, perfect-fitting shirts, supple calf shoes. He wears an air of confidence because he knows everything he buys at Macy's is correct and easy on growing young incomes. Sound investments at thrifty prices are what he wants and finds at Macy's. And now so attractively displayed in the new Men's Store on the street floor.

MACY'S SAN RAFAEL, FOURTH AND COURT, GLENWOOD 6-3333; OPEN THURSDAY AND FRIDAY 9:30 TO 9

El Marinero Presents New 50-Star Flag

The presentation of a new 50 star American Flag was the highlight of the recent birthday celebration of Kentfield Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 130, held at Arequipa.

Mrs. Kenneth Gregory of the El Marinero Chapter, Marin County DAR made the presentation. Receiving the Flag for the troop were Patrol Leaders Patty Woolston, Jan Ellis and Cindy Wiklund.

The 27 Scouts, all sixth graders, received their fourth year pins. A skit on an incident from the life of Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scouts, was presented by some of the girls, while the others acted as hostesses.

Kentfield Brownie Scout Troop 131 and their leaders, Mrs. Nathan Posner and Mrs. Shirley Hutchinson, were guests for the afternoon program, as were the mothers of Troop 130 Leaders of Troop 130 are Mesdames Martin Griffin, J. R. B. Ellis and John Parsons.

Marin Women

Party Will Honor Folk Dance Beginners

Honoring beginner folk dancers, the Marin Dance Council, Inc., is giving a party Monday night from 8 to 11 p.m. at the E Street School. Some of the beginners have been dancing since July under the direction of Jim Greer. It will be the beginners first opportunity to meet dancers of the clubs in the county and their instructors. All folk dancers are invited to the party.

Another beginners' folk dance class will be organized soon.

Holy Family Guild Tea Set Monday

Members of the Holy Family Guild will close the year's activities at a Christmas Tea to be held at the Holy Family Convent, 125 Prospect Avenue, San Anselmo, on Monday, Dec. 5 at 1 p.m.

A basket of groceries will be presented to the Sisters with a contribution derived from various parties held throughout the county during the summer.

Mrs. Walter Garrett, out-going president, will present the new officers. Chairmen for the day Mesdames Edward Monaghan and Daniel Sheehy, will welcome the members who will be present to extend Holiday greetings to the Sisters.

Alpha Chi Omega Christmas Party

Marin Alpha Chi Omega alumnae will hold their annual Christmas party on Dec. 7 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lowell F. Jett, 60 Alta Vista, Mill Valley.

Mrs. George Larson will be co-hostess for the affair, which will feature the traditional silent auction of white elephants and a sale of Christmas wrappings and decorated boxes.

Each one attending is asked to bring a "White Elephant." All Alpha Chis are invited and may telephone Mrs. Jett for further details.

Social Service Christmas Tea Will Highlight Worthy Project

Invitations have been received this week for the annual Christmas Tea of the Marin County Catholic Social Service Auxiliary.

This traditional event will be held this year on Wednesday, Dec. 7, at Meadowlands on the Dominican College grounds from 3 to 5 p.m.

Carolers from the Upper School will serenade the many Auxiliary members who will gather at the social event marking the end of one of their major yearly efforts—the preparation of toys, clothes and dolls for distribution during the Christmas season.

Enclosed in the invitations were stockings in which checks will be enclosed by members. The cash donation is taking the place of the former donations of canned goods which used to be the admission to the Tea. Mayor Robert Huber of Mill Valley will again play Santa Claus to gather up the stockings.

Chairman for the annual tea is Mr. Bernard J. Conroy, with Mrs. Arthur Fay acting as her co-chairman. Members of their committee are Mesdames Bernard O'Kane, decorations; Clifford Meagher, food; Arthur Fay, invitations; Thomas Keating, reservations; Howard A. Leif, awards; G. D. Callahan, properties; Hugh Allen, entertainment; John East, cleanup; William Flynn, mailing; A. H. Nathe, toys; John Fracchia, dolls; Fred Enemark, sewing and J. E. Knox, publicity.

Kappa Delta Alums To Meet Tonight

An exchange of Christmas recipes and decorating ideas will be the feature of the December meeting of Marin County Kappa Delta alumnae members. They will gather at 8 p.m. tonight in Greenbrae at the home of Mrs. Watson Conner.

All Kappa Delta alumnae in the county are cordially invited. Assisting Mrs. Conner will be Mrs. C. R. Allen.

PARTIES TO FOLLOW NORTHGATE HOLIDAY COCKTAIL STYLE SHOW

Plans have been completed for the holiday cocktail and fashion show party sponsored by the Northgate Group to be tomorrow night at the Meadow Club, Fairfax.

Specially selected glamour clothes from a San Francisco store will be featured in the fashion promenade with Andrew Swedlund of Greenbrae acting as commentator.

Many dinner parties at the Meadow Club will follow the cocktail party. Among those who have already arranged dinner groups, according to Mrs. Frank Dettner, reservations chairman, are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Smith of Ross who will entertain six couples and also entertain at several no host tables. Mrs. Smith, who with Mrs. H. Wallace Hickman, is in charge of the entire affair, said today many informal "Lets sit together" arrangements have been made for dinner by Northgate members, committee chairmen and friends.

Nine Girls Honored By Auxiliary

"Star Trails Upward" was the theme for the Girls' Auxiliary Coronation Service at First Baptist Church, San Rafael, Sunday night, when nine girls were honored for work in the organization.

Judith Ann Harrop, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clayton Harrop of Terra Linda was honored as "Queen-inService," third highest rank in the auxiliary.

Three girls were crowned "Queen." They were Joyce Harrop, Terra Linda; Carol Nichols, who resides with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Harvell, San Rafael; and Gloria Hassler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sassler, San Anselmo.

Honored as princesses were Nancy Wallace, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Bradley Wallace, San Rafael; Lyn Scholz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scholz, Corte Madera; Carol Ann Hough, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Wallace Hough Jr., San Rafael; and Linda Pollard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pollard, San Rafael.

Girls from 9 to 17 years are eligible for the Auxiliary. During the time, they may pass requirements for seven steps — from maiden to queen regent. Requirements for each step become progressively more difficult and lengthy.

Directing the Coronation Services were Mrs. Clayton Harrop, Mrs. Robert Scholz, Mrs. Stanley Jacobs and Mrs. Fred Fisher.

Members Will Model In Christmas Show

When the San Francisco Yacht Club Auxiliary presents "Christmas Luxuries in Fashions and Furs" Saturday, Dec. 10 at the clubhouse, many of the auxiliary members will model.

They are Mesdames Gilbert H. Duby of Tiburon; David Imrie, and Robert Bernheim of Belvedere; William Wallace of Kentfield, Robert Shannon of The Reedlands; Robert Gomez and Corinne Mathews of Mill Valley; Leonard Delmas of Kentfield; Henry Prien, Leo Tarantino, Ernie Van Asperin, Edward Schneider and John Anlyan of San Francisco and Miss Cathy Mersereau of Belvedere.

Mrs. Don Carlberg of Little Reed Heights has been asked to commentate the fashions which are designed by Elisabeth Vincent and the furs which are from a San Francisco shop.

In addition to the show, cocktails will be served and gentlemen members of the Club are especially invited to attend.

Assisting Mrs. Myron Elges who is general chairman are Mrs. Michael Shay, decorations chairman and her assistant Mrs. Imrie. Mrs. Daniel Nyhan is planning the hors d'oeuvres and Mrs. Jeff Capell will play the organ. Auxiliary president Mrs. Kirby Atterbury is in charge of arrangements.

Nurses' Assn. Plans Dance On Saturday

The Marin County Nurses' Assn., District 28, will have its Christmas party and dance on Saturday at 8 p.m.

The event will be in the ballroom of the Hamilton Air Force Base Non-Commissioned Officers Club in Novato. M/Sgt. and Mrs. Frank Leonard will be sponsors.

New Features Planned For Poseda Party

Additional features have been added to the "Poseda" party scheduled for Sausalito children at the Sausalito Woman's Club at 3 p.m. on Sunday.

Mrs. Charles H. Merrill Jr., chairman, announces that Harry Alto, well known Marin guitarist, will accompany the youngsters in the procession that is a traditional part of the Mexican Yuletide celebration. Folk dancers from "Mickey McGowan's group will appear in costume to show the children dances of the country.

Mrs. S. C. Stapp, club president, reminds parents that all Sausalito children are invited to this holiday party serving the community.

Lagan Institute Celebrates 56th 'Birthday' At Dinner

Lagan Institute, Young Ladies Institute of San Rafael celebrated its fifty sixth birthday at a dinner Tuesday night at the Blue Rock Hotel in Larkspur. Honored were two of the institute's charter members, Mrs. Alice Sanford and Miss Catherine F. Timony. Also an honor guest was Florence Donnelly, society and women's editor of the Independent-Journal.

The institute was named for the late Rev. Hugh Lagan, pastor of St. Raphael's Church from 1884 and 1899. The beloved pastor accomplished many improvements in the church and parish.

Miss Mildred Young, chairman of the birthday dinner, presided as mistress of ceremonies and introduced Mrs. Stanley Cowan, Lagan president, and Mrs. Jack Benz, institute deputy. Miss Young called to mind past days with the introduction of members, giving the years they had joined the institute. The dinner was concluded with the serving of the large birthday cake in which good luck symbols had been placed.

The institute with others in the Redwood Empire District is giving the annual Christmas party for children at Albertinium School in Ukiah. On Saturday night the Lagan members with those of other institutes of the county will join the members of Sonoma County at the parish hall in Sebastopol to wrap gifts which will be distributed to the Albertinium youngsters on Sunday, Dec. 11. Lagan members will leave at 9 a.m. in a chartered bus from St. Raphael's Church. Each child will have a special gift with his name. Also there will be a gift for the school. This year about $250 of playground equipment will be presented. In others years there have been Hi-Fi sets, TV sets. The children are served party fare. The Christmas party has been an annual event, sponsored by the institutes for more than 30 years.

On Tuesday, Dec. 6 Alma Pucci, grand first vice president, will make her official visit to Lagan at a meeting in Painters Hall, San Rafael.

University Women Hear Talk By First Consumer Counsel

Two hundred members of the Mill Valley and Marin branches of the American Association of University Women gathered recently at the Mill Valley Community Church to hear a talk by Helen Ewing Nelson on her work as California's first consumer counsel.

Mrs. Nelson (Nathan), who is still a member of the Mill Valley branch though she now lives in Sacramento, was introduced by Marin Supervisor Vera Schultz.

Of much interest to the audience was Mrs. Nelson's statement that she has heard that President-elect John F. Kennedy plans a position similar to hers—the first in the United States—on the national level.

The speaker said she was particularly interested in her job in connection with weights and measures and cited as an illustration of her work in this field the discovery from testing packages of potato chips that because of variances in packaging the prices varied from 79 cents to $1.79 per pound.

Another field her staff investigates, she explained, is that of credit, remarking that "California is the bankruptcy capital of the world."

She went on to discuss such abuses as the "Prepaid service contracts" under which certain reducing salons and dance studios had gone out of business, yet clients were forced to fulfill their contracts.

Mrs. Nelson said that claims up to $150 (formerly $50) may be taken to the court of small claims, but that people, rather than bother with recovering small amounts, would not take advantage of this recourse.

Another problem she described was the bad practices in connection with telephone solicitation for business in which information is also obtained that is passed on to others.

Additional fields needing study and recommendations she mentioned were door-to-door sales, further controls under the food and drugs act and labeling of potentially dangerous products, such as cleaners and detergents and even cosmetics.

The program was planned by co-chairmen Mrs. J. A. Fuller of the Mill Valley Branch, and Mary Ann Christensen of the Marin Branch.

Following her talk, Mrs. Nelson was beseiged with questions. Refreshments were served by tea chairman for the evening, Mrs. John Radovich of the Mill Valley Branch, who arranged a table centerpiece consisting of old fashioned scales with items in outmoded packages on one side and in up-to-date style on the other.

Preceding the meeting Mrs. Nelson was entertained at dinner at Sabella's by representatives of the two branches.

Fashions Topic Chosen By Sparks For Dec. 7 Meet

"Fashions for You and Your Home" is the subject chosen for the next monthly luncheon of the Sparks, auxiliary to the Southern Marin Recreation Center. Speaker will be Mrs. Moree Stuber, fashion coordinator and designer.

The luncheon will be held at the Center on Wednesday, Dec. 7 starting at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Stuber, who is also a writer and teaches charm, will commentate a fashion show of clothing from a Sausalito ski shop. Both home and snow clothes will be shown. She will also discuss fashion trends and make-up.

Mrs. Robert Sitkin and Mrs. Lloyd Jergeson will hostess. Reservations may be made by calling either Mrs. John Hoffmire or Mrs. Kent Beardsley by Monday, Dec. 5.

Gray Ladies Awarded Stripes

Mrs. Verne MacFarlan's home in Fairfax was recently the scene for the third annual luncheon honoring the Red Cross Gray Ladies who serve at Sonoma State Hospital.

Service stripes were awarded to Mesdames Pedley, Caughill, Wright, Walker, Lester, Madsen and Mrs. Frank Jordan, who was unable to be present.

Students Entertained By Mme. Bella Resek

Purpose of the meeting was to allow the students to become acquainted and help beginners to overcome shyness by performing at these informal occasions which will be held every five or six weeks.

Turkey Whist Party

A turkey whist party will be given by the APUMEC No. 30 at the IDESI Hall in Novato Saturday at 8:30 p.m. Mrs. William Canessa, chairman, announces many awards will be made and refreshments served.

United Voluntary Services Unit Plans Activities

Members of the Mill Valley Unit of the United Voluntary Services made plans this week for their annual Christmas season activities at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Archer Forsyth of Mill Valley.

While some of the UVS members serve the luncheon to be given at 12 o'clock on Dec. 13 at the Mill Valley American Legion Hall, others will make up the packages of treats for the children.

Mrs. Frederick Fellows, UVS unit chairman, announces that any seniors in Marin County wishing to attend the luncheon will be welcome, but that any who are not regular members of the group should make reservations with her or Mrs. Stanley D. Wilson. Both live in Mill Valley.

At this week's meeting the unit also decided to have its annual fund raising project in the spring a garden party-luncheon at the home of Mrs. Gande.

New Blue Bird Group Tours 'The Wanderer'

The Adventurous Blue Birds, a newly organized group of third grade girls in Ross, are really living up to their name.

One of their first activities was to spend the afternoon on board the schooner, "The Wanderer," anchored off Sausalito, and owned by Captain Omer Darr of Mill Valley. The Blue Birds learned about the life of passengers and crew on a schooner while it is on cruise. Captain Darr told the girls about the cruise taken last summer to the South Pacific and about the trip that is planned next, when the boat will sail to Pitcairn Island, Tahiti, and other islands in the South Seas.

Earlier this fall, the Adventurous Blue Birds planted poppies around Lake Lagunitas, with the approval of the Marin Municipal Water District, in accordance with the program of the Camp Fire Girls to plant the Califonria Golden Poppies on the hillsides and roadways.

Since organization on Sept. 21, the group has gone to Tiburon for a "seashore" nature hike, and visited Lake Lagunitas for a nature hike to identify trees and native plants.

Burdell, Lincoln School Discussion Scheduled

Trustees of Burdell and Lincoln school districts will continue discussion of students attending the same school at a meeting next week.

Trustees of both districts met Tuesday night at the home of James Grossi, clerk for the Burdell District, to begin ironing out details of a contract which would allow Burdell pupils to attend the Lincoln school.

The Burdell school was burned down by young vandals in November, 1958. Pupils have been using rooms in Our Lady of Loretto Catholic School in Novato.

If contract arrangements are worked out, pupils in the first six grades would go to Lincoln School, off the Petaluma-Point Reyes Road near Novato. Students in seventh and eighth grades probably would attend junior high school in Petaluma.

Both districts are in sparsely populated ranch areas. Each has an assessed valuation of approximately $450,000, Grossi said.

Trustees in both districts are aiming at an arrangement in which residents in each district would pay an 80-cent school tax rate. That is the present figure in the Burdell District. But the Lincoln rate is now $1.07 per $100 assessed valuation.

If a contract is worked out, costs would drop because only one teacher would be used for the two districts, Grossi pointed out. Five pupils are expected up to the sixth grade next year from the Burdell district. There now are 12 students at Lincoln School.

Novato Seeks Director Of Public Works

City councilmen authorized advertising for the position at their meeting Tuesday. Advertisements had been place months ago, but a change in administrators and councilmen requests for specifics on what the job entails delayed hiring.

City Administrator J. Julien Batet reported to the council that he hoped to be able to recommend hiring of a man between Jan. 15 and Feb. 1.

Councilmen approved re-advertising for the post by a 4-1 vote. Councilman M. E. (Babe) Silva voted "No" after hearing that about 30 applications had been received from previous advertisements, but that the top men had taken other jobs during the delay. He favored checking the applications already on hand.

Hub Restaurant Changes Hands

Don's Broiled Burgers at 306 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, which has been operated by Don Giovannoni of Ignacio, has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Camporeale of 2283 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael.

The new proprietors formerly owned eating establishments in New York City and Miami, Fla. They moved to Marin County about three months ago.

The name of the San Anselmo establishment will be changed but Camporeale said he had not yet decided on the new name. He said there will be several changes made in the menu.

Former owner Giovannoni said he plans to work for Hector Paris at Novato Joe's restanurant in Novato.

All America Says Welcome To Nation's New First Baby

It will be a wonderful thing to have a baby in the White House. We recall when Earl Warren moved into the governor's mansion in Sacramento and for the first time in many, many years, the "sound of little feet" resounded through the high-ceilinged rooms.

Now the White House will have to have a diaper-drying area.

It is fitting that our nation should have a baby in its first family. We sometimes forget that we are still a young nation. It is getting easier for us, constantly called the leaders of the world, constantly looking upon ourselves as the final word in practically anything, to think that we have arrived, that we are grown up.

But we're still young. We're less than 200 years old and as nations go, that's very young indeed.

But of course we have many younger brothers and sisters. Some of them, like Jack Jr., are only a few days old. This seems to make the older sister even older than she is.

If only the birth of this baby will remind us individually our nation has not reached old age. In the ease and opulence of our American way of life, we can't relax into retirement. We haven't guaranteed freedom for all even in our own country, much less throughout the world.

We're not talking about our foreign policy or our national goals. We're talking about our individual attitudes, our moral principles, our daily contact with fellow human beings. Our nation will continue to stay young only if our individuals don't become senile.

So we welcome the Kennedy baby, congratulate the happy parents and wish them all well. And in so doing, wish good fortune, too, to our nation and the world.

Get Those Bugs With Flowers

This is flea and tick season in Marin now and those of us with pets are kept busy with the flea powder and flea soap.

The common ingredient in these powders and soaps is an oil manufactured from the dried daisy-like flowers of three kinds of chrysanthemum. It is also an important plant spray for sucking insects.

Every gardener or pet owner has run across the name "pyrethrum" on the labels. For a number of years pyrethrum was manufactured in Iran and was known as the "Persian insect powder." Now most of it is homegrown in Southern California.

The next time you deflea your dog or spray for scale and aphids, think of all those little chrysanthemums growing in Persia and be happy.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

MAKE HASTE SLOWLY

Switching drivers in an automobile hurtling at 110 miles an hour would be perilous even for experts. But a 26-year-old man took that fearful risk to avoid arrest for not having a license.

When he saw the police giving chase because of his reckless speed, he prevailed upon his younger companion (who had a license) to slide over and take the wheel.

Apparently his fear of punishment made him forget that he was exposing both of them and every other driver on that road to the danger of instant death.

The speedier a pace man sets for himself, the more care he must show in living up to the awesome responsibilities that God expects of every one of us in this jet-propelled age.

Too much is at stake nowadays for us to take needless risks that expose ourselves and others to catastrophe. The axiom that was taught by the ancients still has binding force for all: "Make haste slowly."

"Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God." (Matthew 4:7)

Don't Cry, Junior, Santa Claus Gets Just A Little Tired, Too

"Well, well, well—if it ain't the jolly Old Saint himself."

"Don't cry, junior. Just leave the lollipop in his whiskers. Mommy'll buy you another one."

"What do I want for Christmas? I told you when I was here last week. Can't you remember?"

"This morning we have 500 from the different kindergartens. This afternoon there are 600 from the nursery schools, and tomorrow things really start getting tough."

"I'm from the Fire Department. Do you have a certificate proving your beard has been flame-tested in accordance with Page 7, Section 2, Paragraph 3, of the city's fire laws?"

"That wuz me brother's list, Santa. Now let me read you mine, it's a lot longer."

"I know that uniform is pretty itchy, McGillicuddy. But it doesn't look right for you to be scratching while you're supposed to be listening to the children."

"When he bends over to pick you up, Sis, grab his beard and pull hard. Then we'll find out for sure."

"I'm the business agent for Kris Kringle Local 312. Have you got a card in good standing?"

"Hey, whiskers, which way to the men's room?"

"No, darling, he's not God, and he's not Moses. They don't wear red suits."

"P-S-S-S-T, McGillicuddy, is that you? Your wife asked me to give you this grocery list. And she said to tell you that if Santa Claus drops off at any bars on the way home tonight, he'll show up for work tomorrow with a black eye."

"I wish I had nothing to do all days but sit in a warm department store and listen to children."

"WOULD YOU MIND telling my son just one more time what happens to little boys who don't eat their oatmeal?"

"Sorry, but I'll have to ask you to turn in your beard, McGillicuddy. The psychologist in our personnel department has decided we ought to finish the season with a midget as Santa Claus. He feels the children will have more confidence if they talk to someone more their own size."

OUR NATIONAL GOALS—I

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several hundred goals for the 1960s were set before Americans this week by a White House commission. Yet one simple, overriding, all-essential word told the story — growth.

Growth to provide at least 13.5 million new jobs, growth to avoid higher taxes, growth to support new multimillion-dollar outlays for research and education, growth to rebuild decayed downtowns, growth to arm more strongly against "grave danger."

Without economic growth, at a rate apparently not less than one-sixth faster than American production has increased over the past 20 years, the commission says some of the nation's vital objectives will be lost, its security and leadership endangered.

IN SUCH A CASE, said the President's Commission on National Goals, Americans are going to have to sacrifice —perhaps by tax increases, loss of leisure time, a slower rise in living standards, and unaccustomed controls.

The commission said it this way:

"If the growth rate is lower, it will impel consideration of higher taxes, increased quantity of labor and the greater individual effort and sacrifice exemplified by forced savings and reduced consumption."

This was the essence of the report filed with President Eisenhower by 11 distinguished Americans after 10 months of study. The White House released it this week.

ON THE HOME front, the commission dealt with many matters not tied directly to economic policy — breaking down racial and religious bias, reducing juvenile delinquency, and reorganizing the government, to name a few.

But the central theme was that the United States must make a greater investment—of both private and public money—in its own future, or it will risk the loss both of world leadership and its own cherished freedoms.

The growth goal was stated mainly in terms of jobs. The target, said the commission, should be the fastest possible rate which is "consistent with primary dependence upon free enterprise and the avoidance of marked inflation."

What will that rate be? The commission was uncertain. One careful study, it said, suggests that the total output of goods and services can be boosted by a 3.4 per cent a year — if unemployment is held consistently below 4 per cent and if a climate favorable to investment and research is maintained.

Yet equally careful studies indicate that a 5 per cent growth can be achieved "without extraordinary stimulating measures," said the report.

The average increase in gross national product recorded since 1939 has been 2.9 per cent.

The first task is to reduce joblessness from the October rate of 6.4 per cent to the commission's goal — below 4 per cent.

Then, over the decade, the economy must provide about 13.5 million more jobs than now exist to accommodate new entries into the labor force, 1.5 million farmers who won't be able to make a decent living on the soil, and an unestimated number of factory workers, displaced by automation and advancing technology.

The commission's proposals for insuring growth included many that will be cited in Congress next session.

EDUCATION — Yearly U. S. outlays must be doubled by 1970, to $40 billion. "The federal role must now be expanded."

The commission hewed to the line that education is "primarily a responsibility of the states" and shied away from an outright endorsement of federal aid for school construction. But it said that since 1787 the federal government has participated in the support of education "without destroying local initiative and responsibility."

TAXES—An "overhaul of the tax system" is necessary, whether tax rates go up or down, to improve the climate for new business investment.

The changes, said the commission, should include more liberal depreciation deductions on business and industrial equipment to encourage modernization and investment.

AUTOMATION — Technological change should be encouraged, but with careful advance planning to avoid hardship to those displaced by new machines and processes.

Where whole areas are left in distress, both state and federal governments should help provide loans and grants to assist the communities in attracting new industries and in retraining and relocating workers.

AGRICULTURE — Supply and demand must be brought into balance so that the market—instead, presumably, of federal subsidies — will provide farmers a fair return.

There should be "much increased retirement of farm land, with emphasis on whole farms." But federal farm programs, including price supports, will be necessary for some time to come.

CITIES — Slum conditions must be remedied and the process of decay in big cities arrested, the commission said. It called for more urban renewal programs "costing as much as $4 billion a year."

HEALTH—Among a dozen recommendations in this field, the commission called for further efforts to reduce the burden of the cost of medical care.

"Extension of medical insurance is necessary, through both public and private agencies," it said.

It also called for higher standards of unemployment compensation, without endorsing the effort of many Democrats in Congress for fixing federal standards.

(Tomorrow: Goals in foreign affairs.)

10 YEARS AGO

Marin artists took top prizes in the 1950 San Francisco Art Festival at the Palace of Fine Arts. John L. Howard of Marin City got two $500 awards and $100 awards went to Lucienne Bloch Dimitroff of Mill Valley and Irving Norman, formerly of Lagunitas, all for paintings. Edith K. Heath of Sausalito got $100 and Mary Lindheim of Forest Knolls $50 for ceramics. Keith Monroe of Sausalito and Edwin A. Cadogan of Kentfield won in jewelry and craft work respectively.

20 YEARS AGO

Repeated acts of vandalism at Tamalpais High School were blamed on football rivalry by Principal Edwin A. Wells, who told San Rafael High School that its student body must accept responsibility and make at least partial restitution of the latest $250 damage, or all remaining football games between the two schools would be called off. (This was later lifted due to confessions by 11 non-students.)

Describing construction in progress on San Rafael's Highway 101 viaduct a visiting editor, W. L. Netherby, said that "it points the way toward the freeways of the 1950s."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By DOROTHY SIMPERS

Even Santa Gets A Little Cold When He Arrives In Marin Rain

A bashful handful of youngsters were on hand to greet Santa Claus when he arrived at the Corte Madera Shopping Center in a heavy downpour last week.

One of the first in line was a reluctant little miss with blonde pigtails whose mother urged her to tell Santa what she wanted. She thought a while. "A stove."

Anything else? She thought some more. "A refrigerator," concluded the domestic-minded lass.

The boy behind her looked like her brother. What did he want? Some nails, he told Santa. More questioning revealed that he wanted a carpenter set.

It was a chilly, gloomy, wet day, but Santa smiled determinedly in his little green hut in the arcade. He should have a stove to keep him warm, commented a grown-up visitor.

WE LEARNED of a new use for old Independent-Journals the other night at a San Rafael Board of Education meeting. On display was a large, handsome model of a horse, created by art students at Santa Venetia School.

The model was made of wadded up newspapers.

Incidentally, Santa Venetia's junior high students are doing all sorts of other interesting things. One group has been making a survival study and has learned how to recognize, prepare and eat edible weeds. The youngsters are hoping to spend a weekend camping at Samuel P. Taylor State Park to test some of the things they have learned.

SANTA VENETIA'S Principal Lawrence Geiger tells the story about the youngster who was having difficulty with his studies and finally got his first "A" the other day.

"Yah," said the boy, casually, brushing off the accomplishment. Geiger was almost to the door of the classroom when he heard the proud voice, attempting to be off-hand: "You want to see it?"

SAN RAFAEL BOARD of Education Trustee Willard Vernon had a plaintive request to make of junior high teachers:

"Will you teach in math and home economics what you do when you have a cake package that says use an eight-inch square pan and all you have is a round pan?"

Vernon and his fellow trustees spent some time last week pondering the problem of bus transportation for students—a problem made increasingly difficult by the number of high schoolers in Hamilton Air Force Base's Capehart housing.

The district can't afford to buy another bus, and Hamilton apparently has none to lend in the emergency.

"How about air transportation?" joked Chairman C. Paul Bettini. Helicopters might be the solution at that, if the Air Force can spare a few in the mornings and afternoons!

"How do I make it evident to people that sometimes I want to talk as a citizen and not as a city councilman?"

Independent-Journal:

As a resident of Terra Linda who will soon be called upon to cast his vote in an election to decide whether or not Terra Linda shall be annexed to San Rafael, I was very much disturbed by the impression created in a recent article in your paper.

It is difficult to tell whether or not the misrepresentation was deliberate.

In a front page article in the issue of Tuesday, Nov. 22, the mayor of San Rafael is quoted as describing the recent transfer of recreation lands from the Terra Linda Community Services District to the newly formed Terra Linda Recreation District, as "juvenile shenanigans in bad faith." Under any circumstances such a statement by one public official about others would seem to be in extremely poor taste, but in the light of the facts this statement appears even more irresponsible and misleading. These are the facts:

The first formal resolution of the CSD declaring its intention to transfer these recreation lands to a recreation district, if formed, was on Feb. 11, 1960, following many weeks of public discussion. This resolution was reported in your issue of Feb. 12. This can hardly be called "in the face of annexation proceedings" as the CSD's action was characterized in the Nov. 22 story.

This intention of the CSD has been the subject of continuous public discussion during the past six months as the recreation district was being formed for the purpose of receiving these lands. Formation of the recreation district was approved by 72 per cent of the voters at the election of Oct. 4.

During the recent campaign for the CSD Board of Directors, the three successful candidates all publicly endorsed this transfer and were elected on this platform. Thus, the voters of Terra Linda have endorsed the CSD's actions, not once, but twice within the past three months.

It is clear that the actions of the CSD have been entirely open and above board and in complete good faith. By way of contrast, if this is the type of leadership and cooperation which we can expect from San Rafael, then, in the forthcoming annexation election, it will not be difficult to decide how to cast my vote.

The high price of a good cook in New York produced a brand-new crisis in the home of a prominent merchant. The newly acquired queen of the kitchen made no move whatever to prepare dinner her first night on the job.

"Vera!" called the lady of the house, "why aren't you preparing dinner? We're starving!"

"At the salary you're paying me," replied the new cook loftily, "I don't have to cook in a hot kitchen. I'm taking you all out for dinner at the Colony."

Auction Of Unclaimed Storage Goods Set Saturday In San Rafael

Another auction of unclaimed storage goods comes up Saturday, this time at Pierce-Hardin Van and Storage, 26 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael. Time set for opening the bidding is 10 a.m.

Such auctions among Marin County moving and storage houses generally occur once or twice a year—this is Pierce-Hardin's first in several years and is likely to turn up a wide variety of furniture and household appliances as well as the usual collection of boxes, cartons, barrels, suitcases and trunks with contents unknown that challenge the venturesome to try for hidden treasures. Anyone's guess as to what's inside is as good as the next fellow's and the odds are somewhat better than table stakes.

A NEW BUSINESS which seems to be in the making, still without an offiical studio address, is that of Paula Antoinette Diele who lives at 550 Sunset Parkway, Novato. Under the trade name of Antoinette she designs original fashions with the Parisian touch and operates by appointment only.

Antoinette is a product of Belgium who recently arrived in this country with her husband, Sgt. S. Diele of Hamilton Air Force Base. She is a graduate of the Institut Superieur a Parmentier of Brussels and received post-graduate instructions under the tutelage of Dior in his Paris studios. She was later a fashion designer for Pascal of Paris. She speaks five languages and has already put on several shows in North Marin displaying her creations.

Undoubtedly it won't be long before the young lady opens a studio where they can be more regularly displayed.

NEW STAFF ADDITION in the escrow department of Trans Western Title Co., San Rafael is Donald Sheahan of Marinwood. He was formerly vice president of the Continental Escrow Co. in Los Angeles and more recently president of Columbia Escrow Co. in Reseda. His specialty is V.A. and FHA escrow work which he helped develop for Continental Escrow. Look for increased service in this line at Trans Western.

He is married and has a 3-year-old son.

MEMBERS of the Marin Builders Exchange who contemplate attending the third annual dinner dance at the Meadow Club in Fairfax Saturday should get their applications in now for reservations.

Others in the construction industry who are interested but not members of the exchange may also be eligible to attend. Call the Marin Builders Exchange for details.

COLDWELL, BANKER and Co. has now officially opened its new office at 1242 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, where it will offer complete service in residential, commercial and industrial sales and leasing. In addition to these normal brokerage facilities the firm provides property management and real estate loan services. Manager of the new office is Gordon H. Dohemann of San Rafael.

The company first came to Marin County about 10 months ago when it established a real estate loan department at 967 Grand Avenue in connection with its affiliation with Aetna Life Insurance Co. as exclusive loan correspondent in the states of California and Arizona.

It now has a network of 12 offices in San Rafael, San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Los Angeles, Beverly Hills, San Diego, San Mateo, Palo Alto and Phoenix, Ariz.

Seat Belts Called Wreck Insurance

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A pair of prominent surgeons say 10,000 persons killed in highway accidents last year would be alive today if they had used auto seat belts.

Drs. Murray E. Gibbens and Samuel P. Newman, in a paper submitted yesterday to the American Medical Assn.'s 14th clinical conference, that seat belts are like insurance.

"If you have them and don't wear them, it's like letting your insurance payments lapse," they said. "If you don't have them, it's like driving without insurance."

The report said studies showed "conclusively" that a person involved in a highway crash is 40 to 60 per cent "safer against death and injury" if he is strapped in with a seat belt.

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, Dec. 1, the 336th day of the year with 30 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Mercury and Mars.

The evenings stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1917, Father Flanagan founded Boys Town, the "city of little men" near Omaha, Neb., with a fund of less than $100.

In 1919, the first woman in the British Parliament took her seat as American-born Lady Nancy Astor was sworn into the House of Commons.

A thought for today: The Greek Philosopher Plato said: "under the influence either of poverty or of wealth, workmen and their work are equally liable to degenerate."

TIME AND TIDE

THE PARENTS' CORNER

Guidance Counsellor

The Future Holds But Little Now For Once Popular Teen-Age Girl

She's somebody's daughter. I can't tell you whose. She tried suicide and almost succeeded.

She is just 16.

She joined a high school sorority 15 months ago. Supposedly it is a secret affair, but all the kids know about it. About 20 girls belong. They meet in each others' homes.

Betty's parents knew the club was illegal. They were warned of the risks. However, they wanted her to have fun. They told her to go ahead.

Last summer the sorority teamed up with a boys' fraternity. The two groups had several unchaperoned parties. Liquor flowed freely. Betty got drunk. On Labor Day weekend the kids rented a cabin on a lake. They had a house party, with no adults present.

Later that month Betty realized she was pregnant. She dared not tell her folks. Her father is a community leader. Her mother is an officer in their church. Betty knew how they would feel. She thought death by her own hand would be less of a disgrace than the arrival of an illegitimate grandchild.

She took an overdose of sleeping capsules. Fortunately her mother discovered it in time. Betty will live, and so will her baby.

The moral? Just this:

Don't let your girls join high school sororities or your boys join high school fraternities. Keep track of the parties they attend. Make sure their affairs are well chaperoned and properly conducted. Never allow any drinking.

Remember Betty, and be careful.

Retired Sausalito City Employees To Be Honored

They are Walter Washbourne, city gardener who retired June 1 after 14 years service; Ada Saline, assistant librarian, who retired June 1 after 17 years service; Paul Low, street superintendent, who retired Oct. 1 after 35 years service, and Mabel Wosser, librarian, who retired Nov. 1 after 23 years service.

The retired employees will receive engraved gifts in recognition of their service and copies of a city council resolution acknowledging their service, prepared on a scroll.

Other employees who will receive service awards from the city council are Fire Chief Mathew (Matts) Perry for 35 years service; Amelie Smith, city clerk; Ralph K. Pedersen, fireman; John Terris, assistant fire chief; Stanley Kelly, police sergeant, and Wilma Young, deputy city clerk, who have all served 15 years or longer.

The banquet and program, which is at 7:30 p.m., is being planned by an employees committee, made up of Pedersen, Tom Zink, William Hynes and John Rocha.

Sausalito Gallery To Show Art Works

The David Cole Gallery, Gate 5 Road in Sausalito, will present a group showing of recent paintings and sculptors beginning tomorrow. The showing will close Dec. 24.

Federal Commissioner Of Education Quits

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower yesterday accepted the resignation of Lawrence G. Derthick as U.S. commissioner of education, effective Jan. 19.

Derthick will become executive assistant secretary of the National Education Assn.

Since 1953, the Weather Bureau has called tropical storms by girls' names. The list for 1960 runs from Abby to Winny.

Human Rights Day Events Set In Marin

Two special events are planned for Marin County next week in recognition of Human Rights Day.

On Tuesday, the League of Women Voters of Central Marin will present David McEntire, professor of social welfare at University of California, in a lecture at 8 p.m. in Olney Hall of College of Marin.

McEntire will discuss "Residence and Race," the last of a series of studies prepared by the Commission on Race and Housing set up by the Fund for the Republic, of which he was director or of research. The lecture will be open to the public.

On Friday at 8 p.m. in the same hall, the Marin Chapter, American Assn. for the United Nations, will present the feature-length, full-color film, "Power Among Men."

The film, produced by the United Nations, won the Robert Flaherty award for "most outstanding creative achievement in documentary films." There will be no admittance charge but a donation will be solicited.

Dec. 10 will be the 12th anniversary of Human Rights Day.

Forgery Suspect Booked At Jail

San Rafael police brought Richard D. Rodriguez, 22, from the San Francisco County Jail to the Marin County Jail Tuesday and booked him on a charge of forgery.

Rodriguez, who lives in San Francisco, is accused of cashing a forged payroll check for $101 at the Gasoteria, Second Street and Francisco Boulevard in San Rafael, on Sept. 13.

He was identified by James E. Brogan of 59 Bell Avenue, Fairfax, assistant manager of the service station.

Police arrested him after he completed a two-month sentence in San Francisco City Prison yesterday for joyriding and non-support. He was being held in lieu of $2,625 bail yesterday.

Asks Incorporation

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan announced Del Mesa Property Owners Assn., a Marin County group, has filed articles with his office to form a non-profit organization. Directors were listed as Barrett G. Hinds, 36 Hill Drive, and Dudley F. Miller, 25 Hill Drive, Ross, and T. C. Wellman, 1 Vista Drive, Kentfield.
